See It Through

By Edgar Albert Guest

When you're up against a trouble,
Meet it squarely, face to face;
Lift your chin and set your shoulders,
Plant your feet and take a brace.
When it's vain to try to dodge it,
Do the best that you can do;
You may fail, but you may conquer,
See it through!

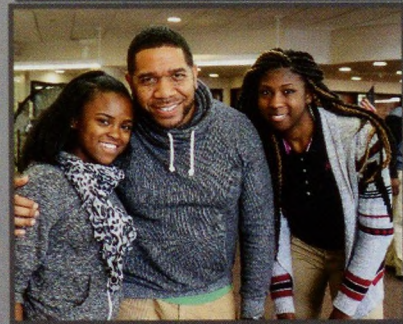

Black may be the clouds about you
And your future may seem grim,
But don't let your nerve desert you;
Keep yourself in fighting trim.
If the worst is bound to happen,
Spite of all that you can do,
Running from it will not save you,
See it through!

Even hope may seem but futile,
When with troubles you're beset,
But remember you are facing
Just what other men have met.
You may fail, but fall still fighting;
Don't give up, whate'er you do;
Eyes front, head high to the finish.
See it through!

A farewell message from your principal, Mr. Victoir T. Cahoon.

From Your Senior Advisor

To the graduating class of 2015,

Congratulations on surviving the toughest four years of your life thus far. You have passed every test that was placed before you to reach this very point in your lives. You have made proud your family, your teachers, and everyone else who believed in you and pushed you to excel in your academic and extracurricular activities. Take a moment to pause and just think of all the people that touched your lives and helped you to get to this very special day. A day you will remember with fond memories.

