John W. Noble

IN dedicating the 1919 Syllabus to Mr. John W. Noble, President of the Board of Education, the senior class feels that it is voicing the appreciation of the entire school, and not merely that of the graduating class. Mr. Noble has, in the past season of war, victory and peace, formed such an intimate friendship with the student body that we regret to recall that his visits to the school were not more frequent.

Uncle Sam is particularly proud of him, for he made a success of each Loan campaign conducted in E. O. H. S. We are proud of him because he has been one of us—interested in our doings. So, in order that he shall be known in the bright future, which has been made possible only by such men as East Orange has produced, we are placing his photograph in the front of our year book.

SENIOR CLASS

Data of Two Classes

SENIOR CLASS.

President—LLOYD NEIDLINGER.
Vice-President—ALINE LEONARD.
Secretary—EMILY DuBOIS.

FOUR years ago, in the dark ages of '15, when we entered East Orange High School, we entered as an exceptional class. We have always been an unusual class, and we are sure that no other class has ever done the things that we have done, or ever claimed as much of the faculty's attention as our class.

We started the Freshman Debating Society, an organization that was very successful on account of the excellent support of the class. Our class pins were designed by a member of the class.

As Juniors, we showed our approval of the General Organization, bought a bond of the Third Liberty Loan, and contributed $100 toward the sale of Thrift Stamps. Some very intellectual members of the class started a Short Story Club, which all who could boast of the ability to "write," joined.

When Seniors, we contributed largely toward the Fourth Liberty Loan, and to the sale of Thrift Stamps. We also more than did our share in bringing books for the soldiers in camp, and in supporting the great Victory Loan.

Yes, we have been a wonderful class, we admit it, and we are all proud to be members of the Class of 1919.

EMILY DuBOIS, Secretary.

THE JUNIOR CLASS.

President—GEORGE EMERSON.
Vice-President—MARION PERKINS.
Secretary—DOROTHY LEWIS.

CAN anyone ever forget these Juniors of 1920? They have always been notorious—back in 1917, for numbers; now, for accomplishments.

Naturally, they acted as Freshmen do. Before long, however, they overcame these faults, and by June had acquired officers, long trousers, and the art of making puffs.

In September, they set out with determination. Pins and colors were chosen. Contests and prizes were won. Appeals were answered, and Sophomore dollars greatly helped to swell the Liberty Loan and War Stamp totals.

But this year! The crowd at the regular class meetings was only one proof of interest and spirit. All activities of last year—athletics, contests, society memberships—were continued and enlarged. Appeals for books, money and time were answered. First, what should those Juniors do but choose a committee and enter enthusiastically into plans for the Prom! Next it was a social. How could this be anything but successful with those Juniors managing it? In short, they have successfully participated in every sort of activity.

Time alone can tell with what lofty aspirations and accomplishments this class will return to E. O. H. S. next year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

FRESHMEN CLASS

Data of Two Classes

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS.

President—HORACE GRANT.

Vice-President—JANICE GOODMAN.

Secretary—HELEN FALKNER.

Treasurer—EDWARD GOEDECKE.

IN the past year, the Sophomore Class entered into many class and school activities. During the school year of 1917-1918, the class may have been a trifle lacking in the spirit of confidence that was so clearly shown this year.

Perhaps the most important events of the year were the Liberty and Victory Loans. In the Fourth Liberty Loan we secured second place.

On the athletic field, we were well represented by a large number of fans. Not only do we boast of a good number of rooters, but also of a large number of athletes. On the football team, the finds of the year were Jimmie Sanderson and Wilton McGee, both of '21. P. Walker, R. Putnam and J. Putnam, did much to make the hockey team a success. This assures the class a very promising future on the athletic field.

The girls have entered into many organizations and societies, including the Red Cross, for which the work was done voluntarily.

The teachers found little trouble or fault with the class. In reviewing the work done, every one agreed that the Sophomore Class had a successful year.

