DEDICATED TO

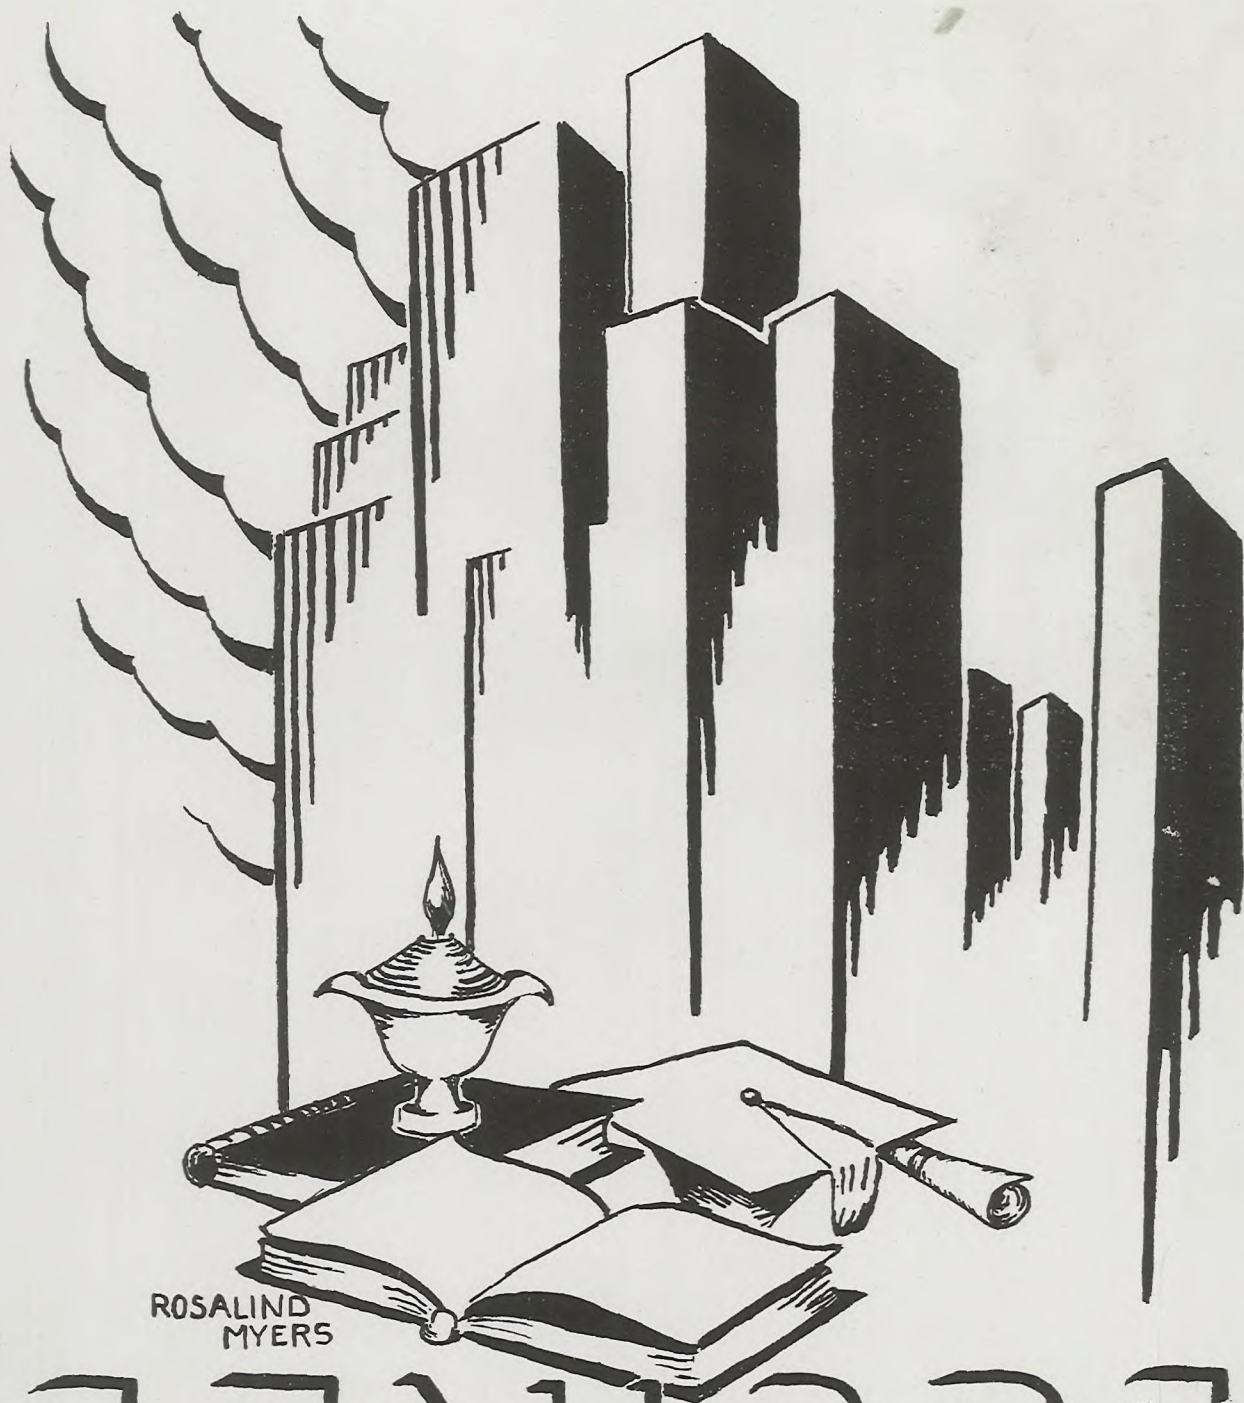

ROBERT I. ADRIANCE,

Head of the Department of Social Studies from 1911 to 1945, whose destiny it will ever be to remain long in the hearts of those who were his students.

MR. ADRIANCE was instrumental in developing our Department of Social Studies so that it now holds a leading position among state high schools, and he has further contributed to the literature of the social studies with a text book in economics and various professional papers. Both faculty and students will miss his counsel and friendship when he retires this year; it is with deep affection that we, the Class of 1945, dedicate this volume to him.

SENIORS

Members of the Class of 1945, Greetings:

YOU ARE COMPLETING HIGH SCHOOL at a time when there is a great need for you. Your country is assured victory over treacherous enemies, but only with the united efforts of all our people.

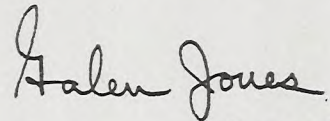

Alert youth has a major part to play in the present crisis; our hope for democracy is largely in your hands. As you must and should, you are looking hopefully to the future. It is your responsibility to achieve a world of order and ultimate peace. You can build "One World."

You have learned and will be guided by an American faith, the central tenets of which are:

Faith in popular government,
Respect for personality and the inherent worth of every human being,
A belief in friendliness as the means of successful group living,
Faith in reason and reasonableness as the way in which citizens seek the solution of their problems,
Faith in the improvability of human beings.

May I challenge you to keep the faith! Learning the ways of democracy is a life-long privilege and responsibility.

Faithfully and hopefully yours,

Principal

CLASS HISTORY

Government

FRESHMAN YEAR we had no official organization since it was to take us a while to get used to being in old E.O.H.S. It was a pretty big job, but we finally got so that we knew just what it was all about. In our Sophomore year we elected our first set of class officers. They were Lyndon Abbott, president; Sue Eaton, vice-president; Doris Graham, secretary; and, Barbara Bassett and Allyson Soderstrom as our class representatives. We made out wonderfully under their able leadership.

Finally, the long-hoped-for Junior year rolled around, and we had another election. Again Lyndon Abbott and Sue Eaton were chosen as president and vice-president with Doris Duffy as secretary and Barbara Bassett and Ruth Smack as class representatives.

Well, now, here we are Seniors at last. Now we can sell the gullible Freshmen elevator passes. At our class elections Third-Term Abbott and Bassett won again, taking the positions of president and representative respectively. Tom Duffin was elected vice-president, Lea Dolan secretary, and Louise Berry as the second representative. We also had a G.O. election, and Allen Arkett was chosen president, Sue Eaton, vice-president, and Betty Arkett, secretary. We breezed through Senior year and final exams and soon will be ready to leave these hallowed halls.

We should like to say in parting that our class has gotten along smoothly, and we know that most of our success was due to the able leadership of our officers and those of the General Organization.