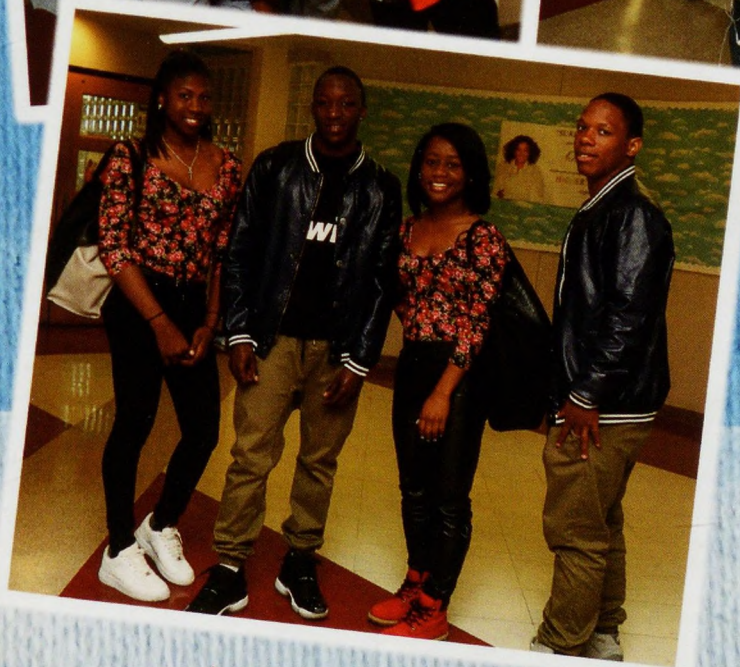

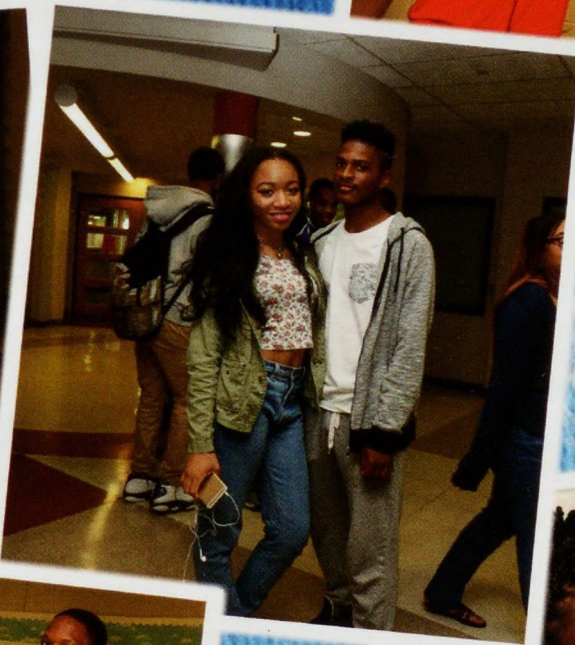

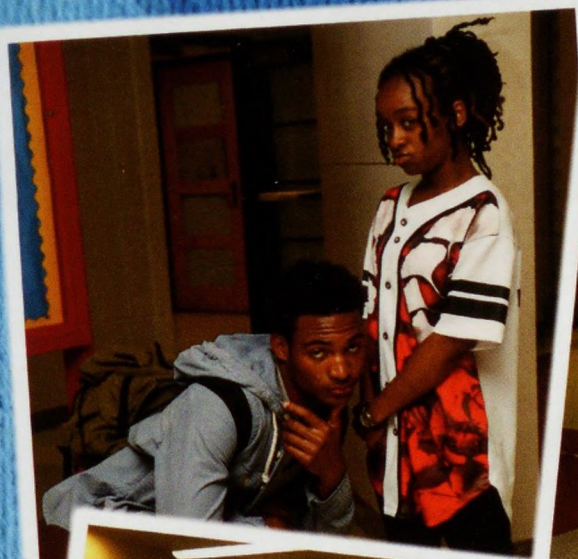

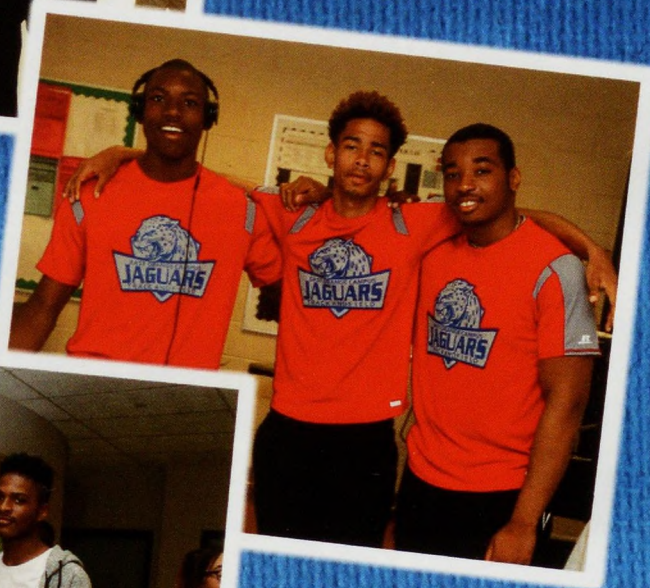

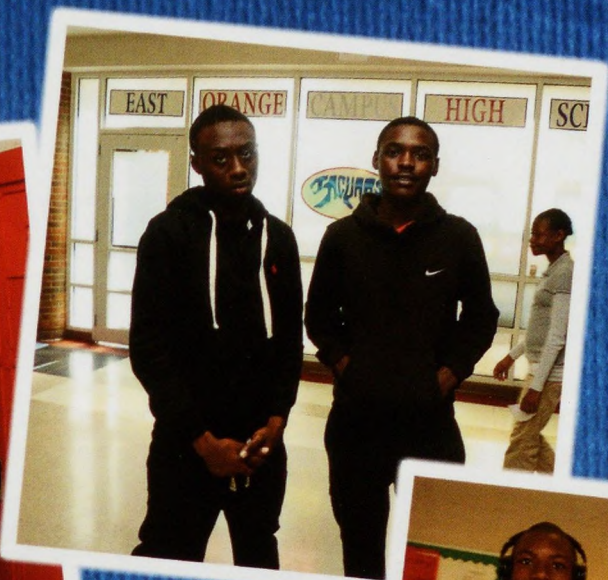

So now, the next journey. In your preparation of starting a new chapter in your lives, many will focus on college, others starting careers by entering the workforce, and some may go into military service. Whatever the journey you choose, realize you are the captain of the vessel sailing the sea of life. As you transition into this new experience, know that you have the ability to control and shape your destiny. Take each opportunity that life presents to visit new places, meet new people, and endeavor to be all that you can be. Remember your past, pursue your future.

I commend you all in your great accomplishments. May God richly bless you.

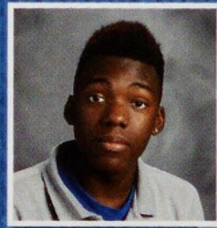

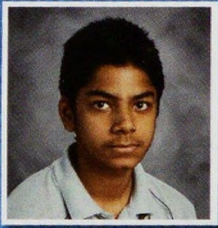

Best wishes,
Dana Crosby

Numbers 1, 2, and 3 were offensive powerhouses for the Jaguars this year.

Tyraiq Beals, #2, was an explosive wide receiver. Here he can be seen celebrating in the endzone after one of many touchdown receptions (top center) and eluding a Livingston defender (bottom right).

The cross country teams competed throughout the season at Branch Brook Park. The girls race went off first, and the boys typically watched from the sidelines as they started (center). The boys race went second, and Gabe can be seen taking off from the starting line (right page, bottom left).

The season wrapped up with the Essex County Championship meet at Brookdale Park. After the race, Coaches Rolanda and Lance met with the boys to review their progress and successes throughout the season (top left).

CROSS COUNTRY

The marching band performed at several events throughout the year. They can be seen here while visiting Campus for a recruiting drive, playing at the Campus pep rally, and performing at a football game.

MARCHING BAND

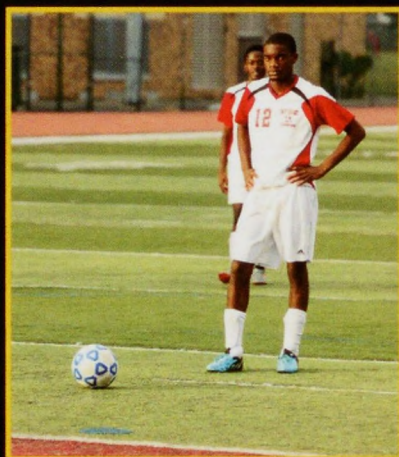

FOOTBALL CHEERLEADING

The football cheerleaders performed stunts at the pep rally in the fall (top right). They cheered with the Jaguar on the sidelines of the football games as well (center left).

SOCCER

The Lady Jaguar tennis team played its home games at the courts outside STEM. Before each game, they lined up to meet their opponents and shake hands (center left).

The Lady Jaguars track team is pictured here running at a meet at Fairleigh Dickinson University in Teaneck. Monique was out with an injury, but she accompanied the team for moral support and gave the girls advice while they waited for their race to start (right page, top right).

INDOOR TRACK

WRESTLING

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADING

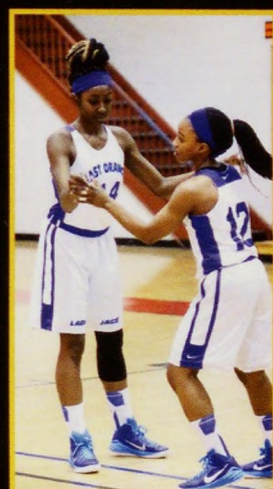

The basketball cheerleaders did double duty this year, cheering at both the boys games and the girls games. As both basketball teams advanced in the county and state tournaments, the cheerleaders were there to motivate them. Here they can be seen in the Essex County Tournament at West Orange High School (center) and in the State Group Semi-finals at Union High School (top center).