WALTER H. SWOBODA.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS.

ALTHOUGH the Freshman Class this year is not any larger than last year's class and has been made fun of considerably, it is one of the best balanced classes ever enrolled in the High School.

In the Freshman-Sophomore Meet, Thursday, May first, the Freshmen were defeated; but that is no discredit, as the Sophs had more experienced men. The athletic material of the Freshman Class showed up very well. Some of the men who will be valuable in the future are: H. Herrick, Jr., H. Hallock, W. Lund, E. Fuechsel, H. Nenninger, W. Stevenson, M. Monroe.

In other meets and athletic sports the Freshmen who are considered promising are:

In Hockey—H. Herrick, Jr., J. Putnam.

In Basketball—M. Cubbison, C. Banks, H. Eagan.

In Baseball—Wm. Darby.

In Tennis—J. Failing.

The Freshmen are also very good in school work (even if they don't know any better). In Mechanical Drawing, Mr. Collins states that, this year, they have accomplished more than any other Freshman class. In Woodworking and Printing, 1922 is showing great ability. In prepared studies, they are as good as Freshmen, in their wild state, can be. The Freshman Debating Society is making the upper classmen sit up and take notice.

It is expected that in a few years the Freshman Class will have developed in all respects so that they will be of great value to E. O. H. S.

FACULTY

BOYS' DEBATING CLUB

GIRLS' DEBATING CLUB

THE BOYS' DEBATING SOCIETY.

President—EDGAR JOHNSON.

Secretary—WILLIAM GRIFFIN.

THIS June marks the close of perhaps the most successful year in the history of debating in this high school. The club met regularly every Thursday during the year, and twenty-one debates were held on the leading questions of the day. That the membership increased from fifteen to twenty-five is testimony to the painstaking and unremitting efforts of our faculty advisor, Mr. Greenan. The accomplishments of the Debating Team are related in another paragraph. Our representative to Colgate, William Griffin, won for us the first prize in the Extemporaneous Speaking Contest, and the right to represent the State of New Jersey in the Interstate Contest.

We trust that next year the club will go forward, and surpass the records set this year.

THE GIRLS' DEBATING SOCIETY.

President—DOROTHY LEWIS.

Vice-President—BERNICE MILLAR.

Secretary—ELEANOR BYRNES.

THE Girls' Debating Society has not only surprised outsiders, but has even surprised itself by the quantity and quality of its work during the past year. With very few exceptions, it has held regular weekly meetings at which the members have debated on topics of unusual interest. The Society had two representatives in the debate against the Boys' Debating Society, Dorothy Lewis and Dorothy Williams. Dorothy Lewis was also selected for the Inter-School Debating Team which has recently won the Debating Championship for the school.

Not only has the society accomplished a large amount of work during the past year, but it planned two entertaining socials for its members, one before Christmas, and the other before the Easter vacation.

The Society hopes to go even farther in its work next year and so accomplish even more. This may be done with the aid and support of all upper class girls interested in debating.

DEBATING TEAM AND DELTA EPSILON

KEN MAIR

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

THE DEBATING TEAM.

THIS year has been one of the most successful in inter-scholastic debating that old E. O. H. S. has ever known. The team was selected as usual in the inter-club debate, which resulted in the selection of William Griffin, Dorothy Lewis, Jacob Friend and Edgar Johnson, Alternate. After painstaking preparation, we met Montclair, our first opponent, in our auditorium on March 14. With almost a full house before us, we came off victorious, with a unanimous decision. Our next rival was South Side, a more formidable opponent. However, in South Side auditorium, May 11, after a closely fought and exciting contest, we again "brought home the bacon"—in the form of a silver cup for our school.

DELTA EPSILON.

