

There are memories here that were carved by the time. Sweet, soft, and dear they echo our hearts chime. Now the time has come the future to us calls So we leave behind a thought within these walls. The others must learn now as they move in the halls 'Cause our memory lives trapped within these walls.

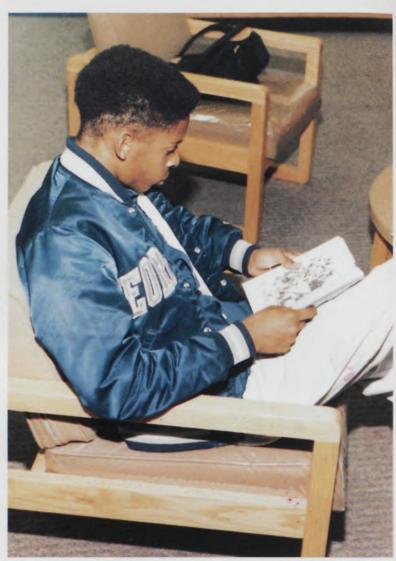

ENLIGHTENMENT

Outside the weathers building
Setting Scenes of blue today
So I get up and start on my busy way.
Inspired by my teachers
Who tell how I've grown
I think beyond my worries
I know I'm not alone.
You who read this
Enlighten your soul
Work hard and beyond your call
And reach your highest goal.

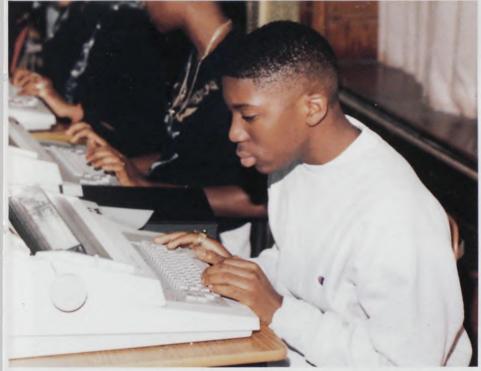

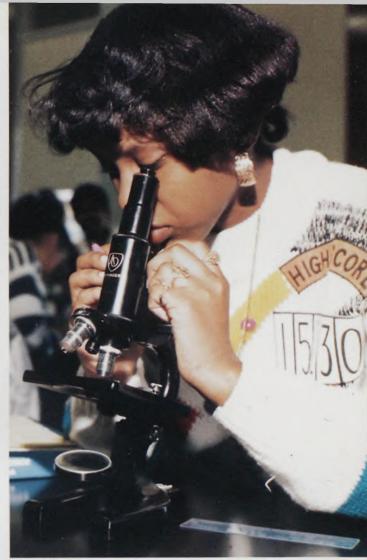

TOGETHERNESS

We are the creation
And so we create
We are the educated
Thus, we educate
Can these be separated?
No! For together
They are the future in our eyes.