BOYS BASKETBALL

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENTS

The boys and girls basketball teams were both amazingly successful in 2015, going deep in the Essex County and State tournaments. The girls beat Montclair, for the third time this season, to win the Essex County Championship (top right). They sailed through their bracket in the state tournament and defeated Paterson Eastside to take home the North Jersey Section 1, Group 4 championship. They went on to play Franklin in the Group 4 semi-finals. Despite staging a late comeback, they ultimately lost a nailbiter at the buzzer.

The boys had a great season of their own. They built on the previous season's success, defeating almost all of their opponents and ranking in the top 10 statewide. They made it to the Essex County finals, where they lost to Seton Hall Prep, and they made it to the Sectional finals, where they lost a nailbiter to Paterson Eastside in overtime.

The Lady Jaguars volleyball team (left to right, back to front): Coach Allocca, Jazmen Epps, Gladys Adarkwah, Nicole Cill, Kaira Cruz, Navia Altenur, Layanah Robinson, Elmeka Edouad, Wendy Osei, Razhanee Dejoie, Zakiyyah Carter, Anna Seck, Alyssa Riley, Coach Ansah, Tatyanna Belnavis, Merchellia Beaubrun, Meliza Baez, Kailene Miranda, Samantha Venegas, Kayla Cruz, Jhaniel Walker, Angel Harris, Loressa Simon, Souline Mathew, and Jasmine Pagan.

The boys won their first Essex County title, and they went on to edge out Columbia and Piscataway to claim the North 2 Group 4 sectional title by a margin 0.33 points. The girls can be seen here competing at the Essex County Relays and an invitational at Randolph. Shalyse Parris cruised around the first corner in the open 400 (right page, center), and Venus launched herself into the long jump pit (right page, bottom right).

OUTDOOR TRACK

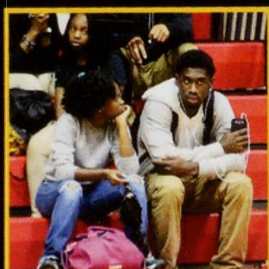

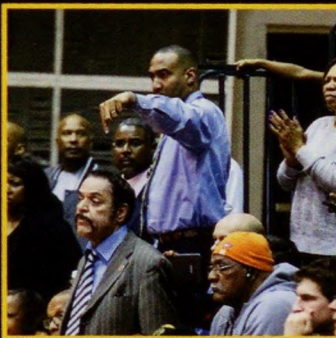

Throughout the year, students and staff showed plenty of school spirit by attending sporting events and supporting their teams.

EVENTS

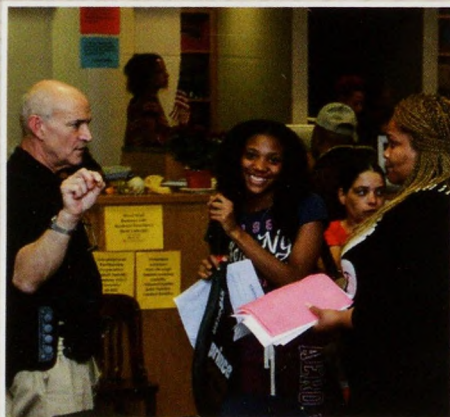

Fall Pep Rally

In October, there was a pep rally to celebrate all of the fall sports and to introduce the contestants for homecoming. The seniors were clearly excited, and Tawana and Oneesha danced out into the middle of the floor with their posters (top left). The marching band performed a song and the cheerleaders did some stunts as well. Nyasia (right page, left), Kenya (right page, right), and Ashley (center left) were three of the many contestants for homecoming queen. The pep rally wrapped up with a surprise performance by D.J. Frosty.