THE following members of the Debating Society were elected to the honorary society, Delta Epsilon, this year: Alfred Clapp, Sherwood Silliman and Lewis Loeser.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

QUITE an interest was taken during the winter by the senior girls in basketball. Two teams were organized at the beginning of the school year. Each Monday afternoon found a group of girls becomingly arrayed in middies and bloomers, waiting anxiously, or otherwise, to get into the conflict and to bring victory to their team. Oh, yes, politeness is a great asset. Many sympathetic voices frequently murmured such remarks as, "Oh, I beg your pardon!" "Did I step on your feet?" The girls of the class of 1919 leave a challenge to classes that follow and especially to those who will be blessed with a new gymnasium, to strive to further the interest in athletics and to get together, each year, a basketball team which will be a recognized organization of the school and the pride of all East Orange.

DEAR Syllabus:

Do not be surprised or frightened at a letter from an unpretentious little mouse. I travel throughout the building, but on Thursday afternoon I confine myself to room 220. Perhaps you haven't realized that one of the two most active clubs of the school meets there every two weeks.

There are twenty-five girls in Ken Mair (all alive and alert) and several new members from the Girls' Debating Society were admitted last month. During the past year Ken Mair has debated many current topics, of both national and local interest. The members have improved greatly in extemporaneous debates, due to the guidance of their critic, Miss Cohen. I also heard that two members of Ken Mair were on the Interclub team and made the boys work hard for victory.

With this record to look back upon and with a rosy future in view, Ken Mair looks confidently towards the beginning of a new year.

CAMOUFLAGE CLUB

ORCHESTRA

PHYSICS CLUB

THE PHYSICS CLUB.

THE revival of the Physics Club this year was greeted with much enthusiasm by the physics students in the school.

It was necessary to hold several business meetings, for the election of officers, for the drawing up of a constitution and by-laws, and for planning several trips of interest and benefit, in an educational way. The students responded with a will, and as a result, the club proved to be a great success. There were so many members that it was necessary to organize two separate divisions so that everything would run smoothly. Officers were elected for each division, aside from the main Club officers. Several trips were carried out, as planned in the meetings, and with great success. At the Sprague Electric Works the Club was given a fine reception. Also a trip to the Submarine Boat Corporation and Crocker-Wheeler Works was instructive to all.

The combined efforts of the members have certainly put the Club on its feet to stay, and it is to be hoped that in the future the same fine spirit will prevail.

CHARLES SCHLEY, Secretary.

THE ORCHESTRA

President—EDWARD FRIEND.

Secretary—GRACE RUBIN.

UNTIL this year the orchestra had been scarcely recognized among the school organizations. Under Miss Krieg's direction, however, it was reorganized at the beginning of the year, on a credit basis, and the membership greatly increased.

The orchestra has taken an active part in practically every assembly of the school, in the auditorium, and has also assisted several times in furnishing music at meetings of the Home and School Association.

This organization helped very materially with the musical score of the light opera presented by the combined musical clubs of the school.

GRACE RUBIN, Secretary.

THE CAMOUFLAGE CLUB

President—ISABELLE CARR.

Vice-President—HAZEL FEAKINS

Secretary—DOROTHY WILLIAMS.

THE Camouflage Club, although organized just a year ago, has accomplished a great deal of work in connection with high school activities. The first project was the making of several posters for the Fourth Liberty Loan, which were exhibited in chapel on the morning of the drive.

The club and the printing department co-operated at Christmas and Easter in producing cards which were sold in the lunch-room and corridors. Later, under the direction of Miss Palliser and Miss Hutchins, the scenery of the Hawaiian Operetta was executed.

Recreation has not been neglected. In the fall, a vaudeville show was given; in the spring, a social at which the members and their guests danced, played games and enjoyed refreshments. Then came the trip to the Metropolitan Museum, and a picnic at Great Notch.

In view of the pleasure and the actual benefit derived by the members during the club's existence, the prospects for the coming year are very encouraging.