My

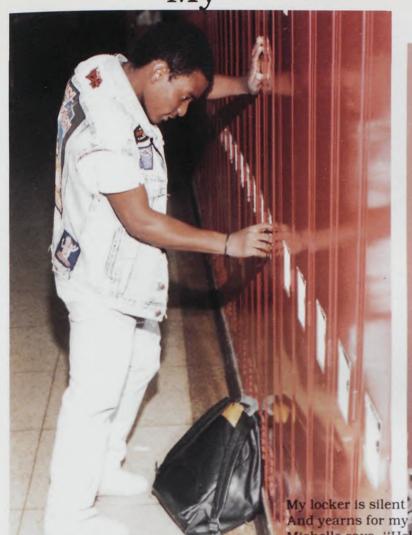

My

LOCKER

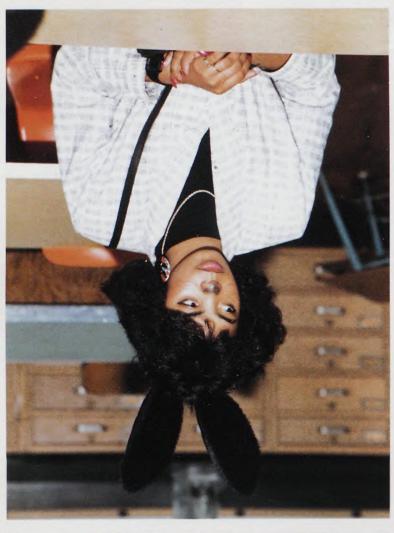

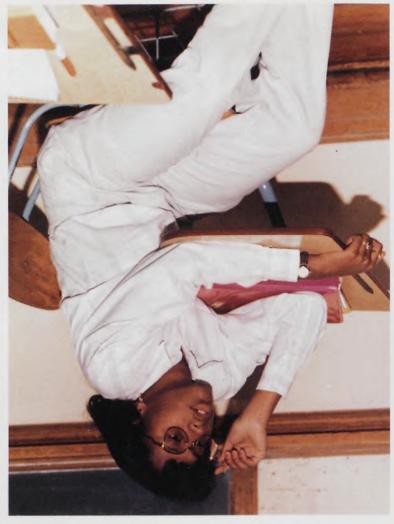

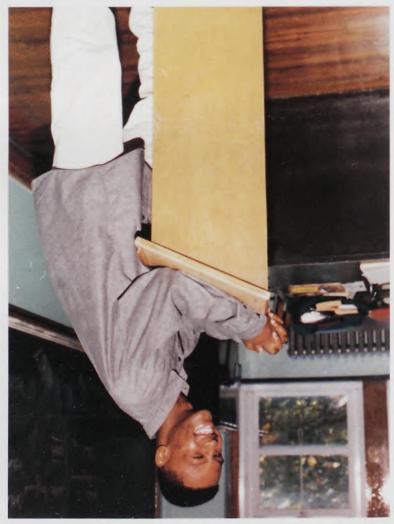

EXPRESSIONS

S P I R I T

S is for self confidence with which you can be the best P is for pride in all you do and say

I is for inspiration to press on beyond the rest

R is respect when you greet others each day

I is insight knowing that victory will manifest

T is for talent and triumph to share to the very best.

S P I R I T We turned back the hands of time to write these words of rhyme.

Back to the time of sweet birth

When we set our feet on Scott's earth.

We all were babies back then yearning for a buddy, a pal, a frien' We roamed Scott's halls with madness Looking for a class and friends with gladness.

Struggling with a book, a locker, a string watching and waiting for bells to ring

We were all but children — new mirth

As Freshmen we tred on Scott's solemn earth.

But as we looked

back, time passed us by Sophomores, we were destined to fly Giving our all reaching new heights
Making our marks
reaching with might.
Molded and mannered,

clicking with friends
No longer concerned
with silly odds and ends
Extreme in our pride;

haughty but fair We had a right, we took the dare.

CLASS OF

Another year added, Juniors now, Planted seeds through a beaded brow We'd overcome the roadblock HSPT Now we grappled with Mellow but sure — cau-

the PSAT. Set in our ways standards too hipe

tiously siked We kissed away sorrows; whispered to ears

Telling of forgotten passions and fears.

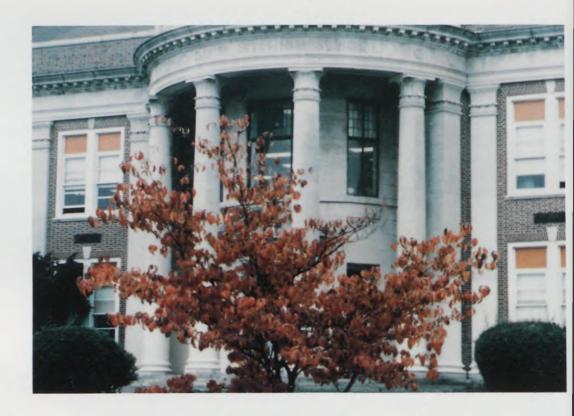

Now at our moment, time stood still

Seniors! Seniors! a portrait, a will All to soon has time passed us by Too soon we hug and say goodbye. A few classes, a job, a simple relation We stand prepared to lead our nation Not knowing it all, but well on our way Thank you, thank you, for this, our day. College, Work, the Army await A notice, a fine, a meeting, a date Sweet tears as we think and take a deep sigh Golden years these have been at C.J. Scott High.

THE

A new beginning here
We mark
With each new task
Here to embark.
So silent and serene
It's so true
The start ends right here
Beginning anew.
C.J.S. has lit all
Our Way
With wisdom to guide us
Into a new TODAY!

Kevin Mosby — I leave my underclassmen the determination to excel in whatever they put their minds to, reach for the stars and to obtain their dreams. I leave my girlfriend my love, devotion and wish her the best things in life. Finally, I leave my parents my love and understanding. Beverly A. Motayne — I leave C.J.S. the happy memories it gave me, I'm proud to be a "Scottie dog." For the past 3-4 years I've attended C.J.S. I know more and more about myself and the way I feel about my peers. So to Clifford J. Scott I leave a principal who did much for us and a dependable and loving faculty — (smile). Jimmy Motley — Peace to the Sentor Class! Akbar Muhammed — I leave all I own to my family. To my Muslim brother Hadeem Fleming as Salaam-Alaikum! Sherloune Normil — My best wishes to Mrs. Nichols in her difficult job. To my favorite teacher, Mr. R. White, always keep your smile, good humor, sensitivity, love for teaching and most important of all your love and care toward others — a quality that is so hard to find. Kevin Oliphant — I, Kevin Oliphant, leave my H.S.P.T. scores and the cold gym lockerroom to the underclassmen.

