DIGNITY and SPIRIT

Let it show in your face.

Express to all Your courage Your style Your grace.

No one else shall match it Stay ahead of the race With dignity and spirit You can be in first place.

When sculpturing a goal
Or painting dreams in the sky
Include dignity and spirit

— Two essentials in life.

Hold your head high Aim your dreams at the sky With dignity and spirit You shall reach what is fine.

BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE

Beautiful people With beautiful minds Sharing a thought Or exchanging a smile. Learning and growing As Time passes by Everyday of our lives.

Beautiful people
Seeking a light
Of knowledge and wisdom
— a way which is right.

God's beautiful people A gift to this earth Let us all stand And live up to our worth. Beautiful people Beautiful child In our hands Is where the future lies.

CONCENTRATION

Concentrating
At each tick of the clock.
Minute by minute
The brain going non-stop.

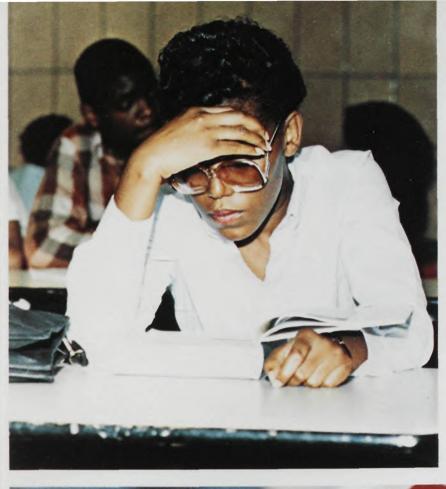

Don't interrupt me Or be such a pain. Don't talk so loudly While I'm racking my brain.

Thank goodness!
I've got it.
It was in 1801
When the war of the U.S. and
Tripoli had begun.

Now, I'm at ease
And my thinking is done.
All thanks are due —
Concentration.

EXPRESSIONS

Expressing oneself Without saying a word And still the message Is clearly heard.

A smirk, a wink, a frown, a smile We are full of them all the while.

Expressions speak back Yes, they do. Look at my face What is it saying to you?

TOGETHERNESS

Together We worked, We laughed And played. Together We started, We ended Each day. Through autumns and winters
And springs that passed
We achieved what it takes
To be in this class.

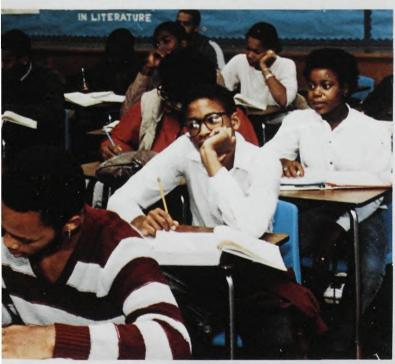

There were rough times
When it came down
To doing the do.
We got it together
And now were jazzing in JUNE.

And whether we don't know this
Or whether we do —
We did it together
The "eighty-four crew".

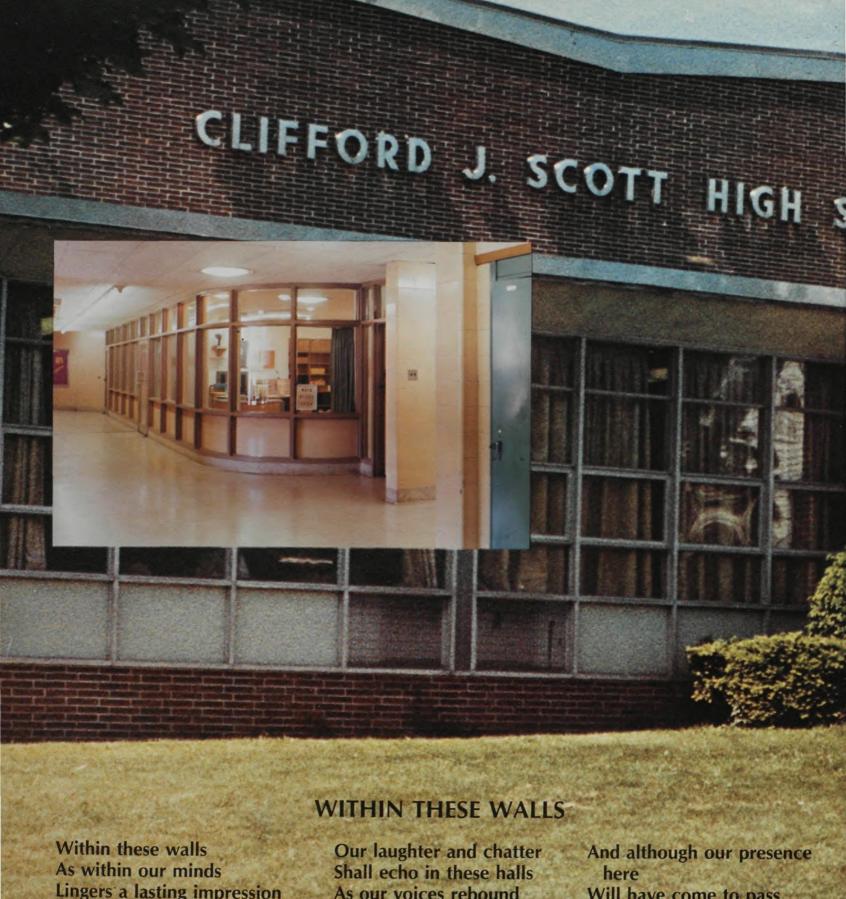

Lingers a lasting impression Of days we must leave behind.