ALMA MATER

My dear Bessie,
I have met many cuts, adorable, sparkling and scrumptious girls. You must certainly fit in these applications. I hope we all will stay together - our sophomore class - you have a lot of luck in the world.
You will be one of the great ones always remember.

The passing years shall bring thee fame,
The world thy praise shall know,
More noble still shall be thy name,
As far and wide we go;
The Red and Blue so dear, so true
Will never, never fail
But be led on the ages through
To glory—Hail! all hail!

IN MEMORIAM

RODNEY W. SOUTHGATE

• The faculty and students of East Orange High School mourn the death of their associate and teacher, Mr. Rodney W. Southgate, who died suddenly on November 30, 1944. For twenty-five years Mr. Southgate taught mechanical drawing in our school and also gave freely of his time to any undertaking that would benefit students or faculty. The community, as well as his many friends, will feel a deep loss at his passing.

Social Events

FRESHMAN YEAR, the girls enjoyed the New Girls' Party, at which we really got acquainted with our classmates. We were all quite excited about being in high school. Another high-light of that year was the presentation of Stage Door. We had fun trying to pick out the members of the cast that we knew. The year's social events closed with the Grad Dance in May. Some of us were fortunate enough to attend it. We got our final report cards in June and left for our vacations practically Sophomores.

Sophomore year was really filled with memorable events. Those Red and Blue Varieties were something. Quite a few of us participated. It was worth all of the work put into it. The Christmas Concert was another bright spot of the year. Mr. Jones and the Glee Clubs gave a beautiful performance. The Speech Department presented I'll Leave It To You in which Joan Vallance starred. We can't forget Walter Oswald as the formal butler. Exams followed the play, and school was over for another year.

September so soon—. Now we are Juniors. We've come a long way in two years. The Red Cross gave a dance to raise funds. It was a huge success, and we all had a glorious time. The Christmas Concert was enjoyed as usual. Mr. Jones also directed another musical show, Hansel and Gretel. This show was really a hit. We succeeded in going over the top in our war stamp drive to buy the Flying Panther, a P-51 Mustang Fighter. The Speech Department presented Junior Miss later on that year. This comedy was well staged and enjoyed by all of us. The Junior Prom was held in March. Don Price and his orchestra accompanied the dancing. This was our class dance and we felt very proud of it.

Here we are Seniors. It doesn't quite seem possible. There was no Christmas Concert this year; but the Music Department presented Gilbert and Sullivan's Gondoliers. The G. O. held a dance and was it fun!!

We danced from 3 to 5. This year our Grad Dance was held in June. It, too, was a night to remember. The music was excellent and everyone was there.

Graduation Night was a very impressive time. Remember the excitement back stage? We tried so hard to put on an accomplished look as we strutted into the auditorium before our relatives and friends. When we went forward to obtain our diplomas, we practically stumbled from our seats we were so excited.

We are graduated at last and now we are ready to start out on our own. The future is really ours.

Sports

OUR FIRST FOOTBALL SEASON while at East Orange High School was a successful one with six victories, two defeats, and one tie. The first four games were shut-outs in our favor. Montclair gave us our first upset, with the second coming the next week from Orange. The Thanksgiving Day game with Barringer ended in a tie, thirteen all. It was a well balanced and hard fought encounter.

The basketball season our first year proved to be a good one with ten wins and seven defeats.

Before we knew it, we were Sophomores and another football season was rolling around. Our light but fast Red and Blue team were frequent victors under the coaching of Mr. George Shotwell. Montclair was the first team of the season to roll up a score, but it was ultimately defeated, before a crowd of 10,000. Later the previously undefeated Columbia team offered stiff resistance, but the Panthers triumphed.

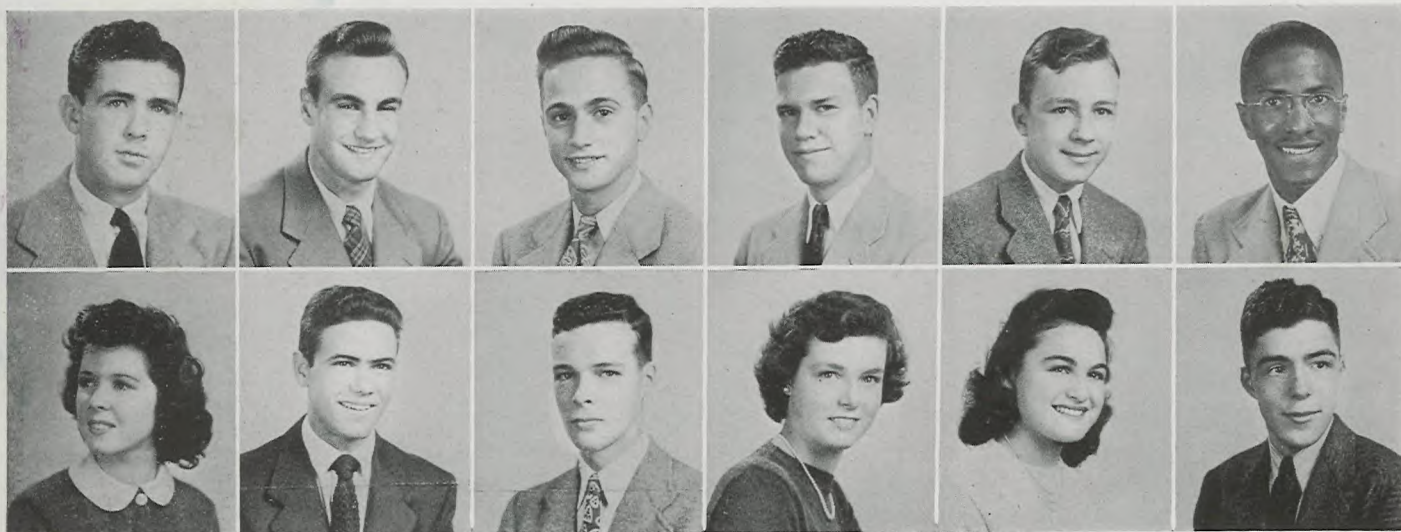

The forty-sixth Turkey Day Tournament was staged against our old rival Barringer High. This game developed into the third consecutive tie with the Blue, but East Orange came through as Co-champions for the state title.

This was also a wonderful year for Griff's basketball team inasmuch as it participated in the State Tournament. However, we were subdued by Belleville after an overtime game in the tournament.

The following year when we were Juniors, we ended our football season with six losses, two ties, and one victory. It was, in general, a discouraging season for the Panthers, but we vindicated ourselves by triumphing thirty-two to two over Barringer in the year's classic event. This netted us a bronze trophy in memory of Royal A. Grosenbaugh of East Orange and "Pop" Stearns of Barringer. This trophy was donated by the Barringer-East Orange "Old-Timers." In our Senior year, although our team fought well, Barringer won the trophy with a score of 3-7.

Comment

Emil's vivacious personality has made him one of E. O. H. S.'s most popular fellows. His ambition, civil engineering.

Joan seems to be fascinated by Denville. I wonder why? Friendly and delightful to know.

Ever-smiling Flossie spends her spare time "dreaming" over popular music.

Ken's always ready for a laugh. His ambition is like that of many of us—to graduate.

As a secretary, Mills will succeed. Her friendliness and naturalness make her popular with boys and girls.

Randy is noted for his attempts with a clarinet.

Mitch will undoubtedly set many feminine hearts aflutter in the sailor suit he'll soon be wearing.

Loads of fun, Marie likes dancing and walking in the rain. Her ambition is to be successful.

Toni, friendly and loads of fun, keeps us in good spirits, even when we don't feel like laughing.

Ray is the kind of fellow we like to have around. A swell sport.

Dancing, particularly tap dancing, intrigues Agnes. She hopes to become a professional. Lots of fun.

Mort's a friendly fellow who always has something interesting to say. Sports are his meat.

FAREWELL

The hands upon the faithful clock
That sits atop the sturdy tower
Have carved the arcs of many an hour
Of joy within this sheltered dock.

And here the master-builders laid
The final planks upon the ships
Whose captains now with open lips
Make toasts before the anchor's weighed.

The bows'll point in sundry ways;
Each hull will dip the brine with cargo
All its own, and every Argo
Will seek its cherished and peculiar bays.

But yet, in spite of what they do,
Or where the winds the ships may summon
This thing they all will have in common:
A high-placed flag of Red and Blue.

Farewell E. O., our glorious school;
Farewell, the ancient vine-clad walls,
The mighty domes and well-trod halls
Farewell, farewell, fair wisdom's tool.