Back to School Night

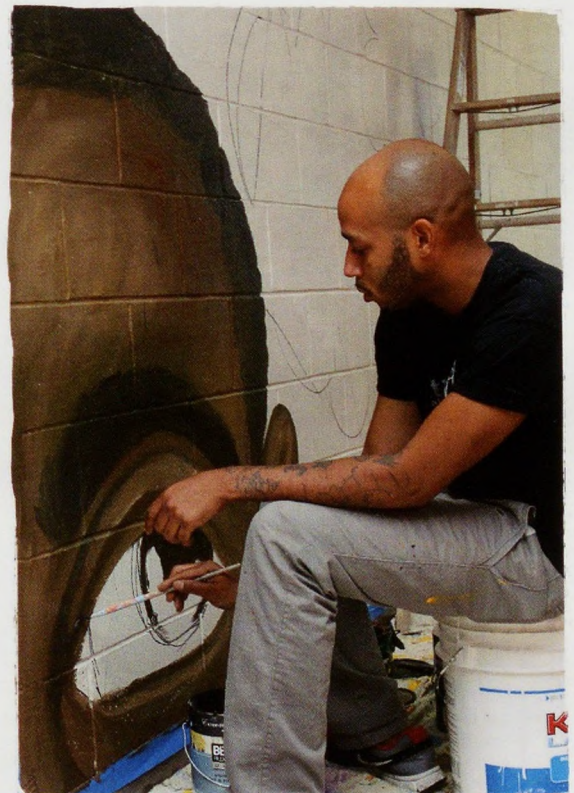

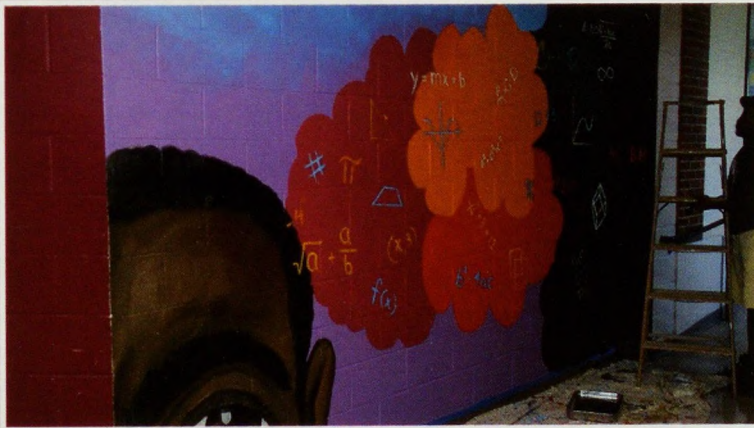

In October, Campus hosted its annual back to school night. Parents came out with their children to meet all of their new teachers for the year. In the Media Center, the English teachers met with their students. Ms. Kelly is seen here speaking with Isaiah and Brittany Jones (top left), and Ms. Stevenson listened in on a conversation Mr. Huston had with one of his parents (center). Meanwhile, the Social Studies teachers were stationed in the court room. Mr. Olters can be seen here at a table with Mr. Rock and his yearbooks (center right). Marquise Kindel was waiting to speak to his teacher, carrying his basketball as usual (center).

Decorating the Halls

The hallways at Campus got a facelift this year. A pair of local artists painted a series of murals throughout the building. They are pictured here working on the mural in the 2nd floor A wing.

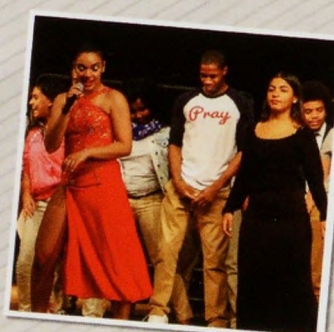

During the holiday season, the halls got an extra bit of decoration as well. Homerooms decorated their doors as part of a contest.

Afro-Cuban Dance Show

Each year, Mr. David organizes a celebration of the African roots of Latin jazz. The show featured performances by Mr. David and his professional dance partner, Ms. Richardson, Crystal Campbell, the Campus Choir, and others. Mr. Miller spoke about rhythm after playing the drums, and students and staff alike were brought on stage to learn a few dance steps.

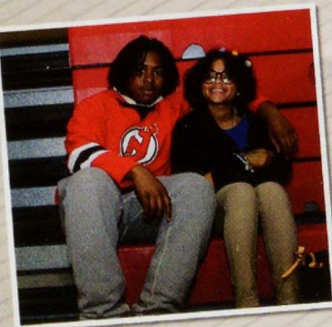

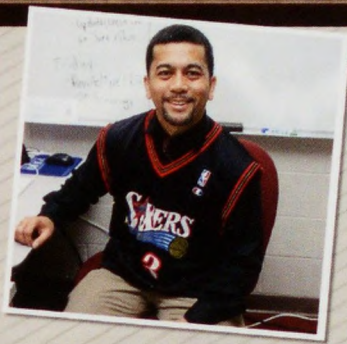

Jersey Day

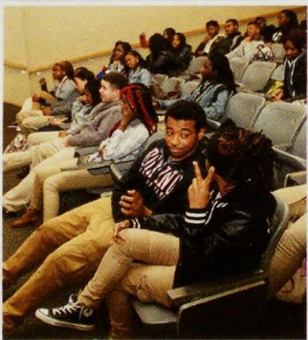

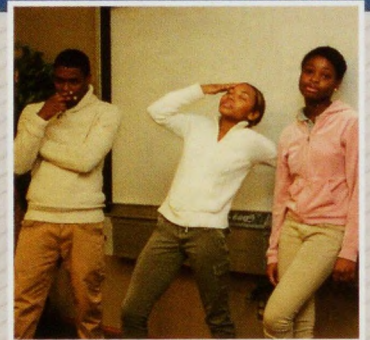

Jersey Day was the most popular day of spirit week in the fall. Both the seniors and the staff got in on the action. Ms. Stevenson and Ms. Pullins wore rival Giants and Cowboys Jerseys, while Amanda and her brother wore matching Eli Manning jerseys (right page).

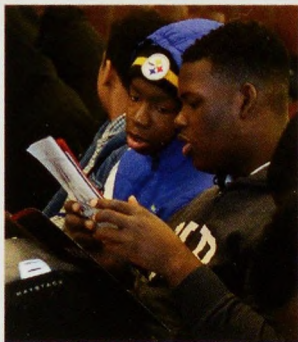

All Stars Project Outreach

The All Stars Project in Newark visited Campus for outreach sessions with the senior class. They led the students in performing some improv and talked with the students about their Development School for Youth. Amani and Yanique led Tawana, Tajah and the rest of the group in an improv activity, and Tanajah spoke to the group about her experience with All Stars.

Each One Reach One Trip

The students in the Each One Reach One mentoring program traveled to Montclair State University for a program hosted by their EOF program. There was an impromptu dance competition (top center), an engaging keynote speaker (bottom right), and an intense round of Rock Paper Scissors. The students listened to a panel of successful professionals describe some of the obstacles they overcame in life and some advice they had for the students.

Homecoming

This year's contestants for Homecoming Court introduced themselves at the pep rally in the fall. There was a large field of ladies vying for the chief spot as Homecoming Queen, and Nyasia Franklin ultimately prevailed. Devante Williams took the crown as Homecoming King.

