Fatima L. Baskerville — There is no special thing I leave behind to all — my love. And in these sometimes confusing and competitive times, we should not forget to love ourselves and each other because I have learned that love, when sincere and in its entirety, can be very contagious. So I leave this, "Always love deeply and passionately. You may get hurt, but it's the only way to live life completely." Much love and peace to all. Rasmiyyah Baskerville — I, RB, ain't leaving nothing. I'm taking it all with me. Everything, that is! Emmanuella Rolande Belizaire — I leave my smile, my heart, and thanks to Mr. Hammond, Mr. Henderson, Mr. Bailey, and Mrs. Smith. I leave my thanks for putting up with the Class of 1995. I leave my friendship to Mr. Norwood. To the Track and Baseball Teams, I leave these two words, "Good Luck." Vice Principals, farewell. Peace Aisha, Mable, and friends. Dear ERB, Thank you for your devotion and endless time that you have given to the super 1995 yearbook. Health, happiness, and success to you! Luv, CAP. Kevin L. Bembry — I, firstly, would like to give the Class of 1995 all of their "Props." Next, I would like 2 thank Coach Bill Norwood 4 allowing me to play football for CJS since my freshman year. I also leave all of the underclassmen my eagerness, spirit, and some of my football skills. Finally, I would like to thank everyone for anything they've done for me. And to those who didn't, "Go yo weight up, 'cause I'll be back!" Diane Elaine Benjamin — I, DEB, of sound mind and body, will continue my education far away from CJS. I leave my love and kindness to the Class of 1996. To Tinkabell, I leave my charm and my locker. Faith Lynn Benton — I, FLB, leave the Class of 1996 best of luck. To Jeff, I leave all of my books and classes. To Devon, I leave enough lunch money to last another year. I leave Quan all of my "good" grades. To my friends, H.M., K.P., I.W., I'll miss you. Felicia Bethune — To the graduating classes, I warn you not to have Mrs. Bassette for English 4. Kylle Kavon Blazer — My last will and testament is to be all that I can be and to do something with my life. I want to be married and have children. I hope that I can change the world with my education that I received from CJS. I hope all of my friends succeed in life. And even if you were not my friend, I hope you are successful. Ravyn Blue — I, RB, leave my quietness and peaceful personality to everyone at CJS. My greatest aspirations go to my mother for being there for me through thick and thin. Most of all, I thank God for seeing me and watching over me through my school years.

Ruthnie Semelfort - I, RS, being of sound body, mind, and soul, leave the Class of 1996 all of my books and homework. I leave my thanks and gratitude to Mr. Bailey and Mrs. Smith for guiding us throughout those 4 long years. Peace, I'm out. (Dear Ruthnie, Thank you for all of your help on the yearbook staff. Best of luck in the future. You are super! Luv, CAP.) Charmaine N. Shipmon — I, CNS, being of soun mind and thick body, wish success and happiness to the Class of 1995. To my sisters Mabel and Ashanti, I leave the memories of good and bad. Thanks for being there. To my cousin Malika, I leave the gift to achieve whatever you want in life. Desire C. Somerville - I, DCS, leave the underclassmen of CJS my knowledge and wisdom. I hope you become very successful in whatever you choose to do. Class of 1995, good luck and best wishes in the future. Zakiyyah Steele - I, ZJS, being of sound mind and body, leave the tennis team my love, support, and skills. I thank my Uncle Chubby for his rides to school. I leave the pressure, hardships, and pain of senior year to the next senior class. Mabel Stoll - I, MSS(STephanie), being of intelligent mind and frail body, stress to all underclassmen- Stay in school and learn because money and respect are things that you will earn. To the Class of 1995, especially Ashanti and Charmaine, I leave my laughter, neatness, memories, and most of all love. Good Luck! Phillippa N. Taylor - I, PNT, being of brilliant mind and body hereby bequeath my fellow Scotties my warmheartedness, my good nature, and my self-determination.

Most Talkative — Kenneth Mann and LaToya Wright (2)

LAST

Lolita Camille Thomas — I, LCT, leave all of my memories and my smile to Abdul and to anyone who wishes to remember them. Earl Ramsey Thurmond — To my mother, I love you. God bless you all! Wallace, stay cool! Alicia, take care. Mrs. Bowie, thank you for being so spontaneous! To my darling through the years-with all of my heart-I'll pray that we shall have a special love-always and forever. Jeanette Weathers — I leave my sister my personality and my sense of humor. To my underclassmen and especially the soon-to-be seniors, I leave determination, success, and the memories of the Class of 1995. Takiyah Renee White — I, TRW, leave my Cousin Stephanie my personality and my footprints to follow me. To Aleia, I leave my intelligence. Use it wisely, Girl! To all of my favorite teachers (You know who you are.), THANKS! A special thanks to my Mom. I DID IT! LOVE YA! Tamika Wilkerson — To all of the up and coming basketball players, I leave my knowledge, my skills, and my leadership as a senior and a basketball player. To my sister Quiana, I leave this advice, "Please get your act together and graduate".

