COVER BY S.K. SMITH COMPANY NEW YORK, NEW YORK

ORIGINAL COVER DESIGN MARK C. WILTSHIRE LITHOGRAPHED BY ICKES ANNUALS, INC. NUTLEY, NEW JERSEY ISTEN, MY SCOTTIES, and you shall hear Of the Clifford Scott Seniors who graduate this year, Was the sixth of September, in Seventy-two, When they entered these halls as Freshman new. Who all remembers that day and year.

Confusedly they roamed through these corridors,
Asking their friends, "Is this period three or four?"
The cafeteria left something to be desired.
Worshipped like the distant stars
Was the corner store afar — suspension required.
Even though orders specified that food be taken only outside.

Meanwhile impatient to graduate,
As Sophomores we all played it straight.
And through the halls walked Tom K.
To catch those sneaking through the gate.
Each day they hungered to be free.
Those impetuous cut a class,
Though they knew, they might not pass.
They ducked in corners to avoid a clash
With some random office staff.

A hurry of foot,
A dodge to the bathroom,
And down the hall in passing,
A hall monitor from the staff room.

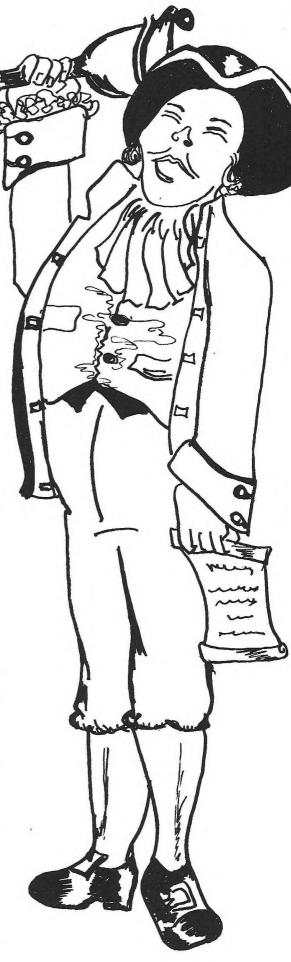

So through the years the Seniors trod. How the teachers passed and failed, Wondering where we got the gall, We covered the school from wall to wall. Chiding Freshman from year to year, Restless because we were still here.

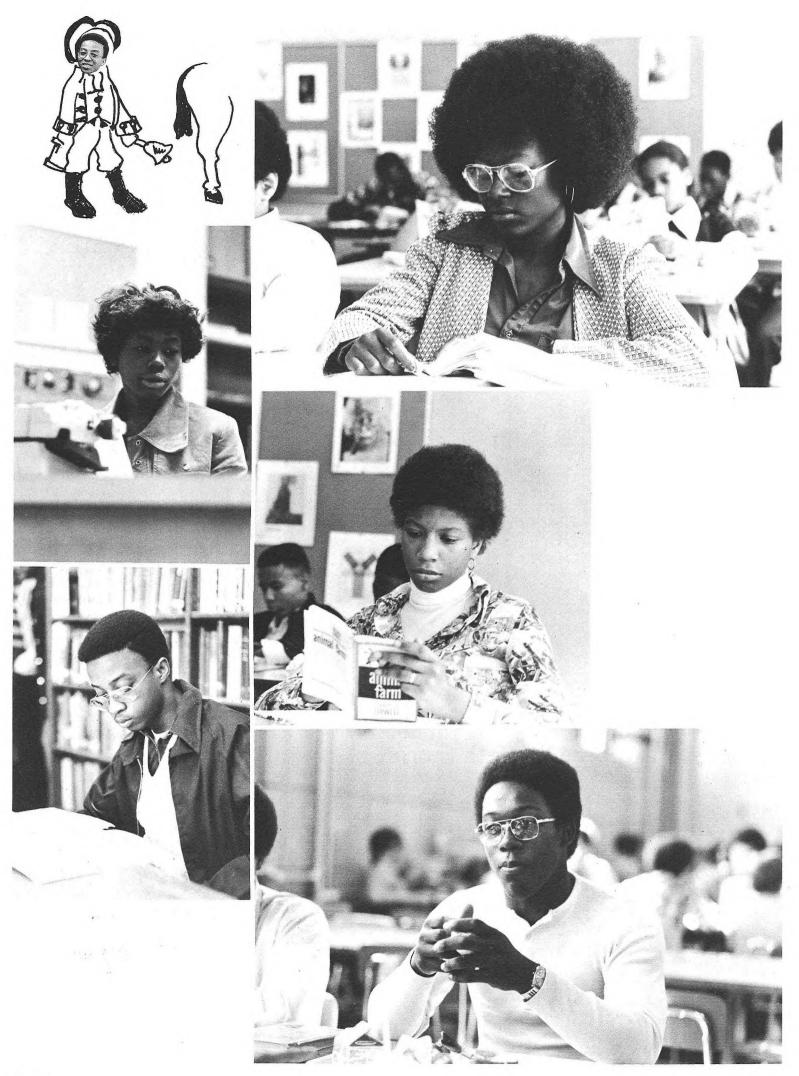

Now have the years all passed us by, And so we relinquish with a sigh.

ISTEN, MY SCOTTIES, and you shall hear Of the hundred and seventy-six who tarried here, Who now and forever will keep in mind, The brothers and sisters they leave behind.

We the class of '76, in order to prepare ourselves for a brighter future, look back on our struggles and accomplishments in hopes that we have enlightened ourselves enough for our fields of endeavor. Like the men who planned our nation 200 years ago, we have also in our four years at Scott laid the foundation upon which we will build our futures. It is better to light one candle than to curse the darkness. It is with such a positive attitude with which we go forth not to tilt with windmills - but to choose our goals and direct our energies toward them as our life's work.
