DEDICATION

WE, THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1949, feel greatly honored to dedicate this volume of the Syllabus to Miss Lillian Lowell in deep appreciation for all she has done for us.

Miss Lowell's cheerful smile and encouraging words have made many of our days much brighter. Under her capable teaching, even Caesar's commentaries, Ovid's poems, Cicero's orations, and Virgil's Aeneid came to life. Her Latin instruction has made English easier too.

During Miss Lowell's twenty-eight years at East Orange High School she has won the admiration and love of the student body and the faculty. Many of her students have become life-time friends, and none can forget her sincere interest in all our activities.

This year upon Miss Lowell's retirement the school will lose one of the finest teachers one could find anywhere. All of us will miss her, and we all wish her happiness in the future.

● It was with deep regret that we learned of the passing of Miss Frances P. Kidder on October 21, 1948.

Miss Kidder, born in Richmond, Maine, was graduated from Bates College. She was Dean of Girls at Maine Central Institute, a large private school, before coming to New Jersey. Miss Kidder was a member of the secretarial staff in East Orange High School for twenty-five years.

We deeply feel the loss of Miss Kidder's cheerfulness and ready assistance to all. Everyone admired the warmth, charm, and sincerity that won her countless friends among both students and faculty. Her efficiency and accuracy made her an invaluable member of the staff, and most remarkable was her memory, which enabled her to supply information about graduates without ever referring to the files.

We were fortunate indeed to have had Miss Kidder with us so long, and her cheerful personality will long be remembered.

YOUR THEME, "All the world's a stage," sets one to wondering what Shakespeare would have written had he lived to see most of the world's actors engaged in two twentieth century wars, each so devastating that fifty previous wars added together could not equal their destructive fury.

Such a catastrophe should never occur again. The United Nations Organization constitutes our strongest hope for peace. If every American would generate a sincere and genuine interest in this all-important organization, each might some day share in the credit for establishing permanent peace and, to a degree at least, deserve the oft quoted tribute, "Never a great actor, he was invaluable in small parts."

HENRY E. KENTOPP.

LEWIS B. KNIGHT
Principal
East Orange High School

RECENTLY I CAME ACROSS a copy of a Shakespearean program which was presented by the students of East Orange High School in 1916. Among those participating appeared the name of a boy who has since become a member of our Board of Education. He had been cast as a bugler. His first remark upon seeing this reminder of his youth was that he began blowing his horn at an early age! In a more serious vein, he then recalled the status and sense of belonging that came over him at the time, even though his was a humble role.

Because of its wide scope, the 1949 Syllabus, more than any previously published, will be a fertile source of pleasant memories for all of us who have played parts in the panorama of the past four years. Our normal living together in home rooms, in classrooms, laboratories and shops, our participation in athletics as players and spectators, all have resulted in an unconscious intertwining of our lives of which we will become more conscious with the passage of years.

The sense of belonging to East Orange High School does not cease with graduation. Few public high schools have annual reunions of classes which were graduated a quarter of a century ago. The fact that such events have long been customary with our graduates is compelling evidence of a high degree of loyalty to our school. The Syllabus is a powerful factor in maintaining these immeasurably valuable ties.

My sincerest congratulations to all who have had a part in the preparation of the 1949 Syllabus.

S E N I O R S

Four-Year History of The Class of 1949

Freshman Year

IN SEPTEMBER, 1945, the doors of East Orange High School were opened to a class of green and slightly scared freshmen, not yet dry behind the ears. We admired the blase and nonchalant attitude of the upper classmen, and with gullibility accepted their confusing directions. Finally, we adjusted ourselves to the swiftly running tide of people and learned the "ropes." That fall we watched the much admired Panthers battle valiantly against Barringer with the final score 25 to 3 in favor of the Big Blue.

The dramatic and social seasons were huge successes bringing forth, for our complete approval, the speech department production of The Cat and The Canary and The Devil's Disciple, both thrillers. The General Organization gave a G.O. Carnival, where all had a good time.

The fast-moving year drew to a close, and with our ambitions heightening, we began, somewhat prematurely, to look forward to the day when we should hold the highly esteemed and admired position of seniors.

Sophomore Year

WELL, HERE WE ARE back again with one year's experience behind us. Everyone was looking forward to the football season because that year something new had been added to our cheering squad—Girl Cheerleaders!! This raised everyone's morale, and the team proceeded to win the Old Guard trophy from Barringer by a score of 34-7. It was a good thing for E.O.H.S. that they did, because that game marked the fiftieth game between the two teams. Before we knew it, Christmas was here, and the Choirs and Glee Clubs gave a really wonderful show. Our halls were filled with many returned veterans who really gave the other boys a run for their money. Our Speech and Dramatics Department welcomed a new member to its ranks, Mr. Willard Mohn, who scored a hit with his production of My Sister Eileen, a rousing comedy. Dancing during third lunch usually ended with everybody holding up the gym walls. When Spring vacation came around, no one argued about staying in school. We were all tired and needed a week's rest after those grueling mid-year exams. Refreshed by the absence of homework, we struggled through the year, ending it all with the Grad Dance held at the Astor Roof on the third floor. Two tough years were behind us, with two to go. But these didn't seem half so bad because we were Upper Classmen at last!!!