BOYS' RIFLE CLUB

CERCLE FRANCAIS

THE Cercle Francais is a club so old in East Orange High School's history that only some of the faculty know the date of its organization, and yet it is neither hoary, rusty, moss-grown, or moth-eaten. Which fact thereby proves that the Cercle is not a mere insensate thing, but a real, living, and breathing organization.

The Cercle has played an important part in making the students of the French department really appreciate the literature of La Belle France. For these programs the Cercle wishes to express its deep appreciation to Miss Corse, who gave great time and effort to making them a success, and to Miss Parks and Miss Holmes as well. The present Senior members graduate with full expectations that the club will be as successful next year.

THE BOYS' RIFLE CLUB

The Boys' Rifle Club this past year has been more active than in any year previous. The interest and enthusiasm which was pre-eminent by both the officers and members was amazing and through this, it was one of the most foremost and beneficial clubs in the school.

The year started with Johnnie Unkles as president and Mr. Bauer as a most worthy adviser. The club progressed to a membership of almost fifty and was brought into the General Organization. Unfortunately, Unkles was desirous of holding the office of Business Manager of the News so was forced to resign, only to have his place filled by Reeve Moore, a good successor.

The aim of the club was to improve the ability of the members in rifle practice and was successfully carried out.

DONALD FOWLER, Secretary.

LA SOCIEDAD ESPANOLA.

THE Spanish Club has had a very successful season. The total enrollment is about thirty-five members. One may think from the small membership that the meetings have lacked in interest, but on the contrary every one has been interesting and inspiring and a help to all the members. Those who failed to attend the February meeting missed a very amusing playlette given by la Senorita Dorothy Gatley, el Senor Ernest Oppenheimer and el Senor Frank O'Brien. The club, as a whole, wishes to extend its thanks to Miss Faria and Miss Bartlett, and they wish the best of success to the club next year.

EAST ORANGE made a good start in the "Great American Sport" and it looked as if the year was going to be one of unusual success and Baseball was at last coming into its own at E. O. H. S. More than forty men answered Coach Gardner's call for try-outs but after the first few games the number soon diminished. Many of the games had to be cancelled or postponed owing to the extreme inclemency of the weather.

The first game on April 19th was with Newark Academy which proved an easy victim for the East Orange nine. Although the playing was loose on both sides the game ended 9-5 in East Orange's favor.

The next game was with Montclair on April 25. This game was played in the cold and little flurries of snow, but in spite of this East Orange obtained such a lead on the mountainsiders that a home run in the eighth inning with the bases full failed to even up the score and the game ended 10-8 with the first league game to East Orange's credit.

On the 2nd of May the E. O. H. S. nine met Barringer at City Field, but they were unable to hit the opposing pitcher and the game ended 5-2 against the Red and Blue nine.

April 19—Newark Academy	5	E.O.H.S.	9

FOOTBALL.

AFTER this season we are sure that the King of Sports will never be overthrown by a majority in E. O. H. S. We have tasted of the joy of conquest in sports, after a three-year thirst, and the honest enthusiasm of the whole school, over the coveted gold footballs, marks a renewed interest in East Orange's game.

The success of the football team was largely due to the conscientious work of Coach Grosenbaugh and Captain Koeler, and the fine support of the team. Their records show but one defeat, one tie, and the rest victories, in five of which the opponents were kept from scoring. The defeat was received at the hands of the powerful Trenton eleven, which has long been noted for its prowess in football. On Thanksgiving Day the Red and Blue met its arch enemy, Barringer, and, in spite of some fumbles, succeeded in defeating the Newark team by a score of 10 to 7.

We must not omit any of the big features of the success, so we mention our "Gallant Scrubs" who were of great value in getting the team in shape, and though they received no E. O.'s they deserve as much credit as the first string men.

HOCKEY TEAM

CROSS COUNTRY.

Manager—JOHN J. UNKLES.

Captain—CHARLES SCHLEY.

OUR 1919 Cross Country season started out with a squad which no season previous has seen for its size. Over 20 boys practiced each afternoon.