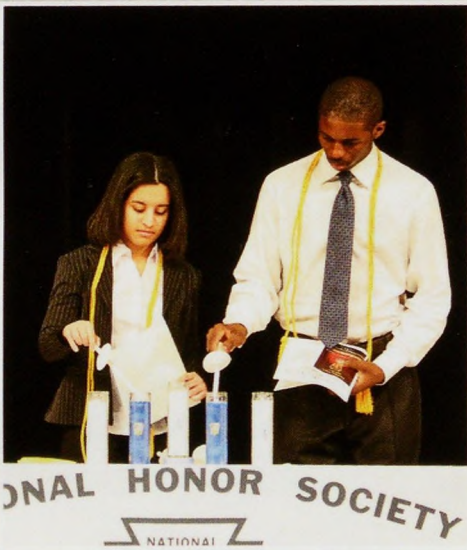

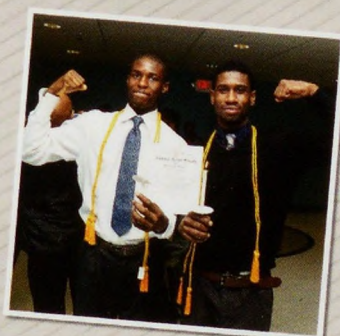

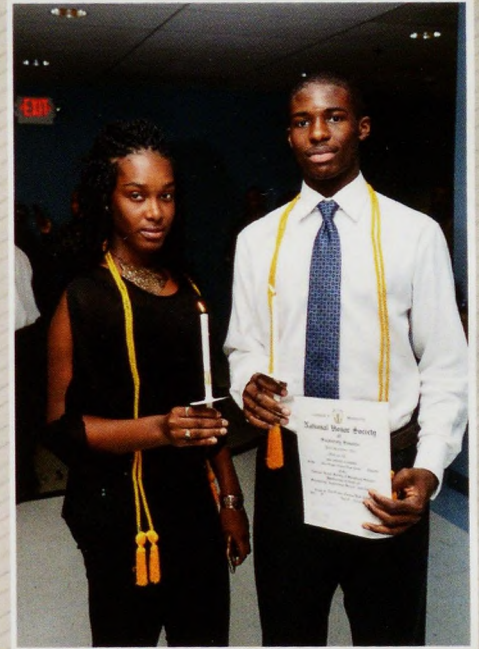

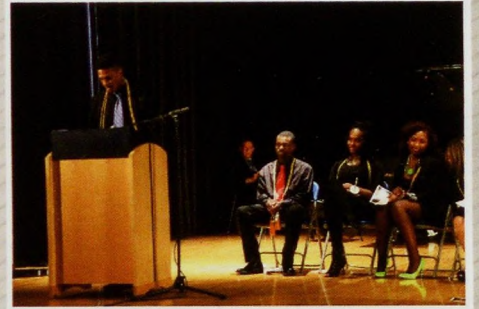

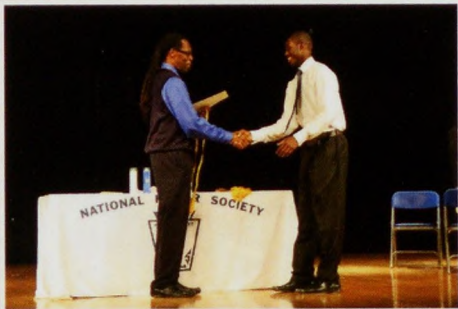

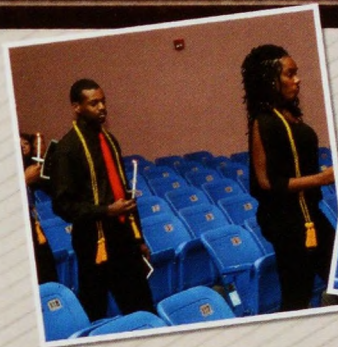

National Honor Society

Each year, a select group of students at Campus are invited to join the National Honor Society. In order to be eligible, students must have a certain GPA. They then go through an interview process before being formally inducted. During the induction ceremony, new inductees wear white and existing members wear black. During the ceremony, each student received an honor cord and lights a candle. Afterwards, everyone signed the book.

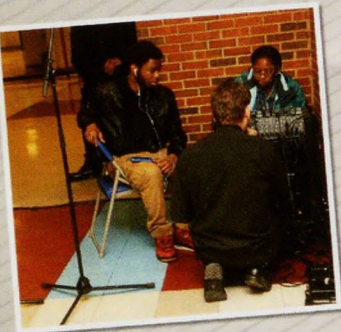

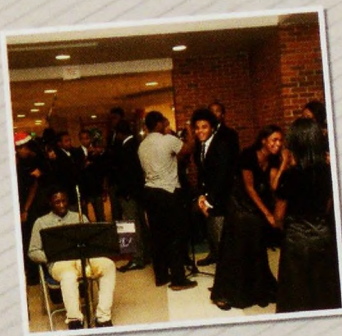

Holidays at Campus

Every year, children from Isaiah House are invited to Campus for a gift giving ceremony. This year, Mr. Pullins played the role of Santa Claus, and Ms. Conroy reprised her usual role as Ms. Claus. A faculty trio of flautists started things off, followed by the choir and the jazz band. The whole thing took place in front of the holiday tree, which had been decorated by the National Honor Society.