Junior Year

REMEMBER HOW OUTSTANDING our Junior year was? The Panthers romped through their football season, climaxing it all by winning the Old Guard trophy again by a big score. We all dressed in hill-billy clothes for a marvelous Sadie Hawkins' Dance, held by the efforts of Miss Leinonen and her Social Committee. How could we forget Arsenic and Old Lace with all those teachers in it? Here we quote Mr. Bodenschatz: Chaaaarge!!! Of course the Christmas Concert was a big success. What else could you expect with Mr. Jones directing? Lighted candles and all! Also in December our school was honored by a visit from hundreds of Hi-Y members here for their annual convention. Smooth dancers, huh, gals? Then came the big event for us Juniors—our very own Junior Prom. It was the best dance ever for us. Final exams crept up on us quickly, but we passed the final hurdle with flying colors. And so, with a great expectancy shining in our eyes, we started our last high school summer vacation. We were determined to do ourselves proud during this one!!

Senior Year

HOORAY! Here we are at last! Our heads certainly were in the clouds for a few weeks, and we had great fun telling those tiny freshmen, for a small fee, how to take the elevator to the fourth floor. Our football season was a great success, with only two losses. We all marched over to Upsala Field for a wonderful rally and bonfire with the band, twirlers, and cheerleaders all helping to heighten our already soaring morale. Naturally we won the Turkey Day clash, 27-7. (We mean YEAH!) Christmas vacation followed the delightful concert by the Music Department, but those joys were soon forgotten because mid-year exams loomed forebodingly in the near future. They weren't so bad as they were rumored to be; and we attended with a patronizing air the dance held for the "younger" students, quaintly called the Junior Prom. Spring vacation quickly passed, and we began to count on our fingers and toes the days left for us. John Farese (pres), Susan Darrah (vice-pres.), Bette Rogers (sec), and Vincent Quinn (treas.) were fine officers. Our Grad Dance turned out to be the huge success we all knew it would be. As our final year drew to a close, the singing of our Alma Mater brought tears to our eyes. When we bade a fond farewell to E.O.H.S., the entire class decided unanimously that we were definitely the best Senior class ever to be graduated.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN! This is your East Orange Theater announcer, Stan Glushik. Tonight we are using all the latest electrical equipment invented by Dr. William Strange and his engineers, Armand Federici and Don Halstead.

Before the program starts, I should like to say that our new theater was designed by Griese and Hattersley, Inc., architects—and built and financed by the Krieger, Horning and Essinger Real Estate firm of East Orange, New Jersey. During the intermission, you may get refreshments from Linda Trudeau's elegant restaurant across the street.

This presentation is brought to you through the courtesy of Betty Rogers and Bucky Buckingham & Co., makers of that wonderfully fragrant Super Sudsy Wudsy Bubble Bath. This soap is the best big-little soap in the world, used extensively by the inhabitants of East Orange since that famed year 1949. As one of our audience writes, and we quote: "I, Jay R. Cox, use Super Sudsy Wudsy Bubble Bath Soap because it is so marvelously good, just right for removing paint."

And now! Dim the house lights!

The program tonight is in honor of the Super Duper Football Team of 1949. And here is that great pianist, Donald Armento, and his orchestral associates, Janet Schongar, Evelyn Inman, and Barbara Evans, who will present awards to the outstanding gridiron players of that great team.

The first prize of a neat little bungalow will be given to Don Tarantino, our All-State kicker. The second prize of 100 loud handkerchiefs donated by Tom Skillman will be given to Robert Piccirillo, and 13 lessons on how to remain happy for the rest of your natural life will be given to that great back, John Farese, by the Villani and McCusker Wit Team. Johnny Della Sala and Charley Hull, our ends, are presented with two 700-lb. swordfish, caught by Carmen Verrone and Richard Scardilli while vacationing in Florida. A prize of $5,000 is awarded to Richard Gardner from that millionairess, Susan Leventhal, and a new 1974 Schmoo-mobile, designed by Fred Clouston, will be given to Robert Cottingham. The atomic fission lighting system in the car has just been invented by John Rapka in the new Carl DeFilippis Science Laboratories.

And now, during the intermission, we have two important announcements: Stan Manning has just set a new record by flying around the world in one day. With him was Richard Groves, his flying assistant. Making their debuts for the first time in

PROPHECY

M.G.M.'s picture, TWO GIRLS FROM NEW JERSEY, are pretty blonde Joanne Mesch and glamorous Florence Salera. We also hear that Carl Anderson has now taken Van Johnson's place in pictures and also in their hearts. Right, girls?