ALLEN ANNOUNCES '45 GRADS IN WHO'S WHO

McDonald Listed as Leading Lady In Rumania

The editor of Who's Who, Clarence Allen, has recently announced that several graduates of the class of '45 have been included in this year's volume.

The former Miss Marilyn McDonald, now the first lady of Rumania, is also included.

Two other prominent women on the list are Patricia Kreckler and Mary Space, co-authors of A Short History of the World contained in only 20 rolls of Lettau's new technicolor microfilm. Dick Knief and Herbert Leslie of the Knief and Leslie Publishing Company are also given special notice for their splendid work.

The name of Tom Hawkins will long be remembered. He is the engineer responsible for the building of the trans-Atlantic tunnel. John Meeker and Donald Stalker are also listed in this section because of their invisible traffic lights used in the tunnel.

These people have become very famous and have earned great honor. We are very proud to have known them back to our high school days.

HOSPITAL REPORTS NEW SICKNESS STRIKES MANY

Dr. Banta Fights Spread

Dr. Edgar Banta, Chief of Staff at the Tortoriello General Hospital, has just announced that the hospital has become alarmingly full of new cases. Several other members of the staff have voiced their opinions on the matter and no one has been able to determine the nature of the ailment from which these new patients suffer.

Norma-Jean James, Dottie Degnan, and Astrid Bottis have been assigned as special nurses in charge of the more serious cases. It has been rumored that Professor John Lamarsh is said to be bringing his famous new radium discovery to aid in fighting this strange malady.

RUTH SMACK WEDS; E. O. ALUMNAE ARE BRIDESMAIDS

The spacious gardens of the old Smack homestead were the pleasant scene, yesterday, of the wedding of Miss Ruth Smack. The pretty bride is a graduate of East Orange High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Smack of this city.

Miss Smack's gown was of white slipper-satin trimmed with seed pearls. Her veil was a family heirloom.

The maid of honor, Miss Nancy Maguire, was dressed in pale blue and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The bridesmaids, all former classmates of Miss Smack's, included Miss Lea Dolan and Miss Barbara Carpenter. Their gowns of old rose were very effective.

After a reception at the Hotel East Orange, the couple will leave for Niagara Falls for a two-week stay. They will make their home in East Orange.

NORMAN AND MORTELLITE ENTER THEIR CANDIDACY FOR 1960 U. S. PRESIDENT

On November 7, the American people will hop into their helicopters and fly to the polls to vote for the next President of the United States.

The two leading candidates are Roderick Norman and Albert Mortellite. Running with Norman for Vice-President is Dixon Watt. On the ticket with Mortellite is Arthur Palumbo.

Both men have had valuable experience; Norman as president of the A. B. C. Block Co., and Mortellite as manager of the Fluffy Flake Doughnut Co. On a recent broadcast by our distinguished commentators, James Ferguson and Robert Pennstrom, it was reported that both candidates have a splendid chance. Who do you think will be the victor—hm . . . ?

E. O. BOARD OF EDUCATION APPOINTS NEW MEMBERS

Berry, Mills, and Pump Given Positions in Gyms

The East Orange Board of Education has recently approved the appointment of seven new members to the East Orange High School Faculty. The position of associate principal is now held by Martin McGarry, who stated in an official interview to Miss Joan McGuire of the East Orange Record that he intended to abolish the ever popular "228". In its place he will establish a handicraft room to be used by any student who becomes restless or bored in study and longs for a moment or two of physical activity.

Others who have been added to the staff are Miss Doris Halstead and Miss Camille (Nooky) Marti. They have taken over the positions of supervisor and assistant supervisor of the new drinking fountain system. The fountains are now equipped with six different flavored sodas. By the way, it is at last possible to obtain water from them too.

Miss Louise Berry has the position of assistant football coach. She plans big things for the coming season.

Miss Betty-Jeanne Pump and Miss Betty Ann Mills are in charge of the Girls' Physical Education Department. They plan many new improvements for the department. The first one will be the installation of an automatic elevator for the use of the girls' gym classes. They hope to have the new skating rink in good order by the first of November. All in all, they anticipate a very busy year.

The president of the Board of Education, Mr. P. Young, is certain that the new members will prove to be very, very satisfactory.

TOURS EUROPE

At a reception held for Miss Lois Kammerer on her return from a European musical engagement, Mr. Franklin Lane, Professor of Social Studies at the University of East Orange, made the presentation speech that accompanied the deliverance of a bronze flute to the young musician.

Miss Barbara Bick was on hand to welcome her old school chum. Miss Bick is noted for her lectures on knitting in two easy lessons.

John Meeker, of the "Name under the Stamp Valentine Company" was to be seen among the group taking orders for some cards in the new styles to be used on next February 14.

TWO GRADS CONDUCT NETWORK PROGRAMS

Six Star in New Screen Hit "Both Feet Backward"

Miss Jeanne Munning, founder of the now-famous program, Munings' Minute Menus, will show over the television screen next Tuesday how to blend colors in your menus. By scientific research she has proved that color is an important factor in planning menus. She has prepared a tempting salad which includes many delicate shades. The salad will contain Kelly-green lettuce, lobster-red tomatoes, black olives, and golden mayonnaise. Miss Munning hopes that her radio audience will closely observe her demonstration and follow her ideas.

The popular women's program, Austin Views the Feminine Slant, will interview the Misses Joan Mentz, Doris Graham, and Sue Eaton. Miss Claire Austin, star of the program, will begin her interview with Miss Eaton, the popular Powers' model. She will interview Miss Mentz and Miss Graham simultaneously. You will remember them as the garrulous, giggling sisters in South Dakota, written by "Bubbles" Lynch.

The world premiere of the new screen hit, Both Feet Backward, was held last night. The novelty tunes sung by the now famous sextette of Margaret Marshall, Betty Arkett, Barbara McKenzie, Wally Price, Dick Floershiemer, and Paul Irvin, were the hit of the show.

More theatre and radio news may be obtained by writing to this paper.

ONCE SPORTS ALWAYS SPORTS FOR 9 GRADS

Lyn Abbott and Dick Honeker will bring their two famous teams to Madison Square Garden. These two men, former classmates, have been eager to have their undefeated, unscored-upon teams clash.

Dick Saxer, well known sports commentator, has predicted that the game will end in a scoreless tie. Kent Meier the dashing playboy backer of Honeker's team, refuses to make any statement except that (censored). Buffy Hague, manager and backer of Abbott's team, feels certain of complete victory. There are still a few tickets left. They may be secured by appearing in person at the New York office of the Stocker and Warbasse Ticket Agency.

The women's basketball season has just begun. Starring this year, on the nationally famous Purple Tornadoes, are Gay Wilkinson, Shirley Neill, and Grace O'Malley. The girls have great confidence in their coach, Bobby Brinley.

McMANUS AND CIURCZAK VIE IN TENNIS TOURNNEY

Many Notables To Be Present To Watch The Stars

The finals in the Women's National Tennis Tournament will be held on next Saturday at Forest Hills. The two contestants for the title of Miss Tennis Ball are Miss Betty McManus and Miss Eileen Ciurczak. You will all want to watch this entertaining match on your television screen. The winner will be given a brand new Ford Helicopter.

Miss McManus's technique resembles very much that of last year's national champion, Marie Mauriello. Miss Mauriello, accompanied by Miss Shirley Schureman and Miss Rita Roth, will officiate.

Special boxes have been reserved for Miss Florence Pierrez and Miss Marilyn Kohl. Miss Pierrez is president of the W.A.A. at Panzer College. Miss Kohl has recently been made chairman of Women's Tennis Division of the games. It is hoped that the winner of next Saturday's match will be among those who will represent the United States at the Olympics.

Other notables expected are the former Miss Barbara Bassett, whose famous husband is now attending a very important diplomatic conference at Palm Springs, and Dr. Edith Kassakian, Miss Ciurczak's personal physician.

FASHION FEATURES FOR THE COMING FALL

Skirts will be shorter this year; as a matter of fact, the younger set will discard them for the new streamlined shorts with built-in cosmetic bar.

Hats will be definitely designed and made to withstand any type of weather. At a recent fashion show, Miss Marty Parker modeled one of the new plastic berets.

Hair-dos will be many and varied. The most popular style will be the Debby Dip. This year is expected to bring forth many new fashion firsts.

IN OUR ALLEY

BY SALLY

Seen Saturday night at Dimples Duffy's were Miss Barbara Bassett and a tall dark unidentified character.

It has been rumored that "Buddy" Oswald, the well-known philanthropist, has just endowed the city of East Orange with a new country club. Mayor Bellet stated that his school chum Ossie will be remembered forever in the city he helped to make beautiful.