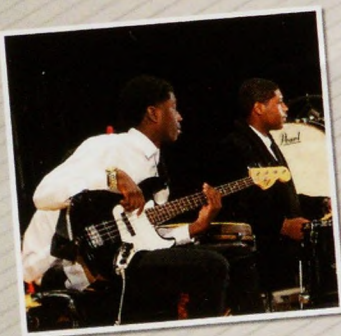

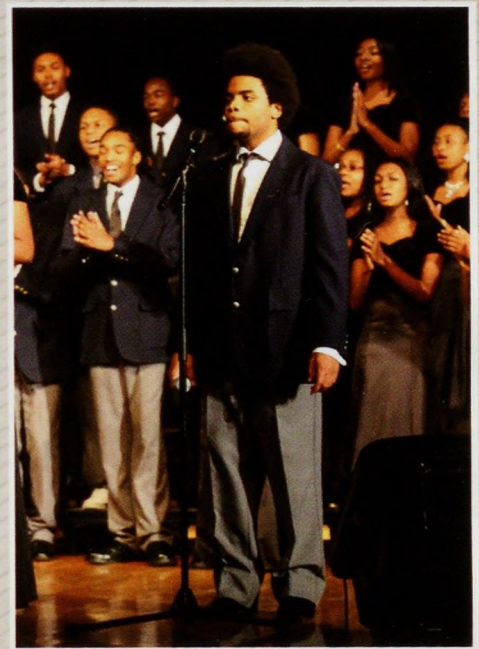

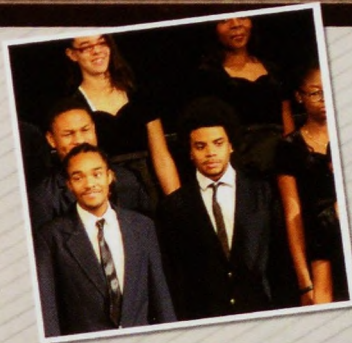

Holiday Concert

The holiday festivities at Campus were capped off with the traditional winter concert. The choir, the concert band, and the jazz band all performed. Lydia and Naim both sang solos for the choir. The evening was accompanied by a holiday bazaar, organized by Ms. Pullins, full of local vendors and family fun.

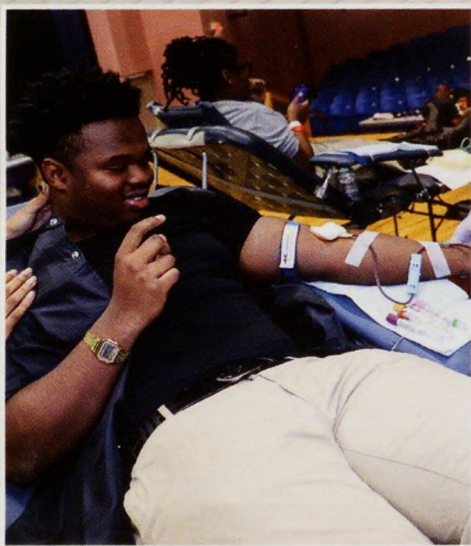

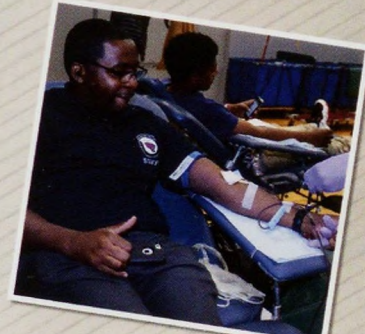

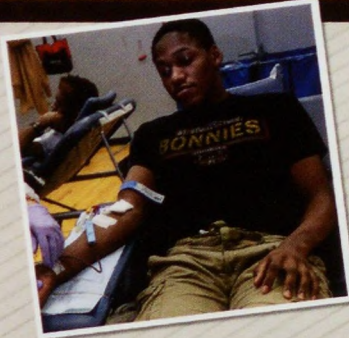

Blood Drive

Twice a year, Mr. Rock and his students host a blood drive at Campus. This year, they partnered with Community Blood Services and registered over 100 students, faculty, and alumni as donors. A few of the donors are pictured here, including Aaron (center left), Wideline (center), Malik (center right), Mr. Hammond (bottom left), Naim (right page, center left), Ashley (right page, center), and Matt (right page, right).

Mock Trial Competition

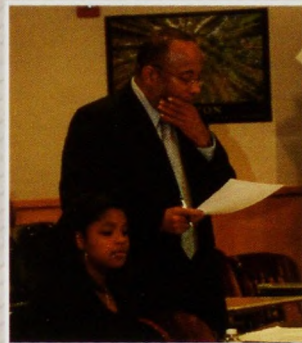

The mock trial club traveled to Newark for the annual competition at the Veterans Courthouse. The students prepared a defense for a mock trial in which a student was injured during a school trip. A practicing attorney presided over the trial as a judge, and students from a third school served as the jury. The Campus team put on a respectable showing but ultimately lost the case.

Law Day Mock Trial

The Mock Trial team also hosted its own event at Campus on Law Day. Practicing lawyers came in to conduct a mock trial and played the part of the attorneys. Meanwhile, there were also students who played the parts of witnesses and jurors in the case.

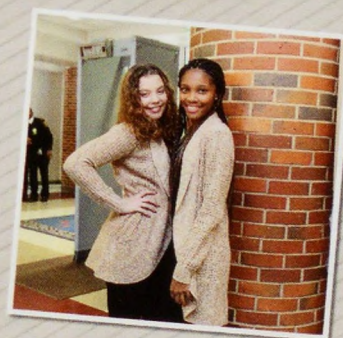

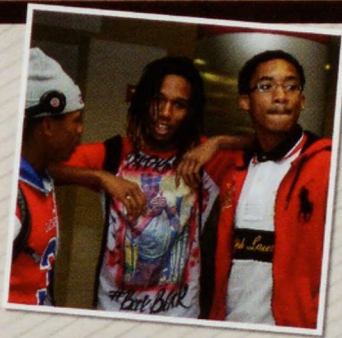

Senior Week

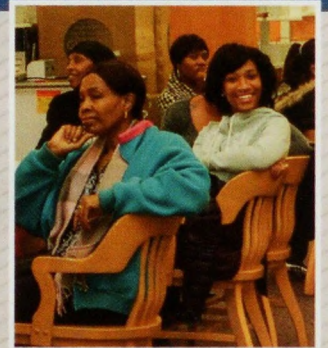

In the Spring, the senior class had their own spirit week. During this senior week, there was a hallway decorating contest. The senior committee posed with their display (top left). Many of the athletes wore their jerseys to show their school spirit. Twin day was another popular day, and a large contingent of seniors wore all black.