Jane Easter and Judy Neff are dancing in the current Broadway musical, ANNIE GET YOUR CANNON, written by playwright Diane Davis, and produced and directed by Monroe Van Ness. It has been given an excellent review by world-famous critics, Leonard Clark and Donald Bacher.

On their 50th performance are singing stars, Marie Savino and Jack Murphy, of the Chicago Theater of the Air, in Archie Adams' operetta BLUE MOON.

Let us now take a look at the audience during the intermission. Over there is Jimmy Cole, who has just retired after publishing his dramatic novel UP IN 228. However, Norman Allen, author of BEHIND THE GOLDEN CURTAIN, is suing Jimmy for plagiarism. The case goes before Judge Ethel Lindeman, the first woman judge of the Supreme Court. Good luck, boys!

Representing East Orange High, we see Jacqueline Favre, who is now teaching French there; Suzanne Warnecke, the new music teacher; Herbert Miller of the History Department; and Math teacher, Jean Herrmann.

We have just spotted those two international soccer stars, Fred Del Guercio and Matty Simons, who will compete this year at the Olympics for the U. S.

Up front is that billionaireess, Helga Hearst. Her horse, Feedle Bom, has won the Kentucky Derby for the fourth time, but Donald Benjamin still has hopes of winning the next race by entering Buzz Bomb, his five-legged horse.

Marlis Cannstatt, editor-in-chief of the Times, is here in the orchestra. With her are Anne Freidland, one of the delegates to the United Nations, and Jay Herbert, now majority leader in the House of Representatives.

And now several announcements.

Lucille Riccardello, Carolyn Farano, and Marion Kassakian have opened a Secretarial Institute. Genevieve Williams and Mary McCray have returned from Paris where they viewed the coming fashions of the world in preparation for their new creations. At Paris they met Josephine Araneo, now acclaimed as the best-dressed woman in the world.

Also, Mary Ann Digiore, winner of the START THE MUSIC program, is there giving away her prizes, while Tax Collector Bob Many looks sadly on. Mary Ann has donated an elevator, one of her prizes, to the back entrance of the girls' gym.

Martha Stewart, Vice-President of Parent-Teacher Association, is seated next to Vincent Quinn, President of the Young Bachelors' Club. Both people listen attentively to Joan Lucas, professor at Syracuse University, speak about sociology.

It has just been announced that aerialist-acrobat Jim Clymer will live after his fall, thanks to the skill of those world-famous surgeons, Tom Ritner and Jay Bodnar.

And now, ladies and gentlemen, our announcements and introductions will have to end as the curtain opens up on the second act.

THE NEWS

The News again took its place in East Orange High's life, this time in its fiftieth year of publication. To make this golden anniversary particularly memorable, the first issue carried headlines in gold letters and an inset of the first 1899 issue. Everyone in school received a copy during home-room period on Friday, September 25, and everybody then had the opportunity of subscribing to the paper. Buying on the installment plan was again encouraged, with installments payable in October, November, February, and March. The News had a record number of 1,273 paid subscriptions!

Several new additions were made to the paper, including a new adviser and a "magic line" worth one dollar to the lucky person in whose copy the line happened to be. This was a fine idea, but one week the printer made a mistake and printed one hundred "magic line" copies! Mr. Loesch has done an admirable job as the new editorial adviser, and with Marlis Cannstatt as editor-in-chief, Susan Leventhal as managing editor, and the cooperation of a fine editorial staff, The News has continued to be a valuable publication, informing the students and faculty of goings-on in and around school, giving timely editorial opinions, and amusing all its readers with such features as "Kid in the Korridor" and little items from the "Box Drop."

Such a successful year has given the staff of next year's paper a high standard to maintain, but with Mr. Loesch as adviser they will surely do fully as well.

Student Council

FIRST ROW: D. Ruppert, D. Bacher, C. Wilson, E. Inman, D. Armento, M. Stewart, J. Grant, R. Lindquist, A. Friedland. SECOND ROW: M. Mack, V. Conrad, J. Favre, B. Walker, S. Darrah, B. Evans, M. THIS YEAR THE STUDENT COUNCIL has again confirmed the advantages of student government. Under the leadership of President Don Armento, Vice-president Evelyn Inman, and Secretary Martha Stewart, many worthy achievements have been effected.

The Council retained the new system for election of home room representatives which was initiated last year: any students wishing to participate signed their names to a list of candidates. The purpose of this method was to procure for members only those students who were interested in the council and would work for its success. To further this purpose, this year the Council was reduced in size, having only one representative from each home room instead of two; this arrangement was thought advisable because of the inefficiency in working with a large group.

The first big task undertaken by the Council was the completion of the cafeteria investigation started last year. After much consideration, the Board of Education permitted the establishment of the Federal Lunch System. This plan is a great aid for the students since it enables them to buy a complete meal for twenty-five cents.

Once again, representatives attended the annual Convention of High School Councils at Princeton. From this conference were gained ideas for successful student government and school programs.

