2007 "Our Time To Shine"

This was the best of times. After one year at Campus 9 and two more at Campus High, our senior year finally arrived. With the start of the 2006-2007 school year, the camera was now focused on us.

For us this was not just another school year. It was our time of promise, our time of accomplishments, our time of success. We would no longer be the filler in the background. We would step up to the front in the position of leadership. We would accept the challenges and grasp the torch that had been passed to us, and we would make this truly a year to remember. It is our time to shine!

Auditions Today

The real show was in the classroom, and we did what we could to keep THAT legitimate.

We learned a great deal about life through group talks.

Sometimes, we had to study alone.

We lived by the "FAILURE IS NOT AN OPTION" motto.

On With The Show

"Pit Stop"

A "Pit Stop" before the real show (class) could be a dash to the locker, a visit to the lunchroom, a stop to pick up the crown, a chat with the classmate who has the answers, a tip on how to make a date, . . . It could be just about anything.

"Lean on Me"

It was the coldest day of the month, and we had an unexpected fire drill that lasted for a long while. But everyone took the chill with good spirits.

Lean on me for warmth . . .

Lean on me for greater insight . . .

. . . for a good a story . . .

. . . or for a good place to hide . . .

... and even when you think I'm not there, if I'm nowhere to be found ...

I'll be waiting for you to lean on me.

Christmas at the Campus

"Jingle All the Way"

Several clubs and organizations came together on this event and pulled off a never-before holiday event. Youngsters from a local organization were brought to the Campus for gifts and a visit with our own St. Nick. The celebration was planned courtesy of the National Honor Society, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Campus Cares, and the Latin American Culture Club.

The Campus Chorus sang in the holidays.

ABOUT FACE!

The R.O.T.C. Flight Competition is an annual event held at the Campus. Classes, called "Flights", vie to demonstrate their mastery and skill in discipline. The best class wins. Then the best individual wins.

Dr. Parayanthal's students enjoyed breakfast at Harris's Diner.

Dr. Paryanthal's AP Biology students are not only intelligent but also socially responsible. The homeroom class raised and donated more to the annual Thanksgiving food drive than any other class. Donations included a turkey as well as numerous canned and dry foods.

"A Knight's Tale"

TIME OUT OF CLASS

So much of the English IV curriculum is about the Middle Ages, so it makes sense to spend a day at Medieval Times. We were assigned to the kingdom of the Green Knight, and we were hooked. We loved being green.

Black History Month Students' & Teachers' Read-in

Students learned about the life of Black poet, Langston Hughes.

The Read-in

February 1 is the birthday of Langston Hughes and the day we began the celebration of Black History Month with the reading of numerous poems, stories, and speeches written by him and other Black authors. The entire day was devoted to this activity in all English classrooms. It was a good time to get to know about the life and works of unfamiliar writers and to revisit some of the work of favorite authors.

Participants shared selected poems and stories by black writers.

In some classes the "reading" was actually an acting performance.

I'm sad to say that leaving these girls will be the hardest thing I'll ever have to do. They all have a place in my heart. Nothing can come between me and 'my girls.' "

Dr. Monica Burton

Peer Leaders is a leadership training program through which students are encouraged to use their talents and skills to help other students. The focus is placed on helping students make the transition into high school, on resolving conflicts, and helping peers to make the right choices throughout their high school years.

Peer Leaders

One of the first endeavors of the club was to host a "getting to know you" event for sophomores during the first few weeks of school.

Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Hoover and school principal, Dr. Harris are there to help smooth the transition into the main campus of Campus High.