Seen at the Annual Photographers' Convention was Miss Laure Down, who was one of the most prominent photographers present (with her Brownie 620). She will be long remembered for her splendid work on the 1945 Syllabus.

Joan Cruse and Doris Bennett, it has been rumored, have been seen lately around the city hall. Could be that they are painting a new mural for the left wall?

Detective Donald (Butch) McKenna was given a testimonial dinner last Tuesday evening in honor of his 25 years on the police force.

Miss Gloria Whitmore is now the proud owner of a large chain of television studios. She will cater especially to "horror shows" on the networks.

Well, Sally says she must start cleaning out the alley. It gets mighty dusty these days.

P.S.—It has been rumored that Pat Kenney and Bob Webber are responsible for this . . . but you never can tell!

Dear Bob

Lots of luck and stuff during the summer. Take care of all those little male peopies of yours. Don't run them too ragged.

Goodbye to E. O. H. S.
Love
John Powell
"Bob" M.D.

It seems almost impossible that four years have flown by,
Since we were timid freshmen here
at old East Orange High.

Then Sophomore, Junior years sped by,
and now we pause to find That we're the lofty seniors who must leave the E.O. grind.

How often have we said that we'll be glad when June is near;
When finally we'll be released from the sweat of study here.

But as that month approaches,
and the farewells come to mind,
We feel a bit regretful to leave such fun behind.

The hours in classes, walks at lunch,
assembly programs grand,
Those football games, the cheering,
and the singing with our band;

The trips to plays and op'ras, and the dances in the gym,
The baseball games, the concerts,— all are mem'ries never dim.

The Christmas play, the plane we bought with bonds and stamps sold here,
The Gondoliers—such a success—
all high spots of the year.

We think of all those classmates who have left us through the year;
They're soldiers, sailors, and marines in places far and near.

And now we too must leave E.O.,
our Alma Mater's halls;
The Class of '45 bids farewell,—
To us the future calls.

Student Council

TO CREATE a closer relationship between the governing bodies of the school and the students themselves was the big task of the student council this year. Under Allen Arkett, president; Sue Eaton, vice-president; and Betty Arkett, secretary, they went at it with characteristic energy.

To this end, they revised the constitution so as to include homeroom representatives in the membership of the student council. They also produced a new Red and Blue handbook for next year's freshman class. The discussion and controversy of the previous year over, they proceeded to establish, name, and provide for the government of the high school canteen, in cooperation with Scott High School.

To facilitate assigning C. P. posts, they voted on a system of numbering stairways. They decided to order E. O. pins to be purchased by any member of the student body who should want one. The Boys' and Girls' Courts, once set up, functioned smoothly and efficiently.

The annual Student Council Convention was held on November 17 at Montclair State Teachers' College. The ideas obtained at the Convention helped the council with its work throughout the year.

Dear Boo hoo,
 I don't know what E.O.H.S. would do without us B's.
 We certainly did do a lot for Columbian, remember? (I don't). Some Student Council. Remember what fun we had at Metedeconk "Bail Out"? Wait till we get to be Seniors B's. Big time, but we're having too much fun this year to worry about being Seniors. We have a good class, don't you think so? It's not good. Well that's all. See you

Glee Club and Choirs

ALTHOUGH THE PROBLEM of rehearsals was complicated by the fact that many members work after school, the Glee Club and Choirs had a full program this year. They gave Ballad for Americans in assembly, to the special delight of those who saw their first performance of it three years ago. Mr. C. Baldwin Allan-Allen played the part of America, formerly taken by Mr. Shuttlesworth, while Mr. Albion Hart took the lead in the prologue written by Stephen Vincent Benét. The Glee Club and Choirs also participated in the Christmas program. The traditional carolling in schools and hospitals was enjoyable and successful. On March 22 and 23, combined with the various departments of the school, they gave the operetta Gondoliers. The Voice classes, with the A Cappella and Spirituals Choirs, presented the annual voice recital on May 24.

Wallace Price, Dick Floersheimer, and Paul Irvine made up the "Terrific Trio," the "hit" songsters of the school. Although all three boys belonged to the Glee Club, they worked up their acts by themselves, mirth-provoking versions of songs old and new. Unfortunately, the army called Dick early in the year, but the trio spiced several assembly programs during its short existence, and the three will long be remembered by the class of '41.

Dear Bob:

Here to a sweet girl in more ways than one. Its sweet to be able to call you my friend. Wish you all the success possible for the next two years of high school and may always be as popular as you have been. Five years
Lots of luck!

To an S. S.
Dear Bob:
I hope that in your next two years here you'll have just as much fun as you did in your first two. I was so far from school I didn't go down the beach. I've been so much about the gymnasium. I had a great time in the S. S. Club. I had a great time in the S. S. Club. I had a great time in the S. S. Club.

Band and Orchestra

THE E. D. H. S. Band and Orchestra spent a busy year. One of their chief functions was to assist in assembly programs. Autumn saw the band playing at the football games. During the winter both Band and Orchestra participated in several concerts; the annual spring concert, presented jointly by Clifford Scott and East Orange High Schools, culminated their efforts. Everyone looks forward to these concerts, and this year's performance did not disappoint the audience. Another spring event in which they were represented was the operetta Gondoliers. Mr. Herfurth felt that, taking into consideration wartime difficulties, the year was a fruitful one.

Dear Bob,

You old S. S. you! You are really the cream of the crop, no kidding! I hope we can all have as good a time in the next two years as we have already. I'm having trouble making this ice-cream and pen combination. But, anyhow, the best of luck to a cute and swell girl. Love, Rhyl. Kf

Social Committee and Junior Red Cross

URGED BY THE STUDENT DEMAND for more dances, the Social Committee this year rolled up its sleeves and went to work. With five dances rather than the usual two or three, the committee, which consisted of Betty McManus, chairman; Jane Totah, secretary; Ambrose Donahue, Elliott Hague, and Michele Savino, were kept very busy.

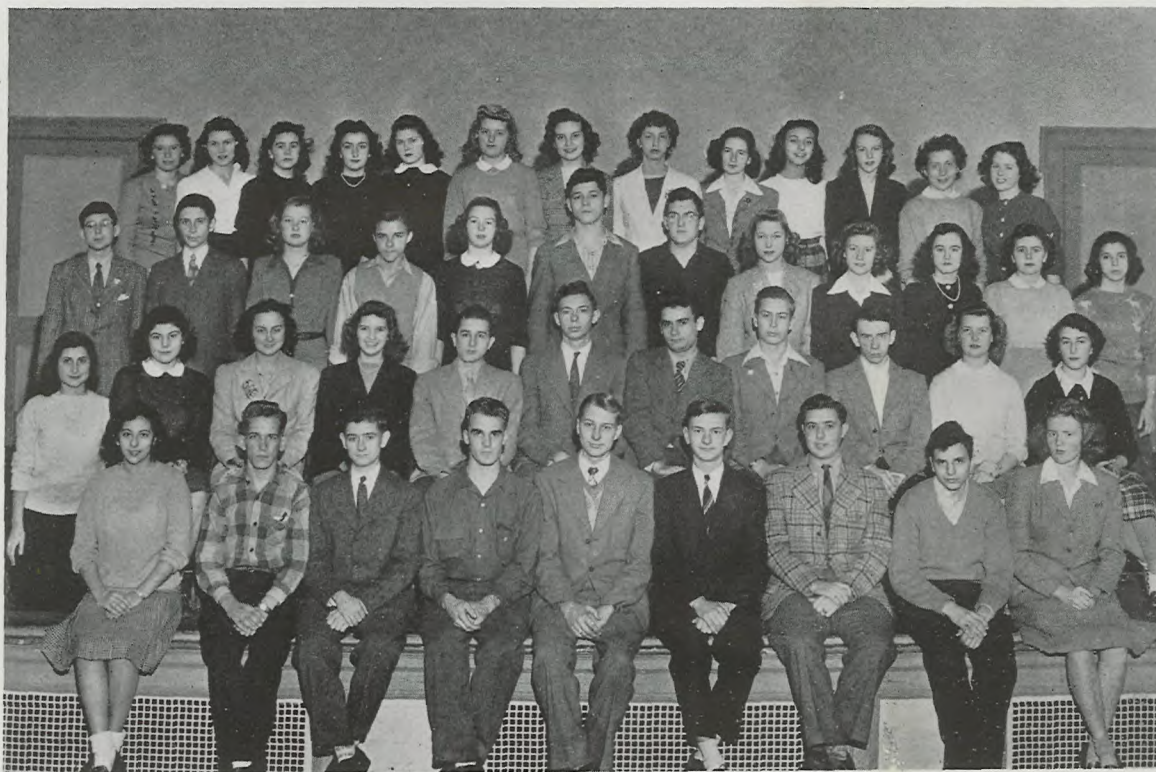

The New Student Party, given in cooperation with the G. A. A. on September 29, was a grand way to welcome our young incomers. Gay result of the efforts of the committee was the Freshman-Sophomore dance, held on November 3. An afternoon event, it featured "canned" music and lucky number dances. A third afternoon dance, as enjoyable as the other two, came on March 9.