The annual fall picnic at Hickory Springs in the South Mountain Reservation was as much a success this year as ever.

Through the efforts of the Council, a Bar-ringer bonfire rally was held at Upsala's athletic field on Thanksgiving eve. This merry occasion helped set the pace for our victory the following day.

The opening of Youthopia, our East Orange canteen, was an extensive enterprise, and to insure its success, paid supervisors were employed.

Other projects of the Council were the writing of a new handbook and the revision of the constitution. As always, the Council persisted in improving the facilities of the school, evidences of which appear in the new mirrors for the girls and the bookcase set up for lunchroom service.

The Council and its advisers thank all who worked so faithfully to make 1948-49 such a prosperous year for the Student Council of East Orange High School.

Social Committee and Junior Red Cross

FIRST ROW: J. Menchen, F. Luce, M. Stewart, J. Gray, B. Evans, U. Kromayer, A. Kisling. SECOND ROW: W. Turner, T. Andresakes, T. Roberts, E. Crooke, A. Lindsay, F. Bacher.

The Social Committee

THE SOCIAL ACTIVITIES this year began, as usual, with the New Student Party, on September 17, sponsored by the G. O. and the Social Committee. The Social Committee is under the direction of Miss Ellen Leinonen, and its members are Barbara Evans (Chairman), Joan Menchen, Florence Luce, Ted Andresakes, Eric Crooke, Bill Turner, and Arthur Lindsay. The first party included a Get-Acquainted Game, group singing, and cheer-leading, followed by refreshments and dancing.

On November 6, the traditional Sadie Hawkins Day Dance was held, when all the "gals" grabbed their men to the tune of the Robinhood Orchestra's snappy country music. The gymnasium was lined with lovable little shmoos and some even appeared in person during the course of the evening. The dance was a huge success, both socially and financially.

The Junior Prom was held on January 29 with our all-time favorite, Bud Laird, and his orchestra supplying the music. The gymnasium resembled a Mexican Fiesta with gay colors and dancers. The Flammingoes entertained also with special vocal numbers.

In cooperation with the Junior Red Cross Council, a basketball game and dance was held in March. Proceeds were given to the local Junior Red Cross.

The Grad Dance was held on the evening of June 11. The scheme of decoration was a tropical garden with Japanese lanterns and tropical plants and flowers. Al Clothier and his orchestra played his sweet music for the last high school memory for the seniors.

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS continued to play an outstanding role in our school activities. We once again attained a 100% membership in the Red Cross Roll Call, reaching a desirable financial goal.

Continuing our Red Cross work this year, girls of the clothing department made woolen skirts and dresses, which were sent to Europe. The printing department made 5,000 Junior Red Cross labels for the local chapter, and the woodworking department made ping pong tables to be used in local veterans' hospitals. The Civics Club worked on a correspondence album of news events, letters, and photos, which will be sent to a foreign school. In the spring we gave chests of school and recreational supplies for foreign children.

UNDER THE ABLE LEADERSHIP of Mrs. Ensign the Girls' Study Hall Council continued its activities, aiming for better study habits and a sense of responsibility with student supervision in the study halls. Our capable officers this year were Mabel Hay, president, Anne O'Malley, vice-president, and Jackie Andersen, secretary. The Council is under the sponsorship of the Student Council and makes its own laws and solves its own problems. Through it, girls learn the value of responsibility as well as better study habits.

It is a great credit to East Orange High School that its girls can run their own study halls competently with the admiration of the faculty, students and visitors.

The Boys' C.P., the Girls' C.P. and the girl receptionists also help to carry out our program in student government. The receptionists help visitors who enter the school to find their way around. The C.P.'s job is to keep the traffic orderly in the halls between classes and at lunch. These three organizations are doing a fine job under the direction of Mr. Woolson.

Baseball 1948

FIRST ROW: C. DeFilippis, H. Miller, G. Campbell, D. Wright, E. Heil, T. Foster, R. Horning. SECOND ROW: R. Gerhard, A. Federici, J. Farese, L. Auch, J. Della Sala, T. D'Ambola, R. Piccirillo, D. THOUGH LACKING THE PROPER playing facilities, Stan Griffin nevertheless coached the East Orange baseball squad to a fairly good season. Led by the hitting of All-State star John Della Sala and the pitching of Rudy Gerhard and Tom Foster, the Panthers compiled a record of five wins and eight losses.

On April 23 the E.O. nine raised the curtain on a fine note when Rudy Gerhard pitched a one-hit shutout to down Orange, 6-0. Jim Harrington got the only hit in the fourth inning as Gerhard struck out nine men. Ed Van Brunt, sophomore pitching find, then hurled the Panthers to a 4-2 victory over West Side; Carl DeFilippis led the hitting attack with two singles.