Johnnie Unkles was manager, and the sport was boomed so that ten meets were arranged. The boys were in first class condition and ready to run the first meet, when the influenza epidemic started its campaign. Some of the boys went to work and others stopped practice, as the entire schedule was cancelled.

Finally, when the ban was lifted, there was only time for a few meets.

The boys were in no condition, in fact, they should not have run at all, but they wished to keep up the rep of the school.

We raced both Battin and Central and lost, but it was nothing to our sorrow as the runners did their share under the trying circumstances.

An inter-class meet was also held and was in every way a success. The Seniors won with little Dick Stevens the individual winner.

The season was probably the worst we have ever had, but regardless of the fact, we ran the meet, the boys tried hard, and that is all any one can ask.

HOCKEY.

LAST year a new sport was unearthed in East Orange and a new trophy was brought into the E. O. H. S. Hall of Fame. This year a new advance was made and a Hockey League was formed with Battin, Barringer, Montclair and East Orange as its participants. East Orange won the League after a hard tussle with Montclair. Besides the League games the Red and Blue played other schools and clubs and with two exceptions came out victorious, the exceptions being the Brooklyn Ice Palace and the Newark Hockey Club. These defeats were no disgrace as both teams were composed of men from college sixes.

Mr. Koehler is to be thanked for the tireless energy and faithful work with which he built a team that made East Orange famous. The school supported the team well and there was always a large attendance of Red and Blue rooters who were ready to cheer the team on in both victory and defeat. Due to some fault with the machinery at the Newark Ice Palace the skating season was shortened somewhat and some of the games on the schedules could not be played.

TRACK.

THE season of 1919 has been a very successful one for the East Orange Track Team. The team had a very hard schedule, competing against the most formidable Prep and High Schools of the East. The team defeated all but three schools during the season, taking fourth place in every meet but one, with as many as thirty schools competing each time.

Captain Bush proved to be the best miler in the East, winning every mile but one. He captured the National Indoor Championship Mile, the Middlestate Mile Championship, and the New Jersey State Championship Mile. Schley, the leading sprint man of the School, was a consistent point scorer, placing first at N. Y. U., third in the National Championships, and

BASKETBALL TEAM

BOYS' BASKETBALL LEAGUE.

FOR the past few years there has been no High School Basketball Team.

In previous years, one team has easily gained the championship of the league because of the larger players composing it. This year, to make competition keener, it was made a handicap league. By means of this handicap, the finals resulted in a close match between Teams One and Four. Team One, with Cubison, Evans, Ward, Bassett, Captain Hansan, Walker, Boyce and Beckwith finally won, by winning eight games and losing one. Team Four composed of Captain Dunlap, Hebble, Roemar, Conger, Briscoe and Dunn, gave the championship team a hard fight, with seven games to their credit and two defeats. This was the only team that succeeded in defeating Team One. The last game awarded first place to Team One by defeating Team Ten.

All of the games, which were played on Friday afternoons, were attended by an exceptionally large and enthusiastic number of rooters. Much credit is due to Bob Wyngard and Swede Lindner, who gave a great amount of their time to refereeing the games.

CHARLES BECKWITH.

third in the State Championships in the 220-yard dash. He also ran anchor on the relay team.

Paul Quinn, one of the best hurdlers in the State, was also a point scorer for the team. Nelson Sherrill placed fourth in the high jump in the National Indoor Championships. Milt Coe ran well in the quarter mile and 220, throughout the year.

McGee, heaved the javelin the remarkable distance of 152 feet, 4¾ inches, winning the event in the State Championship Meet.

Dick Stevens, who ran well for East Orange during Cross Country season, was the second best miler in the School. Ktenas and Seiler also did well at this distance. Hershey and Multer were two of the best half-milers on the team. Much is to be expected from these men in the future.

McKinnon, Beattie, Wilson, Gardener, Monroe, Sanderson, Lund, and Neil are promising men in the sprints.