One of the major social dates of the year was February 10, day of the Junior Prom. Michele Savino and his assistants turned the gymnasium into a maze of bright colors, while Don Price and his orchestra produced soft, sweet music. Pastel colors suggested a summer mood at the graduation dance on June 2. Its signal success ended a happy year.

Under the direction of Mrs. G. B. Jennings, the Junior Red Cross accomplished a great deal. The year opened with a drive to obtain members for the Volunteer Squad. This was followed by the enrollment drive, which was very successful. The school filled almost one hundred fifty Christmas boxes for hospitalized soldiers. Later in the year the Junior Red Cross sponsored a benefit dance. A number of girls assisted in the sale of poppies for the benefit of war veterans.

The members of the Volunteer Squad assisted at Junior Red Cross headquarters during the year, several of them receiving thirty-hour service pins in June. The art, clothing, and woodworking departments, and the library club, produced all sorts of articles to be distributed by the Red Cross.

The News

HEADED BY JACK OPPENHEIMER as editor-in-chief, the members of the News staff cooperated this year to produce again an excellent school paper. Their aim was not only to please the students, but also to keep up their high standards of writing. More pictures and cartoons enlivened the news and sports pages, while the feature page, to which many students contributed, mirrored the social life of the school.

With the largest circulation in its history, the News prospered financially. The industrious business staff also saw to it that more than 400 servicemen and women received the paper. Pleased commendation from the receivers were their reward. All in all, the News had a successful year.

Vocational School Group

THE "CO-OPS" ENJOYED interesting variety in their school life. Spending their mornings in E. O. H. S., for the afternoon they trekked down to the Vocational School in Newark on the school bus. This year, as in other years, they formed a club, choosing Marion Lambusta for president, Ruth Sohns for vice-president, and Dorothy Reese as secretary-treasurer. They joined in all the activities of the Vocational School.

Their object was to learn how to work bookkeeping and calculating machines. Combining these useful skills with their knowledge of shorthand and typing, they graduated with a well-rounded preparation for their future in the business world.

ASSOCIATIONS

THE OFFICERS of the Girls' Athletic Association this year were Marie Mauriello, president; Leila Foust, vice-president; Joanne Seemann, secretary; and Irene Catacalos, hostess. As the A. A. followed a program of great expansion, its main task was to soothe its growing pains.

At the beginning of the year the A. A. Board, which formerly was made up of one representative for each extra-curricular sport, was enlarged to include the captains of the gymnasium classes. The new board sponsored a lively campaign to encourage the girls to come out for extra-curricular sports. The members urged their friends to attend, gave pep talks in the classes, and wrote articles for the News. Soccer was added to the after-school program, and interest heightened as the attendance enlarged, skills developed, and friendships grew.

Meanwhile, the regular activities of the A. A. continued. It worked with the Social Committee to make the New Student Party a success. Chevrons and monograms were awarded. The annual games with Scott girls took place. As a fitting end to an active year, the annual picnic was held.

FOOTBALL

UNDER THE ABLE COACHING of Mr. Samuel Sezak, who brought to East Orange the T formation, the Panthers presented a record of three wins, five losses, and one tie. In the opening tilt against Cranford High, the Red and Blue gridders, behind the running and passing of Al Norman, Alex Lowe, and Sam Griggs, came through with a 13-0 victory. This contest marked the eighth straight year that Cranford has been shut out.

The second game of the season at Ashland Stadium pitted E. O. against the West Side Rough Riders. Led by Ed Kenefick and Ken Stewart, the Newark team eked out a 19-12 victory. The following Saturday, the Red and Blue men journeyed to West Orange to win their second game, 7-0. Neither team played a sparkling game, and both fumbled constantly, thus losing several opportunities to score. Both Lowe and Griggs made long runs.

Irvington, almost state title material, swamped East Orange 21-0, with Tom Rinaldi doing the heavy ground running, and Heinie Benkert the passing. The Irvington line, about as brawny a forward wall as the Panthers encountered, held them at bay all afternoon, and the Camptowner backs ran ragged over E. O.

At Woodman Field, Montclair, some ten thousand people gathered on October 27 to see the two arch rivals battle it out another year. The end of the first half saw the underdog Panthers ahead by the amazing figure of 7-0. The Mounties, however, came to life as Carl Lombardi's passes started clicking, and the home team garnered thirteen points in the third period to win by a score of 13-7.

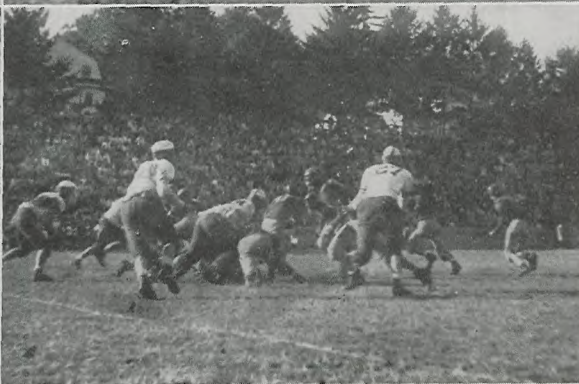

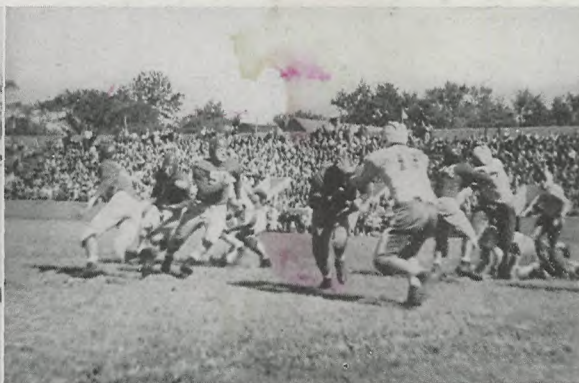

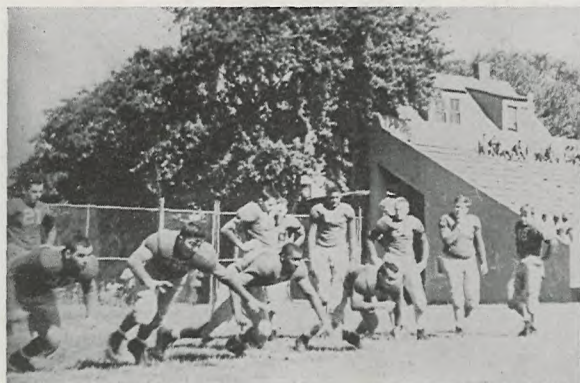

Bouncing back from their two-game losing streak, the Panthers met the Nutley team and battled to a 0-0 stalemate on November 4. A very sloppy field at Park Oval, Nutley, held up the attacks of both teams; and though both ran up and down the field and threatened many times, neither was able to capitalize on the opportunities presented. On one occasion the East Orange boys were on the one-yard line with four downs coming to them; but the Maroon forward wall, led by Brud Davis, the big center, rose up and held them and prevented a score.