Irvington, one of the finest teams in the State, came up with four runs off Gerhard in the first inning and then went on to rout the Red and Blue, 10-2. Although E.O. scored seven runs in the top of the first inning, it wasn't quite enough, for Columbia came back to score a stirring 11-8 victory. John Farese's triple with the bases loaded was the big blow in the first inning uprising.

Going into the last inning of the following game, the Panthers were leading West Orange, but the Cowboys, helped by several infield errors, scored three runs off Van Brunt to walk off with the contest, 5-3. A strong Columbia nine then shut out the Griffin men, 2-0.

Gus Kerizakos, considered the finest pitcher in the State, struck out ten men and gave up but two hits as Montclair trounced the Panthers, 9-1. Returning to the victory column East Orange hitters had a field day as Orange was beaten 10-6. Les Auch starred at bat, going three for three. Bloomfield then gave the Panthers a little of their own medicine by coming up with an 11-3 triumph.

Two more losses followed as St. Benedict's baffled E.O. to the tune of a 12-2 shellacking, and Nutley outwitted the Red and Blue in a hard fought 4-1 game. The season ended on a brighter note when Tom Foster struck out eight men to lead the E.O. nine to a 3-1 win over West Orange.

Della Sala led the squad in batting with .414 average and John Farese was RBI champ with eleven to his credit.

WINNING FIVE OF ITS SIX scheduled dual meets, the 1948 East Orange Track team became known for its speed and muscular coordination.

Coach Ernest Benatre and Assistant Coach Ed Lewis rounded their boys into a plugging group whose job it was to get across that finish line first, and that they did in many instances.

The '48 team placed most emphasis on the hurdles and jumps, which they dominated. The sprinters and muscle men, however, did their part also. The main cog in the wheel was Bob Cottingham, who stepped into the shoes of All-Stater Leroy St. Thomas. Cottingham led the squad in points earned and was always good for two first places, his specialties being the high and low hurdles and the high jump. George Moore, another hurdler, was constantly pressing Cottingham.

Floyd Bennett and Ralph Garvin held down the jumping positions, and both did equally well in the high and broad jumps, along with Robert Hickson. The pole vaulters, who were forever soaring into the air, were Richard Hall, Robert Wright, and Dave Mitchell.

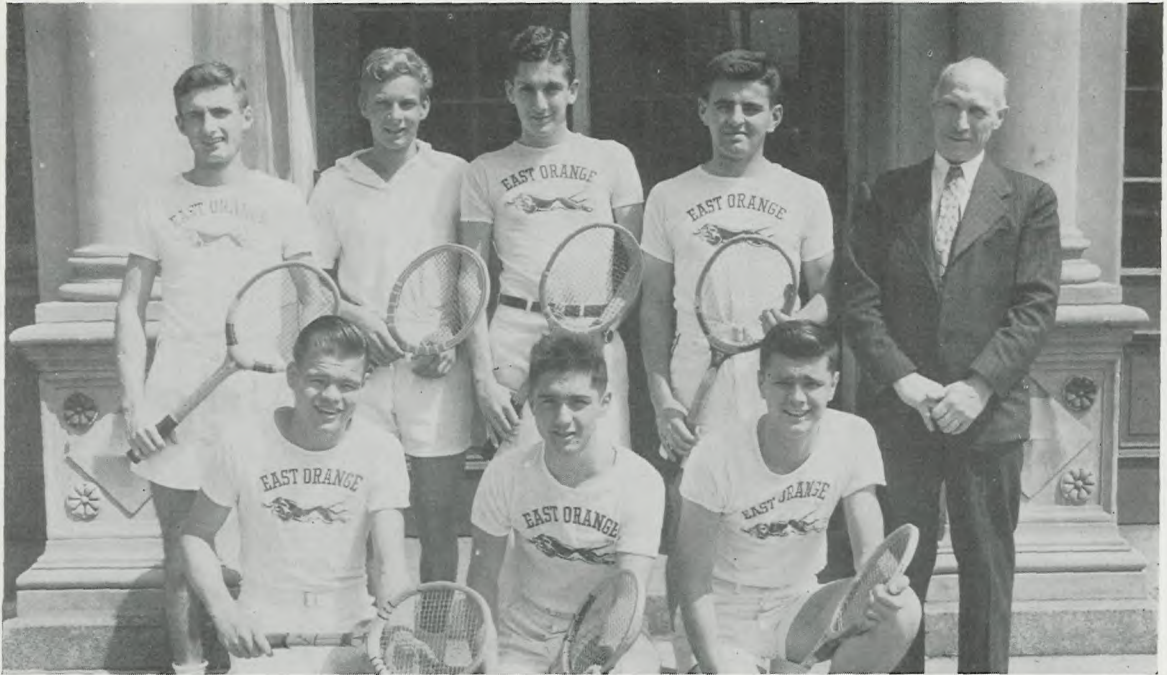

Sprinting, which has always been an East Orange specialty, was done moderately well. The 100-yard dash starred Bill Trower and Ted Whittle and Dick Reynolds, all of whom also ran the 220. Donald Ghee, Ralph Milteer, and Earl Washington shared the honors in the 440, while Prince Williams and Robert Parvin were entered in the 880. Cross-Country runners dominated the mile in the forms of Dick Bowker, Tom Ritner, and Stan Glushik.