In the weight events, Hector McDonald in the shot-put; Scriggins, Hershey and McDonald in the discuss; Deignan and McGee in the javelin have proved their ability, and are expected to score in the N. J. I. A. A. Meet.

The relay team, minus the services of Schley, who was injured at the time, placed second in the Penn Relays. Quinn, Hershey, Coe and Bush ran in the order named.

All the more credit is due the team this year for it was minus the valuable services of Al. McGall, who coached the team with such success in previous years. He was, and is, a great friend of the fellows, and was missed greatly this year.

CHARLES SCHLEY.

E. O. H. S. JAZZ BAND

SCENE opens in the dark and desolate auditorium of E. O. H. S. Time—8.33. A bell rings, and the occupants of nearby rooms start filing in. Gloom radiates from every face and feet shuffle. All the marks of a dead and dreary morning are there.

Suddenly a sound bursts forth. Music—glorious, gliding syncopation. Upon the faces of all there steals a smile, a smile that rapidly broadens itself into a genuine E. O. H. S. grin. Instead of the shuffling of feet, we hear a light syncopated stepping. Every student, from the lightheaded freshman to the stern senior, trips it blithely with a smiling contented air. Why not—the Jazz Band's playing.

In the history of our school, this year has been the first which has witnessed the appearance of a Jazz Band as an active organization. To all appearances, it will not be the last. Among the organizations which have contributed to the success of the various enterprises, the Jazz Band retains a conspicuous place. During the Liberty Bond campaigns, the Band rendered signal help in raising the enthusiasm to the proper pitch. When the Home-School Association asked the school for its share of the entertainment, the Jazz Band stepped in and supplied the necessary pep to an immensely successful meeting. Upon other occasions, too numerous to mention, it was always the Jazz Band who helped with their syncopations. It is a well known fact that the frequently heard question on Open Night was, "Will the Jazz Band play?" For these favors and for others unmentioned, the Jazz Band deserves the hearty thanks of the entire school.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM.

ON March 7, the Junior-Senior Prom., the annual dance which always has been so well received by the school, was held. Under the auspices of a committee, headed by George Emerson, the necessary details were admirably arranged. The Gymnasium was well decorated, in fact, hardly recognizable, the floor was smooth, the music, furnished by Jacobs Orchestra, was pronounced excellent by all present, and of the many details to be attended to not one was forgotten.

A large crowd attended the affair and made it a financial as well as a social success. The E. O. spirit was present, making the affair pleasant to all who were able to attend. Expression of favorable comment and admiration of the way in which everything was arranged and conducted, was heard on every side.

A notable feature of the evening was the fact that all the classes of the school were represented and that instead of being a dance for the two upper classes, as it has been in the past, the Freshmen and Sophomores comprised a large group of those present, and joined in all the fun and merriment of the evening.

We have word from one of the old and most experienced dancers of the school, that although the music was good, the floor excellent, and every want provided for, the most enjoyable parts of the evening were the strolls around the building. The event was voted a complete success by all present and will be remembered as such in the years to come.

SENIOR DRAMATICS.

WITH pure pleasure we recall the evening of May seventeenth, when the school auditorium was filled to the limit of its seating capacity with the friends and students of the school, for the purpose of witnessing the ability of the senior class along dramatic lines. We are justified in believing that the two plays were produced in a manner far superior to any other production of any other senior class.

"Their Lordships," the first of two, was a well acted comedy in which the whole plot seemed to be against a young Harvard graduate. Social complications forced him to play the part of a delayed English lord, who, unfortunately, turned up later. The entanglement gracefully unravelled, and left the audience in a jovial mood.

"The Camouflage of Shirley" was even more enthusiastically received, by way of contrast with the preceding comedy. A pervading sense of mystery ran throughout the play, serving to increase the interest of the onlookers. The scenery represented three scenes at a summer resort on the Atlantic seacoast, and a number of girls, soldiers, spies and secret service agents went to make up a most entertaining series of incidents and accidents through which a German is brought to justice, and a "woman-hater" is surmounted.