As our voices rebound against These walls.

Will have come to pass Our spirits shall linger So long as these walls may last.

ENLIGHTENMENT

I freed my soul, My mind, and eyes And I have seen the light.

I grew tired Sleepy and weary-eyed From existing in the night.

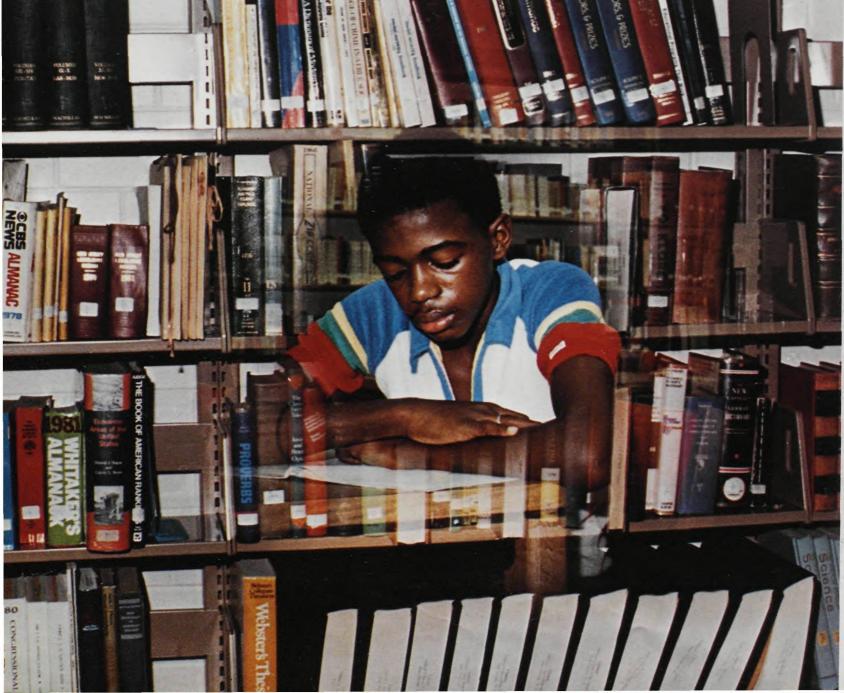

I let my courage cheer me on

And I allowed wisdom to lead the way.

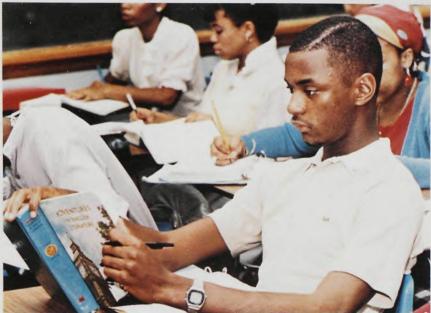

I said, "Begone!" to fear and ignorance With not one moment delayed.

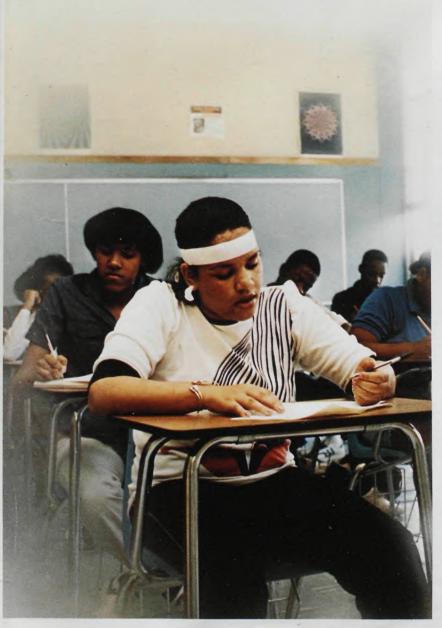

We should all experience the Excitement, That will to learn Which is the first step to Enlightenment.

THE BEGINNING

One ending
One brand new beginning —
We have made it
And we must not stop here.

These memories We shall treasure forever. They shall never leave us We shall keep them so dear. We have accomplished a part
Of one goal.
We must continue to strive

For the whole.

At C. J. Scott High.

And when we look back We shall wear a fine smile Just to remember such splendid times The sky is the limit
In all that we do.
We shall make all of our dreams
As big as we choose.

One ending
One brand new beginning —
We have made it
And we must not stop here.