Tossing around the weights, such as the shot put, the discus, and the javelin, were Dave Perrin, Jack MacKeown, Emile Kirbas, and Milton Reich.

With such a lineup, the team beat Irvington, West Orange, Weequahic, South Side, and West Side, while faltering only to Barringer. The closest meet was with West Orange, which E. O. won 58 2/3—58 1/3.

Running in not too pleasant weather, the Orange Relays found East Orange fifth in the 440, third in the 880, third in the mile, fifth in the two mile, second in the medley, and first in the shuttle. The team as a whole placed third in the Montclair Invitation Meet and twelfth in the State Meet.

Tennis 1948

FIRST ROW: G. Fredrick, D. Armento, J. McCormick. SECOND ROW: J. Wills, D. Bacher, D. Polk, R. Millspaugh, Mr. Davis.

COACH FRANK E. DAVIS tutored his tennis proteges to another fine season, winning eleven matches out of their schedule of fifteen. The only losses came at the hands of Westfield and Montclair, the group III and group IV State champions, respectively.

Robert Millspaugh, Jack Wills, and Donald Bacher combined to star in the singles matches, while Joe McCormick, Don Polk, Don Armento, and George Fredrick held down the doubles positions. The always dependable Millspaugh was the mainstay for the Panther netsters with Wills close behind.

With easy wins over West Side and Bloomfield, East Orange got off to a flying start, but found the going a little tougher after that. Montclair won a hard fought match 3-2 as Bacher turned in the only singles win.

Over-confident Columbia then fell by the wayside, a simple 4-1 victim, while Bloomfield was trimmed 5-0. West Orange caused a mild scare when they copped the first two singles matches, but the Panthers recovered and came out on top by a 3-2 margin.

The second loss of the year came at the hands of a powerful Westfield team, 3-2. The Panthers again faltered against Montclair, as the Mounties got their man to the tune of a 4-1 victory. Thomas Jefferson of Elizabeth proved a formidable foe, but they were defeated, 3-2.

In the return match with Westfield, it was the same story again. Westfield won 3-2 as the Red and Blue tried in vain to avenge its earlier defeat. The E. O. netsters then put five straight triumphs together to end the season on a fine note. Columbia was downed 3-2; and West Orange was whitewashed, 5-0.

An overrated Nutley squad was the Panthers' next victim by a 4-1 count. Two 5-0 shutouts over Thomas Jefferson and West Side brought the 1948 campaign to a successful conclusion.

Football

COACH ED LEWIS, in his sophomore year as Red and Blue mentor, piloted East Orange High School through its third consecutive highly successful campaign, winning seven games and losing two. Except for a new ruling which removes from state title consideration any team which has lost two games, the Panthers undoubtedly would have been rated among the top powerhouses in the state.

The 1948 campaign got underway on September 25 at Belleville. Ted Whittle, E.O.'s leading scorer, paced the Panthers to a convincing 20-0 win over a scrappy Belleville eleven. A stubborn West Side aggregation put up quite a fight the following week, but the Red and Blue eked out a 7-0 win.

East Orange remained undefeated and unscored upon through the next two encounters. A weak but enthusiastic West Orange team fell a 20-0 victim to Panther superiority. A reportedly powerful Irvington squad was crushed 38-0 as East Orange unleashed a dazzling display of offensive power.

Montclair was then the big obstacle standing in the way of Panther title hopes, but the defending champs proved a little too much for the Red and Blue, which sustained its first loss by a 14-9 count. Although East Orange led at halftime, the Mounties came right back to even up matters. A bad center gave E.O. a 9-7 lead, through a safety, but Montclair followed with another TD to walk off with the game.

Bouncing back from this defeat, the Red and Blue warriors triumphed over Nutley, 20-6, in preparation for their battle with Orange. There was still an exceptionally good chance of gaining state championship, if the Tornados could be bypassed.

But two fast Orange backs, Nat Stevens and Bob Robinson, combined to blast all Panther title dreams with a 19-13 victory. On the ground East Orange was completely overwhelmed, but taking to the air, they almost came up with the victory, falling short by the slim margin of a clipping penalty.

Weakened by innumerable injuries, the Panthers found Columbia a tough opponent, but they managed to score an unimpressive 12-7 last-period win.

Thanksgiving Day—and 12,000 fans saw East Orange even the 52-game series at 23 victories apiece; six games have ended in ties. The reportedly strong Barringer eleven was completely overwhelmed to the tune of a 27-7 Red and Blue victory.