Chantey Roberts is involved in an important conversation concerning honor society plans.

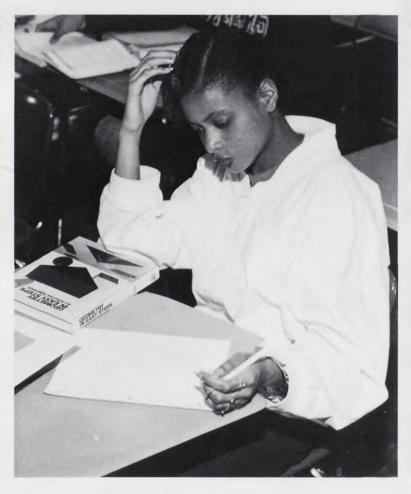

Most Talkative — Anthony Emmanuel

Enayat W. Oliver — To the future graduates of Scott, I leave behind the best of wishes and may you all succeed in life. Football team, may you all achieve more and more and may the track team always excel both on and off the field as those before you have. Reginald Perry — In my last will and testament, I leave all the suspensions and work study I was supposed to have had. I leave all of that I didn't do well in. Kristie Person — Being of sound mind and body, I leave all my homework to all future seniors and thanks to all my teachers and administrators. To my cousin Kanya, best of luck in your last year at Scott. To the class of 90 we're outta here! Jonene Powell — I, Jonene Powell, leave my two (2) best-friends Schcoshis Jones, Angel Diedrich with a positive attitude that they will make it OUT OF HERE and onto bigger and better things. I also leave behind Mr. Gay and Mrs. Gaines — I will miss you both. And lastly I thank my "Grandmother" — Thanks Mal for helping me on to my success. And my father Joseph and Michael R. I love you. I also love you two Ebony and LaRonda — Thanks. PRINCIPAL'S 1990 FAREWELL

March 5, 1990

Dear Seniors:

One of the hardest things to do is to say good bye to someone SPECIAL. It is especially hard for me to say farewell to a group of conscientious, caring, and courageous young men and women. As your leader it is important to recognize the significance of letting go. Like beautiful birds of the universe, I too must let you fly away.

My only hope and prayer is that we at Scott have done our very best to prepare your wings, taught you how to navigate, and have instilled some vision for future flights.

As you fly into the unknown gather a positive flock of people around you. Take time to scoop down and help a wounded or injured member of the universe. Do not feel confident or comfortable when you are successful and all around you other members of the flock are have nots or homeless.

Make your mark on the world with kindness, understanding, love, and concern. Be proud of who you are and where you come from. Know that no one can make it in this world by him or her self. Demonstrate a consistent love and appreciation for family.

Work hard at whatever you do and always have a sense of integrity as you deal with people.

Start your flight. The ground crew will keep us informed.

Good Luck, and may all your dreams come true.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Irene Nichols Principal

CAREER WEEK

Exxon representatives perform a demonstration with K. Mosby's assistance.

A former Scott graduate gives specific information about this particular career area.

1990 CLUBS and ACTIVITIES

TARTAN — The yearbook preserves an everlasting pictorial memory of the school year. Homecoming — Senior ladies and gentleman compete for that treasured namesake of Mr. Homecoming and Miss Homecoming. The homecoming court consists of Mr. and Miss Homecoming, Miss Senior, First and Second Runners-Up, Miss Junior, Miss Sophomore, and Miss Freshman. They all preside and receive their trophies at the Thanksgiving game which also brings back the alumni. THISTLE — The student publication which prints original poems, short stories, essays, and plays from our Scotties. D.E.C.A. — This club competes for awards and trophies in the business area. Students learn business management skills that will encourage them to become a part of the working society. F.B.L.A. — The Future Business Leaders of America Club seeks out Scott students who have an affinity for business. C.H.E. — Cooperative Home Economics enables students to go into areas associated with home economics. C.O.E. — Cooperative Office Education strengthens business skills in typing, stenography, computers, and other business machines with the objective of preparing Scott students for a business career. Future Teachers' Club of America — This club was initiated this year to encourage students into the educational field. Adopt a Teacher, Teacher for a Day, and District Central Office Personnel Switch Day were successful programs for this year. Ushers — This group of dedicated students perform services at various assembly programs. Ecology Club — This conservation and beautification of grounds club recycles aluminum cans and maintains the beauty of Scott's school grounds. Baton Twirling Squad, Honor Guard, Color Guard, American Section, Drill Team, and Flag Twirling Squad are the support units for the C.J. Scott Marching Band. The lady Scotties who perform practice every day and always present a first class show at football halftime and at various parades. Mathematics Club — This club aids students in improving their mathematics skills and also participates in the Northern Hills Conference, New Jersey, and Essex County Math League competitions. Varsity Cheerleaders — These young ladies faithfully lead the cheers for Scott sports. Their spirit motivates the team to play to win and keep good sportsmanship in high esteem. Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman Class Officers — Motivated by their teacher advisors, the classes fund raise to defray the cost of the Junior Prom, Senior Prom, and Senior trip. The advisors stimulate their class to work together as a unified unit. Wolfpack — This club is comprised of the leaders of all the clubs. The prime objective is to continue to improve the total school environment for the students and the staff. S.A.D.D. — This group's main function is to alert students to the dangers of drinking and driving. J.V. Cheerleaders — Initiated this year, this bubbly group helps promote sportsmanship and cheers the J.V. teams on to victory. BAGPIPE - The school newspaper makes students aware of current issues, teaches the staff good journalism, and features top academic students and star athletes of the year. National Honor Society - Students who achieve the honor roll and high honor roll are taught to serve the community, aid in student tutoring, engender an academic feeling in the school, and act as role models to fellow Scotties. Girls' State - Students who receive the privilege to participate in this summer program learn the responsibilities of citizenship, democracy, and the structure of the government of their state. Computer Club — Students gain advanced learning in useful computer language.