Student of the Month

Each month, a select group of students were recognized as "Students of the Month." Their pictures were posted on the main floor of the building. As an extra reward, the students and their families were also invited to a celebratory dinner, in which they received bags of candy, certificates, and a delicious meal.

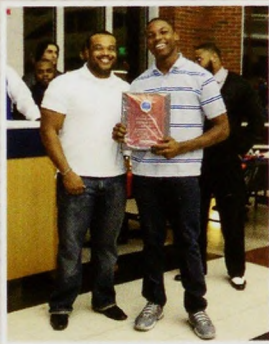

Staff Appreciation Lunch

As the year drew to a close, the administration at Campus hosted a staff appreciation lunch. The Media Center was decorated with balloons, and everyone took a short break from their busy day to eat and enjoy each other's company.

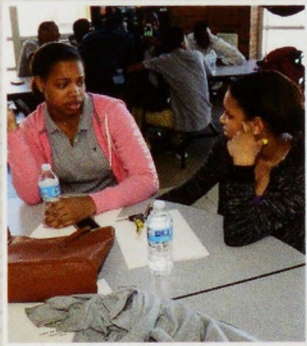

Football Banquet

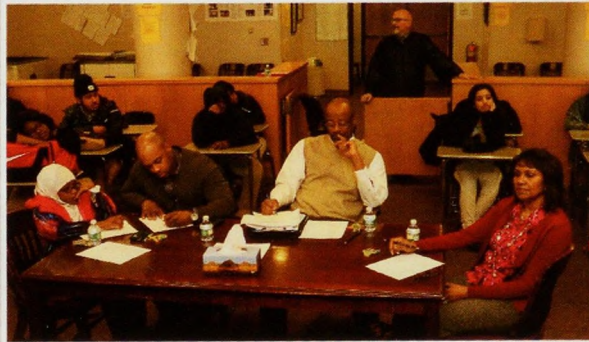

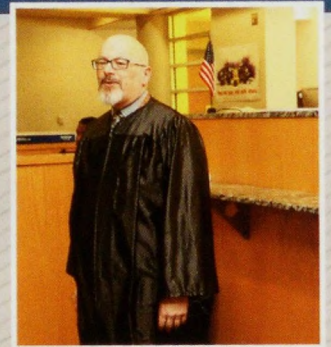

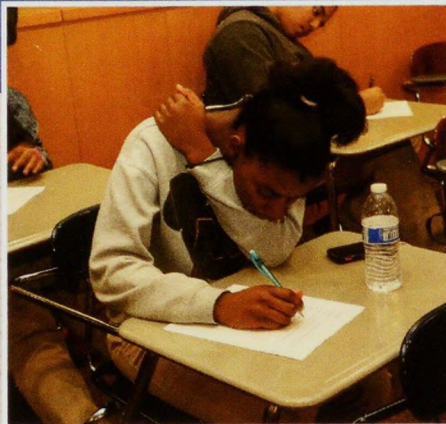

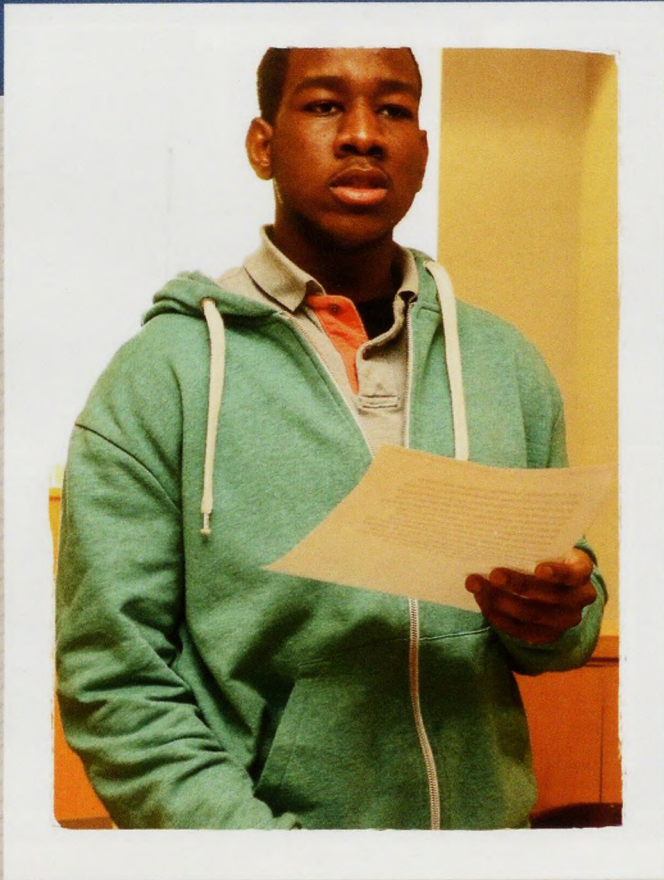

Each year in early spring, a banquet is held to recognize the football players and cheerleaders for their accomplishments throughout the season. Everyone gets dressed up and the athletes' families are invited to take part in the festivities.

Mayor's Proclamations

During the winter season, the girls basketball, boys basketball, and boys track teams all had outstanding seasons. Mayor Lester Taylor visited Campus at the end of the season and presented each coach with a proclamation recognizing his team's accomplishments.