East Orange this season boasted one of the most highly rated lines in the state, with such stalwarts as Dave Perrin (team captain), Don Tarantino, Richard Gardner, and John DellaSala. The Panther backfield agents were paced by All-Stater Ted Whittle, John Farese, Bill Trower, and Charlie Carter.

Cross Country

FIRST ROW: R. Johnston, A. Cortese, G. Roma, T. Rayment, T. Johnson, G. Norton, M. Accardi, H. Israel.
SECOND ROW: Mr. Bowden, R. Stabler, S. Glushik, R. Bowker, H. Hadigian, H. Vaughn, C. Seibert, T. Ritner, M. Van Ness.

HAVING ONE OF THE BEST SEASONS in the history of the school, the East Orange Cross-Country team overcame eight opposing teams while bowing to only two. Seven veteran runners, Dick Bowker, Anthony Cortese, Stan Glushik, Ted Rayment, Tom Ritner, Bob Stabler, and Harold Vaughn, led the squad to recognition as one of the outstanding harrier teams of the State.

Coach Paul Bowden's call for team members early in the school season brought thirty strong-winded boys, fifteen of whom remained to finish the season.

For the past two years the E.O. Cross-Country teams have had trouble winning meets. When they had the men to place behind the first man, they didn't have the men to place first. This year they had both. Bob Stabler became the first man, and he established during the season the amazing record of eight first places in ten dual meets, a second place in the County meet, and a tenth place in the State meet.

With Stabler first and six E.O. men right behind him, the team went on to four straight victories over South Side, West Side, Central and Montclair. The Kearny meet was next. Kearny, as compared with East Orange, which had been defeated for two years before this season, had been undefeated for two years. But at the time of the meet, both teams had won four while losing none, and hopes of beating Kearny rose high. On the day of the meet, two of the first six East Orange runners were stricken with colds. Kearny won 31-24. However, the outcome might have been different as in the State meet when the harriers proved their worthiness by beating Kearny.

Three more teams were then left in the wake of the East Orange hurricane. Irvington and Nutley placed only four men in the first ten to cross the finish line, while Bloomfield was almost shut out with only two men in the first ten. Bob Stabler, Tom Ritner, Ted Rayment, Dick Bowker, Harold Vaughn, Anthony Cortese, Stan Glushik, and Gaedy Roma accounted for the eight East Orange runners.

Orange proved to be the toughest of all the teams, as it defeated E.O. 24-31. Barringer, however, was the last to feel the E.O. sting, as the team ended the season with a 33-22 victory.

Not doing so well as was expected of them in the Essex County Meet, the Hill-and-dalers finished fifth amongst the thirteen schools competing. However, the State meet found the East Orange team sixth amongst the schools of the entire state, an achievement which not only brought honor to the team itself, but also to the school it represented, East Orange High School.

Soccer

FIRST ROW: C. McCusker, C. DeFilippis, C. Hauschild, H. Miller, R. Orlando, F. Del Guercio, R. Fucci, W. Burkhardt, R. Gerhard, R. Scardilli. SECOND ROW: M. Kukon, R. Rossi, R. Murphy, G. Carroll, R. Bailey, P. Georgatsos, E. Lynch, C. Verrone, W. Gamba, A. DeAquino. THIRD ROW: Mr. Griffin, J. Villani, R. Francisco, M. Simons, A. Posella, J. Cole, N. Najarian, E. Picknally.

ALTHOUGH NOT QUITE UP TO the exceptionally high standards of Coach Stan Griffin's many championship squads, his 1948 version still caused plenty of trouble for some of the best teams in the section. Paced by the fine all-around play of Rudy Gerhard, East Orange's soccer contingent came up with a mediocre season, scoring four wins, five losses, and two ties. Gerhard, who made the second team of the All-State soccer squad, was high scorer with eight goals. Receiving All-State honorable mention, Fred Del Guercio, along with Carl Hauschild, starred on defense, repeatedly stopping opposing scoring threats.

The initial game was at home with Verona, and Gerhard's two goals won a 2-0 shutout for the Red and Blue. In a very sloppily played contest with very little teamwork on either side, the Panthers lost to Montclair, 2-1. It marked the first time in several years that the Mounties have come out on top against East Orange. On October 5, in one of the best played games of the year, the Griffin men held Chatham to a 1-1 deadlock, Gerhard accounting for the lone E.O. score.

Three days later the Panthers locked with the usually fine Kearny aggregation, which was later picked as the Group IV champions.

During the first half, Panther goalie Chuck McCusker made innumerable saves until Dave Mathewson, high scorer in the State, scored the lone tally of the game as the Kards won, 1-0.

Recovering from this tough loss, the Red and Blue evened scores by removing Montclair from the ranks of the unbeaten by a 2-1 count. The game was marked by a sensational goal, kicked by Carl Hauschild, from thirty-five yards out. Outclassed by a stubborn E.O. attack, Summit battled to a scoreless tie as many shots were attempted but all were wide of their mark.