Most Talkative — Kristy Crawford and Hassan Munford (1)

WILLS

Daaiyah K. Williams — I leave the staff and underclassme my dust, 'cause that's how fast I'm going to run away from here in June, I leave special thanks to Ms. Conroy, Mr. Hammond, and Mr. Henderson. Thanks for believing me. To my little sister Niffy, I leave my footsteps. Follow them carefully! Felecia Teia Williams — I leave all those staying behind LUCK. And lots of it! And to all of the family and friends acquired over the years, I'll miss you. To those whom I've met during these four years, much love for you. And to the Class of 1995, see ya in ten!!! Bye. Sheara A. Williams — I leave my determination to my brother who needs it. I leave my hard work to my cousins. I leave my personality to Tonia Threatt. And I leave allof my props to "The Rainbow"". When all colors fit, the rainbow will continue to shine! Jobyna N. Wilson - I, JNW, leave the Classes of 1996, 1997, and 1998, the fun, wisdom, and memories of Clifford J. Scott. Regina LaVonne Wingo — I, RLW, leave my brother Kenyatta, Brina, Nia, Najla, and Dee-Dee my smile, intelligence, and luck that this will be you all in the future. To my parents, I love you and thanks for all of your support throughout my life. Mrs. Roberts, I thank you for being there for me and for being a wonderful homeroom teacher. To Marsha and Zeenie, it has been a long four years. We've finally made.....I'm out of here. LaToya Wright — I, LW, being a 90's girl and having a positive mind, leave my leadership and influence to the future graduating class. I give thanks to all of the teachers who were an inspiration in my life. And most important, I would like to thank God for blessing me with parents that sacrificed and cared for me.

'95 History

1991 - 1992

250 strong young ladies and gentlemen entered Clifford J. Scott — ready to face new situations, be a part of the Scott family, and positively contibute to academics and extra-curricular activities. President Ameenah Poole, Vice President Crystal Johnson, Co-Adviser Mrs. Vivian Smith, and Co-Adviser Mr. Glenn Bailey were ready to support this energetic class. A Big Brother and Big Sister Program was instituted. Freshmen Football made a 7-2 record. Athletic stars came forward — Wade Housen, Ekun Baptiste, My-Heaven Aaron, Kevin Bembry, Thomas Mitchell, Crystal Cunningham, Tamika Wilkerson, Kelly Elam, Bradley Conway, Ruthnie Semelfort, just to name a few. Now, we were ready for Sophomore year!

1992 - 1993

Zeenethia Jackson, Karla Porter, Karis Robinson, and Sonja Sealey took over as class officers. Co-Advisers Mrs. Smith and Mr. Bailey further advise the class. The class put on the best talent show and fashion show -"I't's a Nineteen Naughty Five Thang". The class embarked on a class trip to Dorney Park.

1993 - 1994

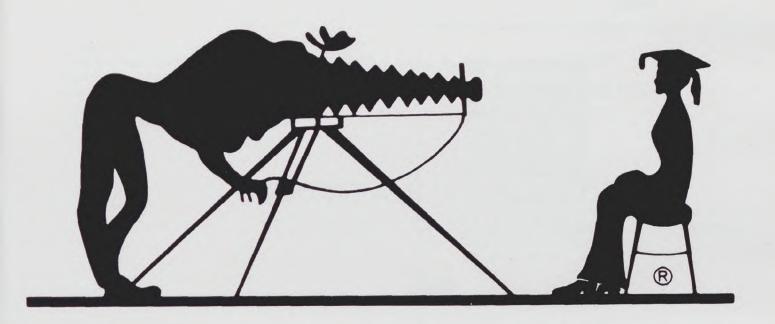

Zeenethia Jackson, Ruthnie Semelfort, Marsha Guthrie, and Karis Robinson take over a class officers. Mrs. Smith and Mr. Bailey act a co-advisers again. We are the first to take the HSPT with HSPT Link Courses. This year was difficult, but we made it through the hard times. PSAT and SAT were tests to remember and remember and remember. . . We put on a show called, "Once Again It's On" which was very successful. We shall always remember our Junior Prom in the gym which was "A Night of Dreams and Romance". Jerry Jean-Baptiste and Sonja Sealey were crowned King and Queen of that elegant and stylish event. The style included Levis Jeans, a blast from the past from the seventies and the flashiness of silver. Now we were ready for "SENIOR YEAR".

1994 - 1995

180 School Days Until Graduation!!!

We shall always remember hall sweeps, wolf pack, the security guards. Now, we would have the opportunities to become presidents of clubs, captains of teams, co-editors/editors of publications, and leaders of other activities. The family environment was much a part of us. Homecoming Pageant with Homecoming Queen Miss Kelly Elam, Homecoming King Mr. Hassan Munford, Princess Miss Zeenethia Jackson and Miss Senior Miss LaToya Wright started OUR YEAR — the last. . . We sponsored the first "bonfire". Zeenethia Jakson remained as class president, Jae Bianca Jackson became Student Council President, Ameenah Poole, Emmanuella Belizaire, Crystal Johnson, Ruthnie Semelfort worked hard to become co-editors of the yearbook, Ernest Aidoo drew the TARTAN 1995 cover, Karla Porter aimed high as National Honor Society President, and on and on. . . Our athletes Kelly, Thomas, Crystal, Crystal C., Tamika, Ekun, Harry, Kevin, Dwayne, Edgar, and you supply the others made names for themselves in their respective sports. We sponsored the International Food Court in honor of Kwanzaa and celebrated UJamaa. Westmount Country was the scene of our SENIOR PROM. The theme "Before I Let You Go" will be a lasting memory. Everyone attending was KING and QUEEN for that special night. Hickory Farms, Senior Banquet, Academic Day, Black History Month Assembly, Twilight will always be remembered. And now we are marching for the last time at CJS. It's June 21, 1995. Hats off to good ole Clifford J. Scott High School... See ya in five or ten for a super reunion...

Congratulations Class of 1995
