Each of us encounters a maze of pitfalls and inspirations in our journey of living. From each we should receive some measure of encouragement for continuing our effort to make the most of our talents and rise to more enriched plateaus.

We all dream of great deeds and high positions, away from the pettiness and humdrum of ordinary life. Yet success is not occupying a lofty place or doing conspicuous work; it is being the best that is in you. Rattling around in too big a job is worse than filling a small one to overflowing. Dream, aspire by all means; but do not ruin the life you must lead by dreaming pipe dreams of the one you would like to lead. Make the most of what you have and are. Perhaps your trivial, immediate task is your one sure way of proving your mettle. Do the thing near at hand, and great things will come to your hand to be done.

I leave you with this very beautiful and appropriate poem by Douglas Malloch, entitled, "Be the Best of Whatever You Are"

If I can't be a pine on the top of the hill
Be a scrub in the valley — but be
The best little scrub by the side of the hill;
Be a bush if you can't be a tree.

If you can't be a bush be a bit of the grass,
And some highway happier make;
If you can't be a muskie then just be a bass—
But the liveliest bass in the lake!

We can't all be captains, we've got to be crew,
There's something for all of us here,
There's big work to do, and there's lesser to do,
And the task you must do is the near.

If you can't be a highway then just be a trail,
If you can't be the sun be a star;
It isn't by size that you win or you fall—
Be the best of whatever you are!

My years at E.O.H. were hard, but I got through it. My key was to mind my own business and take care of "self". High school dead and gone and I'm glad it's over. I'm off to Cititone Institute in Edison. I don't think I will miss anyone. Everyone important will still be in my life. Personally I think that I let it pass me by without proving anything. I feel that I wasted too much time. I am just lucky that I had other talents. Out to all the hall masers and weirdoes. Also remember this: "Everything that looks good to you is not always good for you."

4 all of those that I brought laughter and joy remember me. 4 all of those who I hurt-ed or offended please for-give me. I hope that the number of people that I made smile outweighs the number of people that I brought frowns to. Remem-ber me.

To my beautiful and wonderful baby girl Manoucheka, the one that only weighed 6 pounds 7 ounces when I give birth to her. She was the most beautiful baby I have ever seen, my husband named her Mouchecka. The name means beautiful sunset, because she grew romantically like sheried flowers wherever she goes. As you could see the name is beautiful as it is long. We just want to say that we love you keep to up the good work because the best is yet to come.