The season came to a climax when the Panthers upset the highly favored Edison Vocational Tech of Elizabeth, which hadn't lost a soccer game since the sport was adopted several years ago. The score was 2-1. Chatham then scored a 2-0 win as the Panthers were handed their second shutout of the year.

After spotting the visitors a two-goal lead, Verona plugged back to win 3-2, the next week. On October 28, E.O. played host to Summit, downing the visitors, 3-1, as Rocco Orlando scored twice. A very strong Seton Hall Frosh team then closed the season on a sour note, handing East Orange its fifth loss.

Basketball

FIRST ROW: A. De Aquino, T. Ritt, E. Van Brunt, D. Stack, J. Butler, J. Ferguson. SECOND ROW: Mr. Milner, F. Capasso, C. Cronham, D. Dawson, S. Manning, J. Villani, C. Kurebanas, M. Swoyer.

COACH FRANK MILNER in his first year as East Orange basketball mentor, put new life into the Panther squad and showed fine prospects for future seasons. The Red and Blue compiled a mediocre record by triumphing seven times during the fifteen-game schedule of the regular season and reached the second round of the Essex County Tournament at Seton Hall.

Scoring for the season was fairly well divided among the starting lineup of Frank Capasso, Chuck Cronham, Stan Manning, Jack Villani, and Lou Tunnera. Tunnera came out on top of the scoring derby, with Villani and Manning giving him close competition all season. Cronham's superb play-making also merited much praise.

Opening the season with the traditional alumni game, the Panthers gained a hard fought 39-35 victory over the former Red and Blue stars. A 34-32 loss to a weak Orange squad followed. East Orange then got on the right side of the ledger by routing an unpredictable Irvington squad by a 43-22 count.

The Panthers then travelled to Nutley and came home with a 60-44 loss for their effort. Manning's twelve points highlighted a 50-32 triumph over Montclair. In the next game Barringer put on a last-quarter rally and downed East Orange, 44-42.

Three straight victories followed, as Weequahic, Orange, and Montclair bit the dust. The latter was by far the most formidable opponent; the Panthers were forced to come from behind in the second half to win in overtime on Capasso's free throw.

The season drew to a close on a sour note, as the Red and Blue dropped five straight contests, two each to West Orange and Columbia and one to Bloomfield. Consequently, they finished in a tie with Orange for last place in the Inter-Oranges League. The season's finale was a 37-30 decision over Barringer.

In the post season Essex County tourney, the Panthers upset the favored West Side contingent to the tune of a 39-37 win. Cronham and Villani were the big guns this time, scoring 23 points between them. The second round was the Panthers' downfall as Belleville downed East Orange, 47-34.

DURING THEIR YEARS with E.O.H.S. the girls have enjoyed many activities under the system of the Girls' Athletic Association. This past year, in which nine extra-curricular sports were offered, has been an especially active one for G.A.A. members. The sports offered were volleyball, hockey, tennis, swimming, bowling, basketball, modern dance, soft ball, and badminton. The girls have spent many pleasant afternoons learning these sports and improving their skill in them.

The G.A.A. sends teams to compete with girls of other schools. These teams, however, are not picked on the basis of skill, but on interest. Any girl who is interested in playing may do so. The number of these interscholastic games has increased.

Intramural tournaments were also held in basketball, volleyball, and tennis. Competition between the volleyball teams has been particularly keen this year. As in the interscholastic games, these teams also consist of all girls who wish to play.

The G.A.A. sent six girls to participate in the All-State Public School Hockey tournament. Another game which aroused interest was the basketball game played with the alumnae. The annual G.A.A. picnic held at Locust Grove in Millburn was well attended and a great success.

The G.A.A. has an award system which is based on active participation. Two girls in the Senior class, Susan Darrah and Mary Gaines, in their Junior year, were awarded the highest merit of the G.A.A. Jean Hermann and Alyce Reilly received this same merit in their Senior year. This award is a key and is given for active participation in fifteen G.A.A. sports.

These and many other awards were given in the annual joint assembly held by the Girls' Athletic Association and the Boys' Athletic Association.

PROMISES MADE ARE PROMISES BROKEN OR WOULDN'T YOU KNOW IT?

*Seen from a freshman's point of view,
A senior looks quite grand.
And for a three-year period,
It's more than he can stand
To see them parading through the halls,
With confident auras about 'em.
Because of their rudeness and snobbery,
He'd much rather do without 'em.
Many are the vows he makes with care,
Promising that he,
When he's made the senior grade,
Will act unconceitedly.*

*The years drag by: one, two and three,
And then at last they're done.
The freshman class of years ago
Is ready now for fun.
Wrong directions are always told,
Noses brush the sky.
But best are the acts that they put on
When a freshman passes by.
Looks of disdain appear on their faces,
Haughty contempt is there.
And woe betide the freshman green
Who gets in a senior's hair.*

*What of that freshman's vows, you say?
Well, this much I'll set down,
The boy that made those promises bright
Long ago moved from town!*