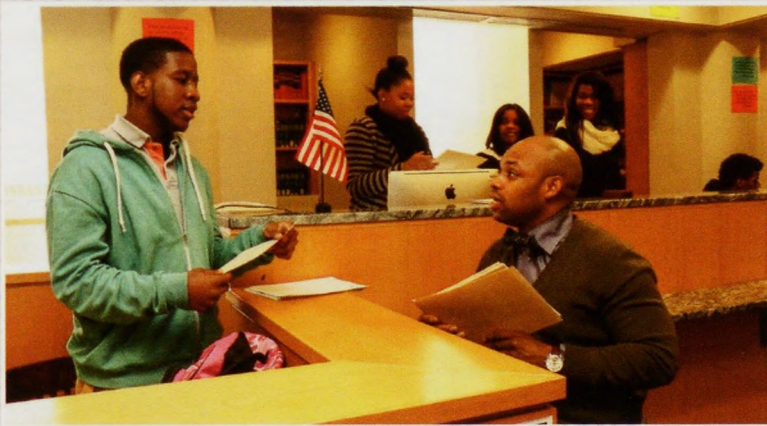

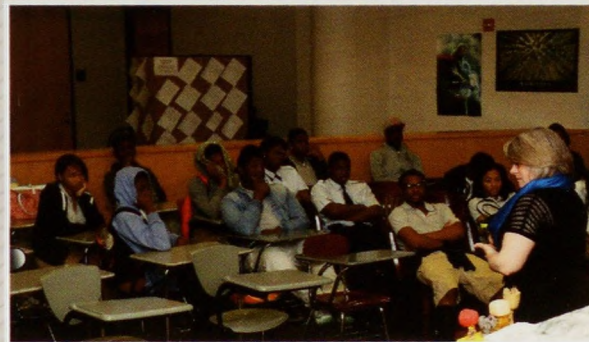

Law Academy Debate

The Law Academy hosted a series of debates this year. The first addressed the question of whether or not the government should or could require people to be vaccinated. The second debate addressed the question of how far the United States has come since the Supreme Court decision in Brown v. Topeka Board of Education. The second debate took place on the anniversary of the Brown court case decision.

And Guest Speaker

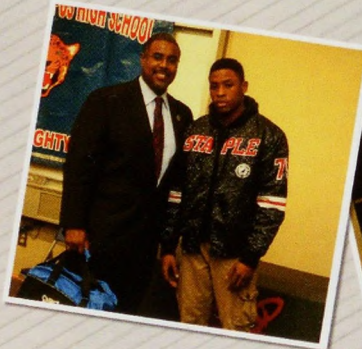

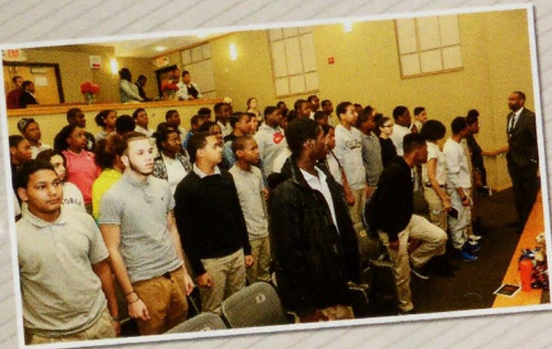

The Law Academy also featured several guest speakers throughout the year. In addition, guest judges came for the debates. Board of Education Vice President, Mustafa Brent, judged the debate on vaccines. He congratulated the winners and handed out certificates of achievement after the debate.

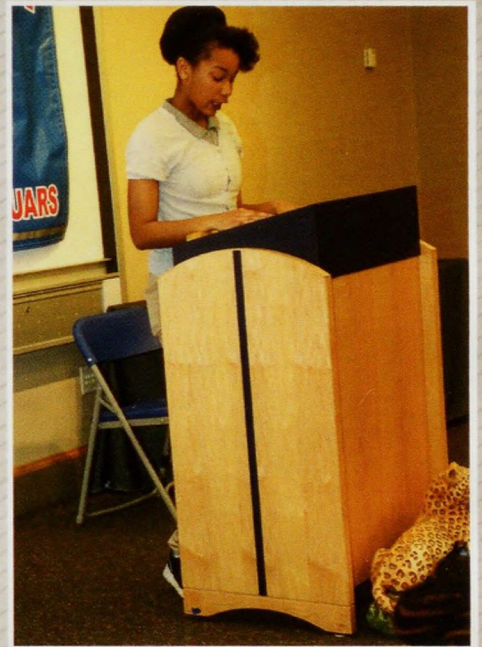

Spring Speakers Bureau

In the Spring, Ms. Whitaker organized a series of guest speakers - the "Spring Speakers Bureau." Each day for a week, these guest speakers addressed groups of students in the amphitheater. The speakers included Mayor Lester Taylor, Councilman Ted Green, and Councilwoman Alicia Holman.

Flight Competition

The cadets of the Junior Air Force ROTC wrapped up their year with the annual flight competition. After a poster contest, an inspection, an academic quiz, and a fitness test, the cadets faced off in a drill competition. Each flight took its turn drilling in the courtyard, with friends and family watching from inside the building and along Prospect Street. A Campus alum, Timothy Johnson, served as one of the judges for the day.

Military Ball

After a week of flight competition activities, the AFJROTC cadets let their hair down at the annual military ball. The boys wore their uniforms, while the girls dressed up in their finest. Awards were handed out for the various events. First place in the drill competition went to Foxtrot Flight, but the bulk of the awards - including Best Overall Flight - was won by Alpha Flight. Sgt. Rivera posed for a picture with his Alpha Flight cadets after the winners were announced (top left).