1990 CLUBS and ACTIVITIES

Library Council — Students assist the media personnel in library duties. C.J. Scott High School Choir — Musical ability in unity is demonstrated by this uniquely talented group. The choir performs at outside functions, provides Scott with the Christmas Concert and the Spring Festival. Soloists are nurtured and learn the disciplines of a professional. C.J. Scott High School Marching Band — Enthusiastic at every performance, this lively group of performs stir up the pride and dignity of the Scott family. Football games would not be the same if they were not present. Pep Rallies are opened by these Scotties for the fall, winter, and spring sports. Foreign Language Clubs -The objective of this club is to encourage students to find their place in the language field and to learn more about French, Latin, and Spanish culture and enlighten other people about the importance of foreign languages. International Culture Club — The main objective of this club is to educate people about other cultures and values and to break down the barriers of prejudice. Black Tie Fashion Club - Students who possibly wish to model as a career are given the chance to strut their stuff. The club members participate in various assemblies during the school year. A fashion show which fills the auditorium is held annually. Miss and Mr. C.J. Scott - Ambassadors of the school are chosen yearly in competition against each other. Who will win the coveted honor is a mystery at this fabulous affair. Students compete in formal wear, bathing suit, and talent. Judges are from out of the school. C.J. Scott Theatre Guild - Students interested in drama participate in plays during the school year. Black Horizons Club — This organization fosters the dream of Dr. Martin L. King, Jr. throughout the year and particularly on a day of remembrance — Dr. King's birthday. Black leaders of today and yesteryear are remembered during Black History Month celebrations. Student Council — Pride and dignity for Scott and keeping the Scott family together are the main objectives of this outstanding group of student leaders. C.I.E. — Cooperative Industrial Education helps students get into the work force. On-the-Job training is part of this program. The advisor monitors the student's performance and aids in teaching the students on how to be a professional. Homecoming Pageant — Each year students present themselves at an evening affair in their bid for Mr. Homecoming, Miss Homecoming, Miss Senior, Miss Junior, Miss Sophomore, and Miss Freshman. This is the step to win a place on the ballot and thus be chosen by classmates to represent their class and school at the Homecoming football game. Senior Committees - Young ladies and gentlemen work with a chairperson to fund raise, to choose the place for the Senior Prom, and to function as a unit to do the best for the Senior Class. Honor Roll — Students work hard to get their name on the regular honor roll roster or the high honor roll. Homemakers Club — Students learn to prepare menus and actual foods for a homemaking career. The club members also prepare the table for in-service half days. Service Club — Students assist secretarial staff and receive on-the-job training in office practice areas. Corporate Club — Mentorship and entrepreneurship are fostered through varied visits to corporate areas in the metropolitan area. Guidance Club — Students assist the department. Scottie Shoppe — On-the-job training in entrepreneurial areas are fostered.

To our Son Marlon,

We encourage you to aim high, set your goals and endeavor to reach for them. Indeed you make us very proud to be your Mom and Dad,

Love, then now and always,

Mom & Dad and brothers and sister

To Our Daughter Michele,

We encourage you to continue to set your goals and endeavor to attain them. Today you make us very proud.

Love always,

Mom & Dad and brothers

Jeanetta —

May all your dreams come true, for you have been a real inspiration to all of us. I am proud to have you for a daughter. Be happy, be true; above all be yourself. Remember, "who you are is God's gift to you — what you make of yourself is your gift to God."

Love.