The remarkable features were, no lack of stage presence and good acting, well learned parts, which warranted a smooth course for the play, and an appreciative audience. Let us also remember the orchestra, who were of real value between the acts.

For the success of the play, we are indebted to Miss Freeman, and the faithful men behind the scenes; while for the acting, we extend our appreciation to Louis Dailey, Bud Hepbron, Jean Morrison, William Griffin, Elizabeth Files, Lucy Carr, Alfred Clapp, and Pudge Neidlinger, Vincent Haneman, Edith Lawson, Helen Menzel, Wright Pickering, Elizabeth Wurts, and a number of girls, besides other members of the class.

THOMAS L. DARTNELL.

LOVE PIRATES!

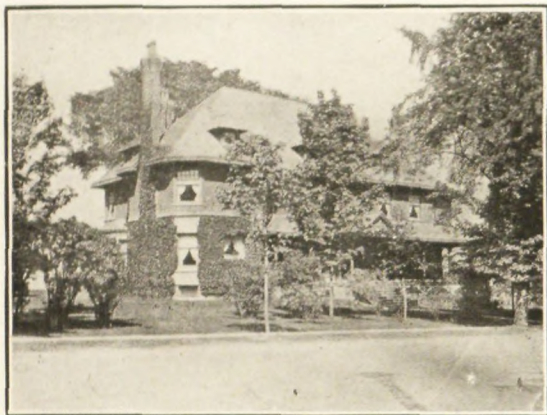

THE musical hit of the year in the High School was the operetta, "Love Pirates of Hawaii." The production, written by Otis M. Carrington and directed by Miss Alice E. Freeman and Miss Ida B. Krieg, was so ably press-agented that the seats in the auditorium were sold long before the date of the operetta. In fact, more tickets were sold than the capacity of the auditorium would permit, so in fairness to those who held tickets but were denied admission a second performance was held. So fully did the production live up to all advance notices, and such was the hit that it made, that the house was also filled to capacity for the encore performance. The actors and actresses of the school made their first bow Friday, the 21st of March, and their second appearance Thursday, the 27th of March.

High School talent was well represented in the cast. The part of Dorothy, daughter of a plantation manager, was ably portrayed by Katheryn Phillips. Daughters of rich plantation owners were Marcella Howk, Margaret Clark, Jessie Condit, and Olive Gilbert. Edna Dahl took the part of Miss De Lancey, an American directress of a private school for girls in Hawaii. Students in the school were Katherine Riotte, Eleanor Conradi, Corinne Naylor, Mary Meeker, Helen Strock, Margaret Thatcher, Margery Gifford, Olive Gilbert, Mathilda Frank, Jessie Condit, Marcella Howk, Jeanette Fentzlaß, Helen Roemer, Margaret Clark, and Margaret Mary Purcell. Theodore Seely made a hit as a heartless pirate chief. Charles W. Crankshaw, Jr., as Billy Wood, a Lieutenant on the U. S. Cruiser Tennessee, also displayed great talent. James Simpson was Scary, a pirate. Other members of the pirate band were Tyson Lutz, Guy O'Donohue, Louis Dailey, Harold Collins, Eugene Wilson, Laurence Ford, Donald Hall, Ewald Menzel, and Thomas Bruton. Real Hawaiian atmosphere was provided by Frances Wilson, Marion Perkins, Natalie Heddon and Helen Swart, who played the parts of ukelele girls.

The entire production was staged by the High School students with the assistance of the faculty. Great credit should be given to Miss Freeman and Miss Krieg, who directed the dramatics and music; also to the High School Orchestra for their able rendering of the musical selections, to the Camouflage Club for the designing of the scenery, and to the Printing Department for their work in printing the programs.

Taking the operetta from all angles, it was an achievement worthy of East Orange High School, and a tribute to those responsible for its success.
