Varsity Bowling

Coached by Mrs. C. Powell, the Varsity Bowling Team performed well this year. Senior Aaron Trimblett made the first team, Northern Hills Conference, Southern Division, for the second year in a row. He had the second highest average of 197. Newcomer Brian Ross had a 194 average and achieved the fourth highest average on the first team. Lori Wiggins has climaxed her senior year with four years on the team. She made honorable mention as a junior. (1.) Meghan Hearns merited honorable mention this year as the most improved bowler with an average of 146. (2.) Sabrina Brown (3.) and Robert Jefferson (4.) were assets to the team and pulled off some needed victories. Novices to the team were Marlo Crawley (6.) and Kaheer Washington (5.) Aaron Trimblett and Brian Ross went to the sectionals. Brian Ross qualified for the State Finals. Brian became a State Champion with the second highest series of 692 losing first place by one pin. This is the first time ever that C.J. Scott has had a State Bowling Champion. Congratulation, Mrs. Powell and Brian.

Softball

The Varsity Softball Team consists of fifteen enthusiastic young ladies. They are eager to play their best at all times. Senior Cindy Goulbourne will be moving on after this year. Team Members: Seated; A. Kinchen, M. Evans, F. Hutchinson, C. Cannon, S. Wade. Kneeling: P. Cobbinah, K. Williams, M. White, N. Mitchell, J. Clarke. Standing: I. Rix, Assistant Coach M. Sparrow, C. ## FEBRUARY 29

The February 29th African American Assembly started off with "Lift Every Voice And Sing." Doshon Britton was the Master of Ceremonies. Principal Nichols contributed opening remarks to set the tone of honoring Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Black History Month. Greetings were also made by Nikema White. Keynote Speaker Mr. Lawrence Hamm, State Chairman New Jersey Million Man March, addressed the student body.

The significance of African American History was emphasized. The Gospel Choir under the direction of Director Fred Goode sang musical selections.

Haress Goodson recited "The Cross". The Gospel Choir with musical accompaniment sang more selections. Principal Nichols reinforced the significance of Dr. King's efforts and the importance of Black History Month. She also asked for a bonding, not just for today, but for everyday.

February 29

Crystal Beachum expressed her feelings. A. Crawley, K. Lowe, K. Lowe, and J. Thomas sang. Crystal Wheatley, Girard Barnes, Omar Benders, and Nia Griffith also contibuted to the assembly.

The National Honor Society, Student Council, and Gospel Choir bonded together and created an inspiring asssembly to honor Black History Month and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Everyone present pledged to REMEMBER, CELEBRATE, and ACT . . .

FTA

TARTAN

InterAct

Sidney Hicks worked on the TARTAN ' 96. Haress Goodson put in serious hours for the yearbook. Sheilita Glover and Tenesha Frazier codirected the Future Teachers of America and did a splendid job with the Adopt-AStaff Member Program which culminated in a gratifying reception. Simone Ganesh put every bit of effort into TARTAN '96.

The Future Teachers of America and TARTAN '96 are topnotch extra-curricular activies at C.J. Scott High School. Staff and student bonding and the year's memories are these special clubs' roles.

FTA

TARTAN  InterAct

With the time and effort of Tenesha Frazier and Sheilita Glover, the yearbook and the FTA are first class. Nia Griffith was our computer specialist and created computer-generated graphics.

Aishia Hatcher along with Nia Griffith and Tra'Shaun Andrews headed an exciting new club this year InterAct. They were the first executine board members who have paved the way for this club which emphasizes "voluntecrism" This club is the student part of the Rotary Club of East Orange.