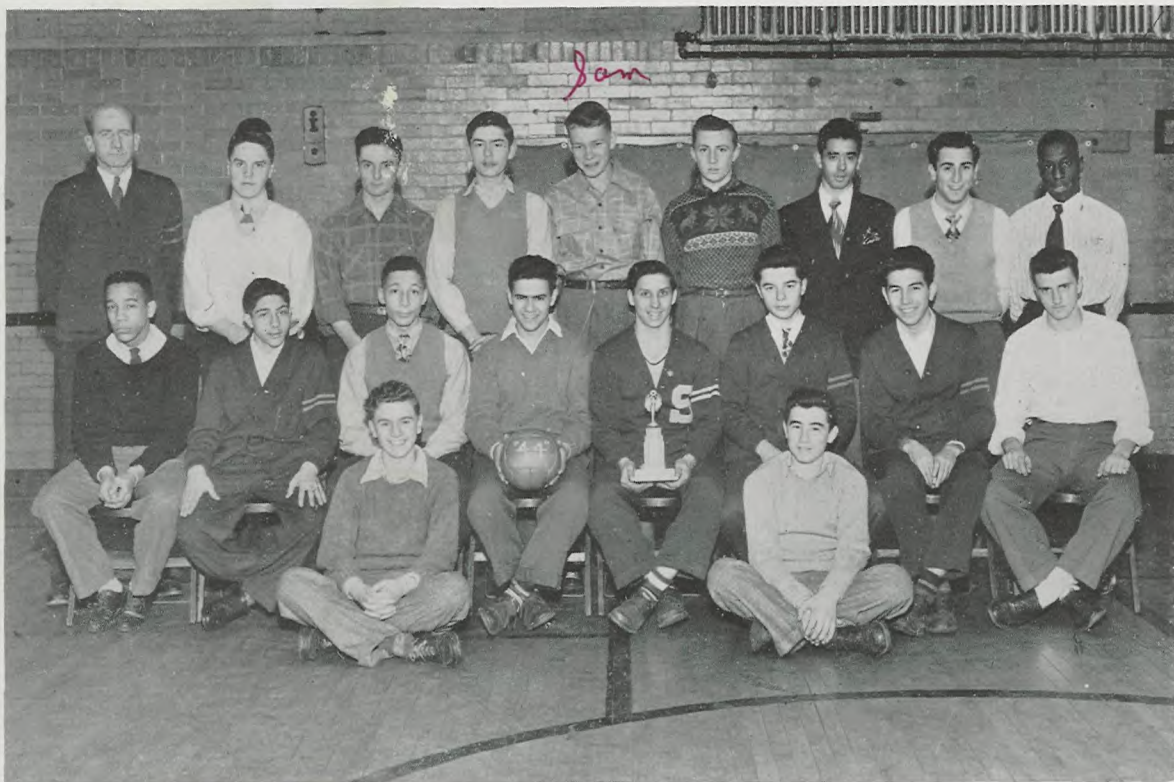

Armistice Day at Ashland Stadium the two neighbors, Orange and East Orange, met in football combat. The Tornadoes, led by the field generalship of Pete Mangino and his educated toe, emerged the victors, 14-13. Though the Panthers led till the closing minutes, the Orange boys were able to score another touchdown, and Mangino booted the extra point that spelled victory for the visitors.

The Cougars of Columbia High School met the Panthers at Ashland Stadium and lost to them, 13-7. Although Columbia led at the half, 7-0, the Panthers came back roaring, and on touchdowns by Sam Griggs and Cliff Frazier won the game.

In the Turkeyday game, Barringer and East Orange met in their 48th annual tussle. Barringer came out on top by a score of 13-6. The first Barringer score was made by George Russomano as he cracked the Panther line from about the five-yard line. The one Panther tally came as Sam Griggs skirted left end to hit pay dirt. Barringer came back with a long pass from Paul Schneidenback to Jim Nelson that put the Big Blue in scoring position. On a quarterback sneak, Schneidenback made the score.

Although the '44 season was not so fruitful as in some years past, it was felt by all that the acquisition of Mr. Sezak was a definite gain, and better seasons are looked for in the future.

SOCCER

EIGHT LETTERMEN returned to the soccer squad, and Coach Stanley Griffin's hope and confidence were very high. The Panthers handed in an impressive record, winning two games, tying five, and losing three, which merited for them a soccer championship trophy from the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association.

The eight lettermen were Peter "Chick" Araneo (captain), Bill Kirbas, Ambrose Donahue, Fred Cardillo (who led the team in scoring), Sam Simpson, Paul Tondo, Bob Nichols, and Jimmy Baxter. Rounding out the squad were Sam Lackaye (goalie), John Kirbas, and Tony Giliberti.

The five tied contests present an interesting sidelight, as all of them were deadlocked at 1-1. This series of deadlocks started with Verona in the opening game and ended also with Verona in the next to the last affair. Verona, always a tough nut to crack when it comes to soccer, almost captured the opener, but Donahue headed the ball through the uprights to gain the tie.

The game at Montclair, the second for the Red and Blue Booters, saw frequent scoring, with East Orange coming out on the long end of a 5-2 count. Cardillo, playing center forward, drew the first blood, scoring in the early minutes of the game. He was followed by Donahue, who tallied on a pass from Kirbas. Another Cardillo score, and then one by Montclair, made it 3-1 at halftime. Opening the second half with a scoring shot, Montclair got back into the game, but not for long, as Cardillo scored number three for the afternoon, and then Kirbas clinched it with a penalty kick for the fifth marker.

A second tie followed, this one with Harrison, as the Panther defense weakened, and a Harrison score nullified an earlier tally by Donahue. Chatham, the school where soccer takes the place of football, handed East Orange its first defeat. The Panthers had numerous scoring opportunities, but failed to capitalize on any and lost 2-0.

Two successive deadlocks followed the loss to Chatham. Montclair, who fell easily to the Panthers previously, held "Griff's" charges scoreless for two periods before Donahue scored, and then Montclair scored and knotted the game. A weak Summit team also held the Panthers in tow, forcing them to come from behind to tie, this on Cardillo's third-quarter boot.

The East Orange Booters finally got back into the win column at the expense of an unbeaten and highly favored Kearny team, 1-0. Again it was Cardillo, racking up the lone score, who shone for the squad. The second 1-1 tie with Verona followed this, as Jim Baxter scored his first goal of the season.

Summit turned the tables on East Orange in the final game, with a lone tally coming in the third period, and a final score, 1-0.

KNEELING: T. Meeteer, J. Vasselli, H. Mason, F. Harris, P. Young, H. Alboum. STANDING: Mr. Bowden, R. Elsdon, O. Slocum, R. Brinley, E. Silcock, C. Stevens, E. Madeiros, C. Surdi, R. Wirth.

CROSS COUNTRY

THOUGH EIGHTEEN BOYS tried out for the Cross Country team, the Red and Blue Harriers fared not so well in the 1944 season. Led by Frank Harris, Oliver Slocum, Joe Vasselli, and Tom Meeteer, the Panthers coped two of their ten meets.

In the first meet with Irvington, the East Orange runners came out on top, 26-29, with Harris and Slocum tying for first; Vasselli and Meeteer tying for fifth; Howard Mason placing eighth; and Jack Schuyler coming in ninth. Mountain Lakes and East Orange clashed at Branch Brook Park, and the Panthers were clawed soundly, 40-15, with Harris, Slocum, Vasselli, and Mason counting for the tail end places.

West Side was the next to topple the Panthers, and they did so with but two places falling to the East Orange men: a third to Harris, and sixth to Meeteer. Barringer handed East Orange the fourth straight defeat, 36-19. Harris, Vasselli, and Meeteer placed for the losers.

Kearny made it number five as Harris took fifth, Slocum sixth, and Vasselli ninth. The rest of the places fell to Kearny. Final score was 38-17.

East Orange snapped the streak and trounced Good Counsel High 39-16. Slocum led the pack, with Vasselli on his heels. A few seconds later Meeteer crossed the finish line; then Herb Alboum tagged in fourth; Pearson Young was sixth; and Charlie Stevens was right behind. Ed Silcock brought up the rear in ninth place.

St. Michaels of Newark held East Orange to three places, 5, 6, and 9, with Harris, Slocum, and Vasselli taking them respectively. In the South Side meet, the same three men took places, and the score was the same with East Orange on the short end of a 40-15 score.

The season wound up with a triangular meet between Mountain Lakes, Central, and East Orange. It proved to be a very slow race with Mountain Lakes winning, and East Orange in the tail position.

Frank Harris, Oliver Slocum, Joe Vasselli, Tom Meeteer, and Herb Alboum received letters.

BASKETBALL

Stanley M. Griffin

ONCE AGAIN the high-flying East Orange basketball quintet has turned out an impressive record, this year winning twelve games and losing but three. Sam Lackaye, Dick Honeker, Sam Griggs, Ed Banta, and Graham Skeg made up the formidable squad which led Essex County throughout the first twelve contests of the season.