UNDERCLASSMEN

We love these underclassmen For soon they shall be The top of the ladder That marks VICTORY.

Our underclassmen
The youngest of the string
Are dear to us as part
Of Scott's great family.

They have the ability
To illustrate their strength
By reaching destinations
That seem of great lengths.

These underclassmen We know shall do well. They'll meet every challenge Surely without fail.

The Scotties became the first small school (Group 2) to win the ECT in 1962 when a starting five of Herbie Cohen, Chris Kinum, Jim Ruhnke, Leslie Brown and Buddy Harris teamed up to defeat Seton Hall Prep, 56-47, for the title. Ed Lyons was the coach of that squad.

"When the game was on the line, we wanted it." said Oden, who finished with 24 points, seven in the final 4:12.

Montchair (17-7), which made 25 of 37 foul shots, had capitalized from the free throw line to lead 35-32 at half-time and 60-57 with 4:21 left.

Richard Moses, a 6-2 senior, came off the bench to lead Montclair with 24 points, sinking 12 of 14 from the line. Moses, six of eight from the field, had nine points in the fourth quarter and hit both ends a one-and-one with 2:34 left to give Montclair a 64-62 lead.

Scott downs North Hunterdon for

5 late free throws seal 70-63 victory

By KIM NORRIS

Clifford Scott of East Orange converted five of 10 free throws, including two technical fouls, in the final 11 seconds to defeat North Hunterdon of Annandale, 70-63, for the state girls' Group 3 championship before 1,500 last night at the Rutgers Athletic Center. Piscataway.

It was Scott's third consecutive state title, the last two seasons in Group 2. North Hunterdon (23-5), No. 12 in The Star-Ledger Top 20, had closed to within 65-63 on a follow-up shot by Beth Gromlowicz with 11 seconds left. North Hunterdon promptly called time out but had none left and two technical free throws were assessed.

Felicia Patilla sank the second technical for eighth-ranked Clifford Scott (25-2). Scott then inbounded the ball and North Hunterdon's Pam Balogh was called for an intentional push, which sent her out of the game with her fifth personal. After the whistle, a flagrant foul was called and Scott received two more freee throws.

LaVonne McIver hit one of the two free throws on the first foul and Malissa Stephenson made the second of the two technicals to increase Scott's lead to 68-63 with nine seconds remaining. Patilla was fouled twice more in the final seconds and hit two of four illegal time out.

"I knew we didn't have any time outs left but I guess I didn't relay that to the players," he said.

The teams battled to a 19-19 tie in the first quarter with Balogh hitting 10 of her 23 points for North Hunterdon.

Clifford Scott took the lead for good with 4:30 left in the second quarter when Patilla converted a steal for a 32-30 lead. Scott scored five of the next seven points on a free throw by Sandy Prophete, a bank shot by Stephenson and two more free throws by Patilla for a 37-32 lead.

Gromlowicz hit a 10-foot jumper from the right corner and Mel Myers connected a free throw to pull North Hunterdon to within two. But Prophete hit a 12-foot jumper and followed up a teammate's missed shot to put Scott up, 41-35, at the half.

Scott, which switched from a 3-2 zone in the first half to a man-to-man defense in the second half, could not break the game open, although it built a 10-point lead early in the third quarter. Stephenson, who finished with a game-leading 28 points along with 14 rebounds, opened the third quarter with four consecutive points to put Scott up, 45-35, with 7:18 remaining.

But by the end of the period, North Hunterdon had fought to within 54-49 oy scoring eight of the last 10 points with Balogh getting four points. "They were tough," said a relieved Clifford Scott coach Tom King. 'We were going to outmuscle them but couldn't. I thought they'd be slow and they weren't.

'I figured we could pack it in and make them shoot from the outside and they almost shot us out of the gym."

Prophete collected 17 points and 21 rebounds, including several key rebounds in the second half to spark Scott's offense.

"We probably lost the game on the offensive boards," said Catanese. "They converted so many rebounds in the second half."

CONGRATULATIONS

We wish you the very best of everything, and that you will have a bright future. We love you and are very proud of you.

Aunt Bobbie and (Uncle) Luther

Dear Stephanie, Congratulations! We are so proud of you. You've made it! Now that the easy part is over you are going to have to work even harder to achieve your future goals. Good luck in the career you have chosen. As you climb the ladder of success, may you find happiness along the way. Best wishes to you always and forever.

Love ya, Synthia and Hazel We are proud that you passed the first bridge of your future. The bridges to come will be rough and some will be smooth. The rough bridges will become easier if you cross them with patience and understanding. Remember that we love you and will always be behind you in your endeavors.

Love, Mom, Dad, Reggie, Gene and Pammy

"Life is what you make it
Not what life makes you
Its full of trials and pitfalls
The accolades a fleeting few
Tho roads be long and weary
Oh dark and dreary too
He with God in heart and mind
Thru God's grace stand true"

In your finest hour on your finest day we love you and wish you the very very best.