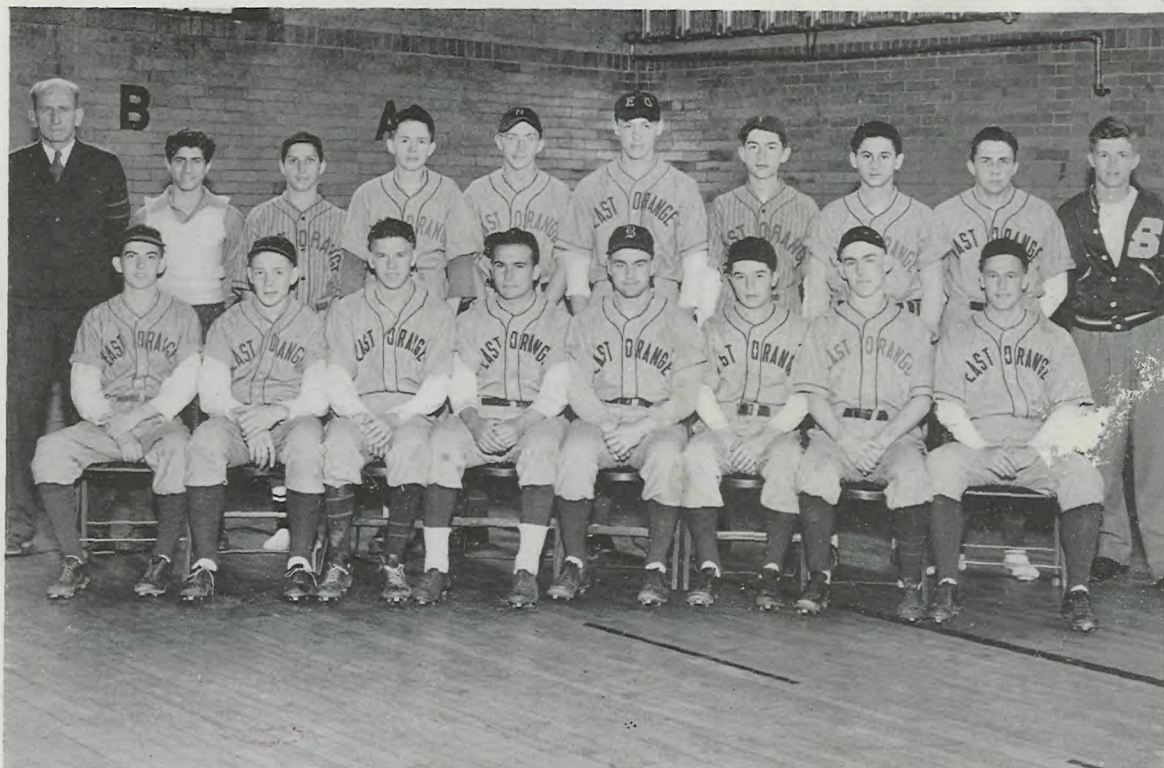

The first game pitted the Maroon of Nutley against the Panthers, and East Orange opened the season with an easy win, 41-20. Columbia, played later the same week, gave E. O. a bit of a scare, but the club pulled together in time to eke out a 39-36 victory. Ralph Corvino and Sam Lackaye matched their skills in an evenly played affair at Orange High School, but E. O., with Lackaye well supported by his mates, emerged the victors, 37-34. A more uneven contest followed with Irvington, and the Camptowners were outclassed by a score of 36-27. A second game with Nutley followed, and once again the Red and Blue came through to the tune of 41-26.

The sixth game of the season was with Montclair, and the sports jinx held by the Mounties over East Orange was broken as the visitors fell to a 57-40 defeat. A Group 2 Harrison team filled an open date, and Coach Stan Griffin's charges romped to a 60-20 win. Harry Donn's Weequahic Indians invaded the East Orange court in the eighth game and stubbornly resisted until the last quarter, when they fell apart; and baskets by Banta, Lackaye, Honeker, and Griggs put the game on ice, 42-30. Up to this point both East Orange and Central of Newark were the two undefeated quintets in Essex County. The Newark Star Ledger arranged an Infantile Paralysis Benefit game at Seton Hall on January 27, and there the mighty Panthers knocked off a favored Central team, 34-29.

Orange, Montclair, and West Orange fell in order before the E. O. juggernaut, and to that point the Panthers had won twelve straight games. Then Columbia High School met E. O. in a return match in number thirteen, and the Panthers dropped their first, 34-36. A hot and cold Bloomfield team was hot when they met East Orange and again turned the tide, 37-40. In the final game of the regular season, West Orange also kept the Panthers from attaining their thirteenth triumph. Although the Panthers led with about two minutes to play, the Cowboys turned on the heat and came through to win, 32-33.

At this writing, the outcome of the New Jersey Interscholastic State tourney is not known, but East Orange is pitted against Weequahic in the opening round.

BASEBALL

TWO RETURNING LETTERMEN were all that Coach Stanley Griffin had to work with at the outset of the 1944 baseball season. Consequently, the team did not make a very notable record. When the spikes were hung up and the mitts put away, the results stood at 4 victories and 7 defeats. Orange was the easiest opponent for the Panthers, while Irvington, with its championship squad, handed East Orange its worst defeat.

Frank Acocella, veteran catcher of the previous year, and Captain Morris Tortoriello, center fielder, were the only returning lettermen. Practice, however, developed such notables as Dick Honeker, short stop; Bill Kirbas, second base; Clarence Allen, left field; Sam Lackaye, right field; Dick Schake, first base; Pat Digiore, third base; and Mike West, Fred Kroog, Ray Ward, and Ed Downey, who handled the pitching chores.

The Panthers opened the season with a bang, swamping Orange under a 12-7 rout. Meeting Clifford Scott in the second contest, the E. O. Nine was upset by the Scotties, 4-1. West hurled for the Panthers and did a creditable job until the seventh inning, when he lost control; and helped along by Panther errors, Scott pushed the winning runs across. The game proved to be the start of a four-game losing streak for the East Orange lads.

Irvington, on its way to a state crown, smeared the hapless Panthers by imposing a 12-2 count. Still on the wrong side of the fence, the Red and Blue nine proceeded to Columbia and Central. Phil Marvel's Gems played host to the Panthers, but were none too polite, for they beat Griff's boys by a 6-4 tally. Central eked out a 3-2 win, and Mike West on the mound really lost a heartbreaker. Getting back into the win column, the Panthers had sweet revenge on Columbia, and beat the Gems by a 4-0 score. Ray Ward on the mound did a nice job and allowed the visitors but two measly hits, while his mates, behind Acocella and Tortoriello, collected four runs on heavy hitting.

A big inning at Montclair was not enough to stop a hard hitting Mountie nine and the Panthers dropped another game, 8-4. Honeker and Tortoriello both banged out triples in the big first frame.

Meeting Orange again, the Panthers knocked the Tornadoes down to a fainting breeze by beating them a second time, 2-1. A game scheduled with Bloomfield was to follow, but had to be postponed because of the Bengals' entry in the Newark tourney.

In the next contest, Scott again triumphed over the Panthers, this time by a 4-2 score. Some exceptional pitching marked East Orange's last win of the season, as West held favored Nutley to five hits. The Panthers collected eleven safe hits for themselves and went on to win 8-3. West fanned eight Maroon players and stopped Ralph Russo's consecutive hitting streak at fifteen games. Completing the season, the Panthers were clipped by West Orange to the tune of 4-1.

TRACK

UNDER THE ABLE COACHING of Mr. Ernest Benatre, East Orange High School Track Team completed a successful season in 1944, winning three of its four dual meets. Besides these victories, the Panthers finished fourth in the Montclair Invitation Meet, while they placed last in the Newark Board of Education Meet, the season's opener.

Four lettermen returned to bolster the chances of victory: Ken Boedecker, George Williges, Sam Griggs, and Art Palumbo. The squad was also studded with a host of new stars like Jim Baxter, Wayne Lally, Len Daum, and Bob Martin. Williges, successful student of the pole vault, mile run, and low hurdles, co-captained the team with Boedecker, middle-distance speedster. William Ferry and Roy Hitchens, now both in service, were the managers.

The season opened at the Newark Meet, and the squad placed but one man, George Williges, with a jump of ten feet, third in the pole vault. The Panthers tallied two points for his efforts and tied West Side for last place.

In the following two meets, the Panthers enjoyed a taste of victory, with West Side their first victim.

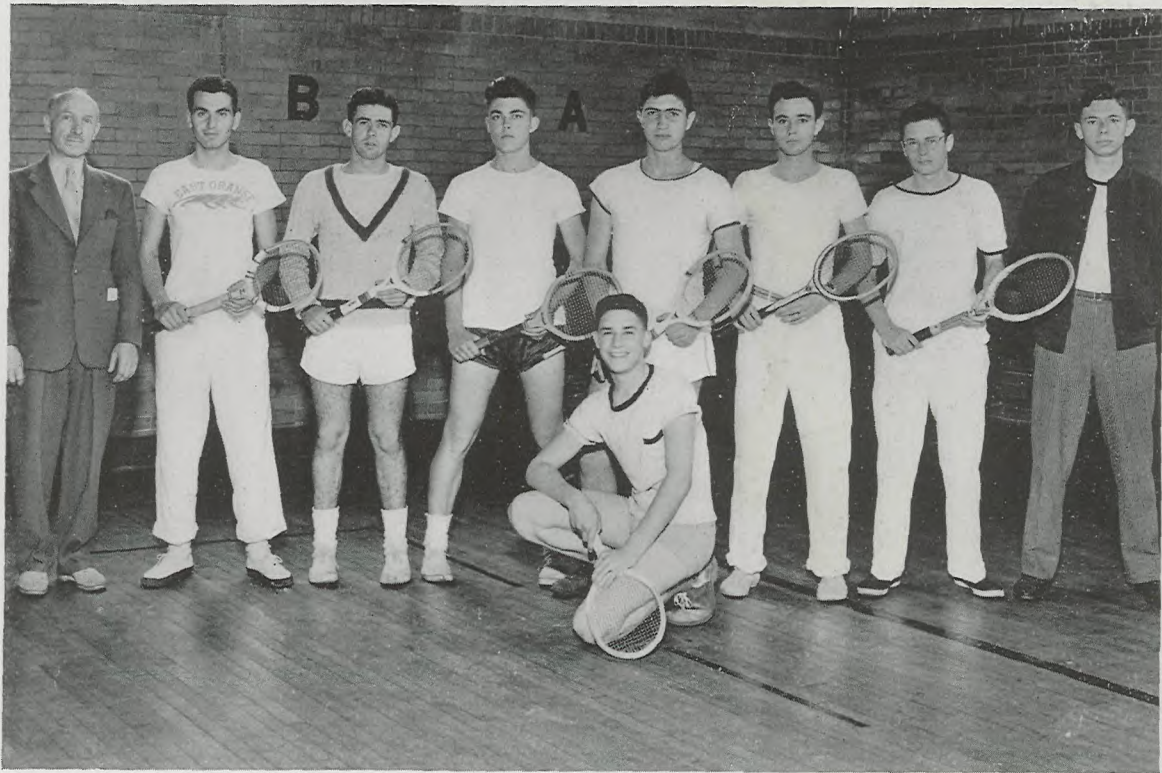

Led by Sam Griggs and Wayne Lally, the Red and Blue won this meet, 64-52. Griggs took first place in the 100-yard dash, while both he and Lally tied for first in the high jump.

East Orange was quick to follow this up with a 70-38 rout of Irvington. In this runaway over the Campers, the Panthers garnered eight first places, with Williges, Palumbo, and Griggs each capturing two. Frank O'Toole and Bob Martin won in the other two events. Finishing second in many places were Dick Saraydar, Jim Baxter, Dick Forsythe, Len Daum, Allen Parvin, and Ken Boedecker.

Meeting Weequahic in their third dual meet, the Panthers were handed their firsts, with Griggs taking honors with three. The Indians took all of the other events except the broad jump, which went entirely to the Panthers.

Before the season's final meet with South Side, the Panthers journeyed to Montclair for participation in the Montclair Invitation Meet, in which they placed fourth. East Orange gained two places in the meet.

Winding up the season with its third win, the Red and Blue trounced South Side by a 60-48 count. George Williges led the Panthers, scoring with two first places. The rest of East Orange's six places were won by Palumbo, Pennstrom, Boedecker, and Griggs.

TENNIS

WITH A RECORD of eleven wins and one defeat, the East Orange High School Tennis Team won the sectional state championship. Behind Lyn Abbott, Bill Childs, Joe Clark, and John Crispano, the Panthers mowed down twelve opponents before meeting a single setback. The season opened on May 1 against Bloomfield. East Orange, winning three singles and one of the doubles matches, came out ahead 4-1. West Orange lost by the same score, and then Montclair dropped a very tough match, 3-2. Then the Panthers journeyed to Glen Ridge, and the Ridgers joined the vanquished column after a 4-1 setback. Lyn Abbott lost his first match in two years against Paul Gilbert of Bloomfield, 1-6, 4-6; but the Red and Blue emerged victorious, 3-2, in the second encounter with the Bengals. West Orange was defeated a second time 4-1, and then the Camptowners of Irvington lost by the same tally.

On May 19, a second close match with Montclair was held at their courts, but the Panthers copped two singles and a doubles to win 3-2. The season's first and only shutout came against Millburn. Playing the inexperienced visitors, the East Orange boys had little trouble and won 5-0. The next week, the Panthers traveled to Millburn and won a second time, 4-1.

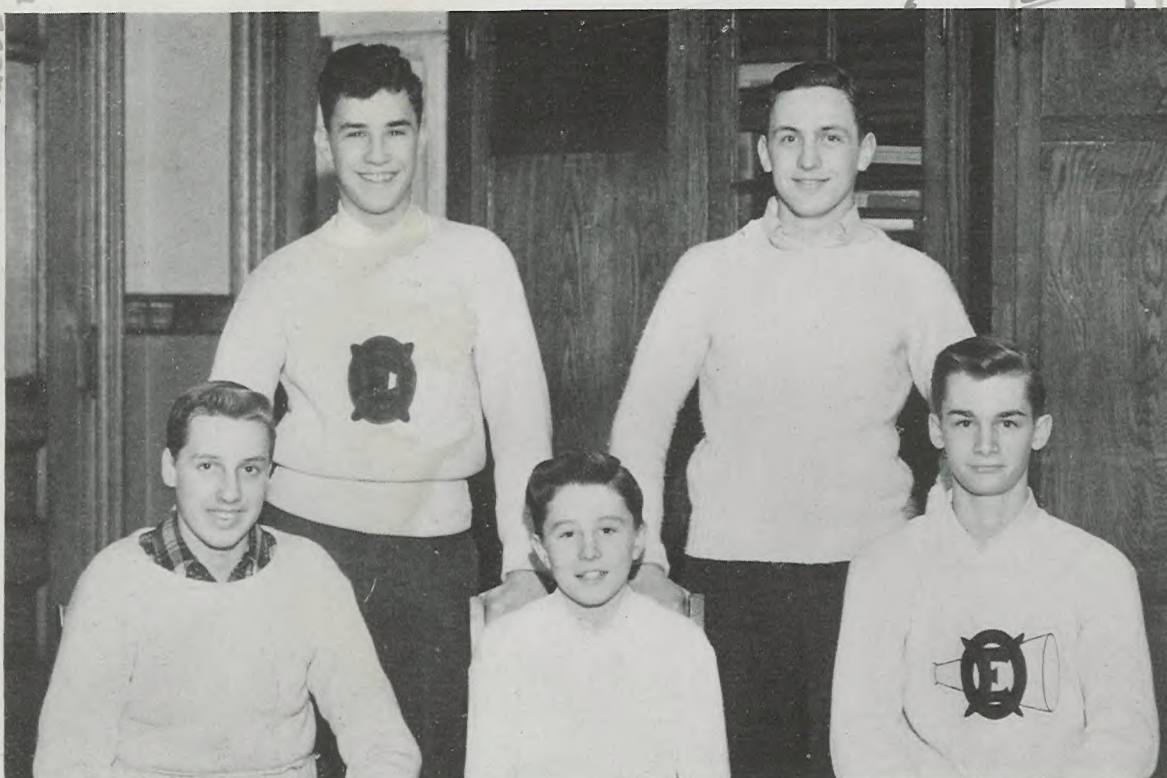

Then came the season's only defeat. Pitted against Clinton Packard, one of the East's best junior players, Bill Childs lost narrowly, 4-6, 6-8; and George Braun fell before Stanley Vitt, 3-6, 1-6. Columbia went on to win the match by winning the number two doubles, 0-6, 1-6.

After one more match in which they defeated Irvington 4-1, the Panthers closed this very fine season.

CHEERLEADERS

EAST ORANGE'S CHEERLEADERS, captained by Kent Meier, did their best to further the efforts of the athletic forces of the school by directing the yells of the student body.

James Muir, Frank Williges, Bob Wilkes, Charles Rehm, Bob Horowitz, and Leo Halprin were the other members of the squad. The only complaint that the fellows had to make was that, although the students showed very fine response in cheering when the team was winning, they let down when the tide turned against the Panthers. That is the time to cheer the hardest.

Some of the cheers that were introduced this year went as follows. Remember this?

Chee hee, Chee hi
Chee huckalacka, boom alacka
